Santo Domingo Mary E. Giles, 1990-07-05 The history of women's spirituality and Christian mysticism demonstrates that women have been influential religious leaders even without benefit of priestly ordination and theological training St Catherine of Siena and St Teresa of Avila are examples of women with visionary gifts of tremendous power A less well known Spanish visionary is Sor María of Santo Domingo a Dominican tertiary of peasant lineage who became so famous for her raptures austerities and prophecies that the king a cardinal and nobles considered her a living saint In 1948 research in the archives of the University of Zaragoza uncovered The Book of Prayer of Sor María of Santo Domingo originally published around 1518 which had gone unnoticed for centuries The text includes some of Sor María's ecstatic utterances and representations and is a first hand look at a woman who in many ways is as representative of the early years of sixteenth century Spain as St Teresa was of the later years Giles book provides the first English translation of this text as well as a study of Sor María and the issues that pushed her into the limelight Christian Allegory in Early Hispanic Poetry David William Foster, 2014-07-15 Distinguishing figural or typological allegory a method adapted from the Christian exegesis of the Old Testament from the broader Hellenistic concept of allegory this book examines its use in representative poems of early Hispanic literature The author focuses on the thematic and structural employment of this originally nonliterary device and comments on the literary problems it posed and the artistic effects which were achieved by it The development of this particular allegorical method in medieval Hispanic literature works in Spanish Portuguese Galician and Catalan he shows was fully equal to that found in the medieval Latin Italian and English literatures and an understanding of its use serves to clarify the interpretation of many individual poems

Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz, 2008-09-05 When it began modern Spanish cinema was under strict censorship forced to conform to the ideological demands of the Nationalist regime In 1950 the New Spanish Cinema was born as a protest over General Francisco Franco's policies a new series of directors and films began to move away from the conformist line to offer a bold brand of Spanish realism In the 1950s and early 1960s filmmakers such as Juan Antonio Bardem Luis García Berlanga and Luis Buñuel expressed a liberal image of Spain to the world in such films as Muerte de un ciclista Death of a Cyclist Bienvenido Señor Marshall Welcome Mr Marshall and Viridiana The emergence of new directors continued into the sixties and seventies with Carlos Saura José Luis Borau Víctor Erice and others After Franco's death in 1975 censorship was abolished and films openly explored such formerly taboo subjects as sexuality drugs the church the army and the Civil War The Spanish cinema was no longer escapist and entertaining but at long last mirrored the society it depicted While established directors like Saura Bardem and Berlanga continued to produce distinguished work the new wave of Spanish cinema included brilliant films by the likes of Montxo Armendáriz Tasio Fernando Trueba First Work Imanol Uribe The Death of Mikel and Pedro Almodóvar Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown In the last couple of decades exciting works by established filmmakers and newcomers alike continue to be produced including Alejandro Amenábar's Thesis José Luis García's The Grandfather and Almodóvar's Talk to Her and

Performance, Trauma and Puerto Rico in Musical Theatre Colleen Rua,2023-08-11 This study positions four musicals and their associated artists as mobilizers of defiant joy in relation to trauma and healing in Puerto Rico This book argues that the historical trajectory of these musicals has formed a canon of works that have reiterated resisted or transformed experiences of trauma through linguistic ritual and geographic interventions These traumas may be disaster related migrant related colonial or patriarchal Bilingualism and translation ritual action and geographic space engage moments of trauma natural disaster incarceration death and healing community celebration grieving emancipation in these works The musicals considered are West Side Story 1957 2009 2019 The Capeman 1998 In the Heights 2008 and Hamilton 2015 Central to this argument is that each of the musicals discussed is tied to Puerto Rico either through the representation of Puerto Rican characters and stories or through the Puerto Rican positionality of its creators The author moves beyond the musicals to consider Lin Manuel Miranda as an embodied site of healing that has been met with controversy as well as post Hurricane Maria relief efforts led by Miranda on the island and from a distance In each of the works discussed acts of belonging shape notions of survivorship and witness This book also opens a dialogue between these musicals and the work of island based artists Y no hab a luz that has served as sites of first response to disaster This book will be of interest to students and scholars in Latinx Theatre Musical Theatre and Translation studies Doña María de Zayas Y Sotomayor Lena Evelyn Vincent Sylvania,1922 Examines the works of Dona Maria de Zayas y Sotomayor and their relative literary importance Provides a brief biography of the author a general framework of her short stories El Jardin Enganoso and El Castigo de la Miseria and a chapter on feminism in her work Beautiful Maria of My Soul Oscar Hijuelos,2010-04-23 In this mesmerizing sequel to a Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Mambo Kings Play Songs of Love the heart stealing heroine Amy Tan and muse of Cuban musician Nestor Castillo takes readers on the journey of a lifetime with this story of reinvention romance and revolution In The Mambo Kings Play Songs of Love Mar a is the great Cuban beauty who stole musician Nestor Castillo s heart and broke it inspiring him to write the Mambo Kings biggest hit Beautiful Mar a of My Soul Now in her sixties

Mar a Garc a y Cifuentes is the lady behind the song living as an exile in Miami But while she left Cuba decades ago she has never forgotten Nestor We now see the Mambo Kings story through Maria s eyes and as she thinks back to her days and nights in Havana an entirely new perspective on the story unfolds We meet her as an illiterate young woman with unspeakable head turning beauty who meets and falls in love with Nestor in Havana but ultimately chooses to stay involved with a cruel wealthy lover When the Cuban Revolution intervenes Maria and her daughter seek refuge in Miami And as she finds community with other Cuban women and begins to take lessons at a local college Maria finally goes from muse to the writer of her own story Beautiful Mar a of My Soul is a stunning act of reinvention and another contemporary classic from an extraordinarily talented writer Includes a Reading Group Guide Book for the Hour of Recreation María de San José Salazar,2007-11-01 Mar a de San Jos Salazar 1548 1603 took the veil as a Discalced barefoot Carmelite nun in 1571 becoming one of Teresa of Avila s most important collaborators in religious reform and serving as prioress of the Seville and Lisbon convents Within the parameters of the strict Catholic Reformation in Spain Mar a fiercely defended women s rights to define their own spiritual experience and to teach inspire and lead other women in reforming their church Mar a wrote this book as a defense of the Discalced practice of setting aside two hours each day for conversation music and staging of religious plays Casting the book in the form of a dialogue Mar a demonstrates through fictional conversations among a group of nuns during their hours of recreation how women could serve as very effective spiritual teachers for each other The book includes one of the first biographical portraits of Teresa and Maria s personal account of the troubled founding of the Discalced convent at Seville as well as her tribulations as an Inquisitional suspect Rich in allusions to women s affective relationships in the early modern convent Book for the Hour of Recreation also serves as an example of how a woman might write when relatively free of clerical censorship and expectations A detailed introduction and notes by Alison Weber provide historical and biographical context for Amanda Powell s fluid translation
