

David and Goliath Bible Story

David and Goliath

One day, David's father asked him to take some food to his brother who were out at battle.

David was excited to go. When he arrived he found everyone was scared of the enemy.

There was a big, strong giant called Goliath. He asked, "Send one man to fight me. If you win, we will serve you. But if I win, you and your David didn't understand why everyone was scared to fight this giant.

David remembered God was faithful and strong.

When a lion or a bear would attack David and his sheep in the field, God would always protect David.

David knew God would do the same

David said, "I will fight this giant." He went to talk to King Saul.

King Saul said that David must wear his armour to protect him. Saul was big and tall. David was small. Saul's armour was too big for him.

David said, "I don't need armour to protect me. God will help me."

David went down to the river and got five smooth stones to fight Goliath.

Goliath laughed and said it was a joke to send a boy to fight him.

David took a stone, put it in his sling, and shot it at Goliath. It hit Goliath's forehead and he fell to the ground. God had once again is our true home but we've picked up a habit of resisting it. And when finally we do fall in, most of us find we've survived so long outside his kingdom that we've lost all instinct for thriving in it. That's where Roger Helland meets us. Roger has thought long and studied hard on these matters. He has pondered deeply what it means to be fully alive in Christ and for Christ and he's tested his insights in classrooms in churches with denominations but mostly in his own life. In Magnificent Surrender he's distilled what he's learned into a field guide for kingdom living. But Roger draws from an even deeper source. His book derives its force and depth from Paul's letter to the Colossians. Indeed, Magnificent Surrender is an extended pastoral reflection on and application of that letter. Colossians in four brief chapters presents the glory of Jesus Christ and the glory of a life wholly submitted to him. It is a manifesto of the rich life. Magnificent Surrender heralds that brilliantly. It's a wise, loving, and sometimes stern invitation to read Colossians again with fresh eyes and fierce resolve. It's also a challenge to take to heart its promise and its exhortation that we can and must live in through with and for Christ who is all and in all, supreme and sufficient. Mark Buchanan from the Foreword.

The Old Testament: High School Group Study Jim Burns, 2010-11-19. In recent years, movie goers have been taken back to the beginnings of nearly every modern action hero: Batman, Spider-Man, James Bond, and Iron Man, and company, just to name a few. Our fascination with these heroes' origins is a reflection of our longing to know where we came from and why we are the way we are. With The Old Testament, you can share with teens their own origin story and help them make sense of their world and themselves. These 12 sessions of youth-friendly Bible study will introduce your students to the God who keeps His promises, works miracles, and forgives His people when they make terrible choices, and help them understand the physical and spiritual history of our human family. And when they meet Adam and Eve, Samuel, Job, Esther, Daniel, and many more biblical characters, your students will get to know the real heroes of the faith.

Downloads for reproducible student handouts for every session are available. Sharing Your Faith & Serving Others: High School Group Study Jim Burns, 2011-05-09. Teens have a reputation for being self-absorbed and all about me, but most of them care deeply about God and others and just wish they knew how to show it. With Sharing Your Faith and Serving Others: Uncommon High School Group Study, you can equip the students in your group to make a difference in the world by seeing others as Jesus sees them. Teens will learn how to use their gifts in service to others, how to lead their peers with gentleness and compassion, and how to share their faith by being an encouraging, generous friend. These 12 sessions of youth-friendly Bible study are the newest edition to the Uncommon curriculum series created by veteran youth minister Jim Burns. Action-packed fun activities and insightful discussion outlines will get your teens thinking about the Great Commission and the Great Commandment and talking about how they can follow Jesus in love and obedience. Inside the book, you'll find a special download link for additional reproducible student handouts and options for every session to tailor each study to your group's unique needs.
