Communicating Human and Non-Human Otherness Helena Pires, Zara Pinto-Coelho, Luísa Magalhães, 2024-12-23

This book approaches the generic theme of the series studies in otherness and communication from the perspectives of urban culture and posthumanist studies. It brings together a broad variety of essays examining the different ways in which agency reinvents itself whether in the urban space through the multiple forms and devices of art and culture or through the relationship with technology and the surrounding environment as a result of the contemporary conditions of post humanism and the anthropocene. The sense of becoming other is added through a new paradigm that combines 1 a theoretical essayistic mode supported by illustrative cases with 2 the description of artistic processes and literary production. The essays are written by an international group of humanities and social sciences scholars, artists consisting of Cristina Ivares Pier Luca Marzo Edwige Armand Chiara Mengozzi Ricardo G Soeiro Panagiotis Ferentinos M nica Aub n Borrell Luis Campos Medina Bill Psarras C ntia Sanmartin Fernandes Micael Herschmann Mitja Velikonja Teresa Mora and Tiago Porteiro. Global Development of Religious Tourism Alaverdov, Emilia, Bari, Muhammad Waseem, 2020-10-30. Modern religious tourism is a main segment of the tourism business. The main goal of religious tourism is aimed at developing human spirituality, spiritual healing and culture where a person receives the experience of cooperation or involvement with the place in which he resides, his people, culture and religion. This type of tourism is able to play a significant role in the overall goals of society and to promote the establishment of trusting relationships between people of all cultures and religions. Global Development of Religious Tourism is a crucial reference book that contains research on the current religious situation as well as the tourism industry and provides insights on their joint development. It is not possible to study any religious field without understanding the religion itself and its impact on any country's political and social system. Therefore the work also examines the impact of religion and tourism on economic and social developments across the world. Highlighting topics that include sanctuary cities, religious tourism management and religious tourism in regions that span Europe, Africa, the Middle East and more, this book is targeted to managers, executives, planners and other professionals in the tourism and hospitality industry, government officials, religious leaders and researchers, academicians and students working in the fields of tourism management, business management, information and communication sciences, administrative sciences and management education and social and political sciences. Tourism: The Key Concepts Peter Robinson, 2012-10-12. Tourism: The Key Concepts offers a comprehensive collection of the most frequently used and studied concepts in the subject of tourism Within the text key terms concepts typologies and frameworks are examined in the context of the broader social sciences blending together theory and practice to explore the scope of the subject Terms covered include Ethical Tourism LGBT Tourism Hospitality Mobility Authenticity Quality Management Destination Management Geographies of Tourism Planning Sociology in Tourism Society and Culture Tourism Strategy Each entry contextualises defines and debates the concept discussed providing an excellent starting point for those studying tourism for the first time and a quick reference for those who are more experienced With case studies examples and further reading throughout this text will be invaluable for all undergraduate and postgraduate tourism students

Teaching Tourism Edelman, Johan,Joppe, Marion,Flaherty, Joan,2022-02-22 Tourism as an activity is increasingly being criticised for its exploitative and extractive industrial approaches to business Yet it has the power to transform and to regenerate societies cultures and the environment The desire to explore the world around us is deeply embedded in many people s psyche but it comes at a cost to the environment and often to the residents of the visited communities Much of tourism education has been closely linked to preparing students for future professional practice but the challenges and opportunities linked to its consumption require that its future leaders must exhibit very different values and understandings to tackle ever more complex and wicked problems from which tourism cannot dissociate itself This compilation of values based learning experiences can be adapted to suit the needs and disposition of individual instructors and aims not only to engage students in the subject matter but also deepen their understanding of its complexity and interconnectivity and help them become global citizens that lead lives of consequence Asian Qualitative Research in Tourism Paolo Mura,Catheryn

Khoo-Lattimore,2018-02-21 This book explores the ontologies epistemologies methodologies and methods that inform tourism qualitative research conducted either by Asian scholars or non Asian scholars focusing on Asia In addition to providing a platform for researchers to publish their qualitative journeys it aims to encourage further Asian qualitative tourism research production The book not only includes chapters from Asian scholars but also non Asian tourism researchers with a focus on Asia as their chapters are crucial to represent the multiplicity of realities constituting Asia It is of interest to the whole tourism academic community as it provides novel methodological insights from a non Western perspective which at the moment are often silenced by dominant Western voices Proximity and Intraregional Aspects of Tourism Jelmer

Jeuring,Inmaculada Diaz Soria,2018-10-18 Tourism research often tends to overlook both the mundane of the exotic and the exotic of the everyday However when acknowledging that exoticism is not necessarily linked to geographical distance it is similarly possible to attribute touristic otherness to and experience unfamiliarity in a geographically proximate environment This entails a need to rethink the intertwining relationships of meanings of the exotic and the mundane as well as the ways people make meaning of their everyday environment through processes of territorialization and identification in a tourism context The articles collected in this book cover a range of examples of tourism practices in a context of geographical proximity where home and away everyday life and tourism intersect While the settings methodologies and concepts vary considerably each contribution is an attempt to rethink the hegemonic linear framing of tourism in dichotomies such as familiar and unfamiliar nearby and far host and guest mundane and exotic The examples findings and conclusions of the various authors contribute to an understanding of tourism that is multiple and relative to an open minded and critical attitude towards the institutionalized anchors of our society in which tourism takes such a prominent place that it has almost become ordinary This book was originally published as a special issue of the Tourism Geographies journal Issues in Cultural Tourism Studies Melanie K. Smith,2015-10-14 The third edition of Issues in Cultural Tourism Studies provides a vital framework for analysing the complexity of cultural tourism and its increasing globalization in existing as well as emergent destinations of the world It focuses in particular on the need for even more creative tourism strategies to differentiate destinations from each other using a blend of localized cultural products and innovative global attractions The book explores many of the most pertinent issues in heritage arts festivals indigenous ethnic and experiential cultural tourism in urban and rural environments alike Since the second edition of this book there have been many important developments in this field and this third edition has been completely revised and updated to include New content on demand and motivation for cultural tourism sustainable cultural tourism and ethnic cultural tourism New and updated case studies from an even wider global perspective A revised up to date framework for global cultural tourism studies in the light of recent research publications and industry developments New pedagogical features within the text to aid understanding and critical thinking including questions at the end of case studies and a further reading section At the interface between the global and the local a sustainable and people centred approach to cultural tourism planning and development is advocated to ensure that benefits are maximized for local areas a sense of place and identity are retained and the tourist experience is enhanced to the full The text is unique in that it provides a summary and a synthesis of all of the major issues in global cultural tourism which are presented in an accessible way using a diverse range of international case studies It is essential and valuable reading for all tourism students

A Research Agenda for Tourism and Development Richard Sharpley, David Harrison, 2019 Tourism is integral to local regional and national development policies as a major global economic sector it has the potential to underpin economic growth and wider development Yet transformations in both the nature of tourism and the dynamic environment within which it occurs give rise to new questions with regards to its developmental role This Research Agenda offers a state of the art review of the research into the tourism development nexus Exploring issues including governance policy philanthropy poverty reduction and tourism consumption it identifies significant gaps in the literature and proposes new and sometimes provocative avenues for future research
