Losing Your Religion Finding Your Faith Spirituality For Young Adults:

Losing Your Religion, Finding Your Faith Brett Hoover, 1998 In this lively challenging book Brett Hoover says that the typical young adult loss of faith is a necessary part of maturing spirituality faith can grow only when religion is doubted lost and found again in a new light Using the metaphor of a road trip Hoover describes the lifelong process of discovering both God and self Losing your religion is just one necessary obstacle on the road to a holistic spirituality Praying for Our Adult Sons and Daughters John & Therese Boucher, 2012-10-01 No one ever stops being a mom or a dad So when our children become adults we still worry about them and want to care for them One way we can still care for them is to lift them up in prayer When we do so God's love for them and for us is unleashed We are able to replace our concern with a love that comes from the heart of God Our Father moves mountains of worry and discouragement leaving new refreshment and delight in its place This book is designed for parents who want to pray for their adult sons and daughters with the kind of power that makes a real difference in matters of the heart This book Gives parents hope encouragement and a renewed commitment to pray and to relate lovingly to their adult sons and daughters Addresses the desire to be a better parent and shows how parents can best pray for specific needs Provides questions for reflection and sharing at the end of each chapter as well as instructions for a particular prayer skill that will help readers grow as a loving parent Young and Catholic in America Kevin Meme, Jeffrey Joseph Guhin, 2010 There is a raft of books that talk about how young Catholics think pray and believe There are few that let those young Catholics speak for themselves Kevin Meme and Jeffrey Joseph Guhin's vibrant new collection of essays by a talented and diverse group of young men and women goes a long way to answering the question of what the future of the Catholic Church will look like from the Foreword by James Martin SJ Book Jacket Lent and Easter Reflections for the Younger Crowd John Behnke, 2010 Meditations using ordinary language and every day experience to assist young people in developing a pattern of prayer reflection and daily meditation Spiritual Manifestos Niles Elliot Goldstein, 2013-04-05 Young spiritual leaders are beginning to remove the reasons why so many of us have kept religion at arm's length Spiritual sagacity does not belong only to seniors like Mother Teresa and Dorothy Day Martin Buber and Abraham Joshua Heschel the veteran Desmond Tutu and the aging Dalai Lama Let's hear from a generation that is marked by new experiences from the Preface by Martin E Marty By transforming our faith traditions in light of today's increasing diversity the search for community the Internet and our changing lifestyles these young visionary spiritual leaders are helping to create the new spirituality Ten contributors most in their mid thirties span the spectrum of religious traditions Protestant Catholic Jewish Unitarian Buddhist and offer their visions bold spiritual manifestos for transforming our faith communities and our lives Hear how one Catholic priest proclaims all religion and spirituality ought to be zesty passionate rich and deep how one rabbi serves a congregation on the web for Microsoft and rides in squad cars on drug busts in New York City how a self-described Zen priest is serving an Episcopal church in Alaska and how a talented young woman lives her wild and precious life changing the world as a nun These stories and others will challenge your assumptions about what religion is and isn't

Discovering the Art of Soul Friending Carolyn Gratton, 2019-01-28 This friendly accessible book is about the age old hunger in human hearts to open and deepen and grow towards faithful intimacy with the Source of all that is This spiritual journey is radically personal but it is not meant to be entirely solitary It can be supported at crucial times by friendship with someone who has learned how to listen through a life of prayer for the guidance of God's Spirit in their own soul and in the soul of another Long ago in Celtic Christian Ireland such a person was called an anam cara a soul friend Every soul from time to time on its mysterious trek towards union with God needs a human friend for encouragement on the way In Discovering the Art of Soul Friending Carolyn Gratton invites us to say yes to the ability to share with another and to disclose something of oneself on each seeker's journey towards union with God Enriched by a lifetime of insights gained from educating groups around the world she guides aspiring spiritual companions to a discernment of their own level of spiritual maturity sensitivity in the art of spiritual guidance and to a seeker's desires the soil from which their truest love can spring a commitment to prayer and the transformation of consciousness it makes possible rootedness in their own faith tradition and throughout life an openness to the expanded perceptions possible in our multicultural world Carolyn completes each chapter with what she calls a Book Providence section an annotated bibliography of resources that can expand the discernment skills and contextual awareness of potential soul friends

Intergenerational Catechesis timone a davis, 2021-03-12 In this work the author moves away from youth centered catechesis toward a catechetical method that gets at the heart of faith formation for ALL generations storytelling In the African American storytelling tradition both the storyteller and listener are important they embody the story What happens in the story exchange process is the discovery of connections The author's method of African American storytelling My Story Your Story brings to life the Christian story through our shared experiences Intergenerational catechesis invites us to see ourselves and one another across time through eyes that are young middle aged and elderly Based on an understanding of family intergenerational catechesis moves away from the domestic church as a starting point for growing in faith to the community as a starting point Where the domestic church focuses on those who live in the household intergenerational catechesis focuses on everyone in the Church community single persons divorced persons widows widowers teens young adults pre school and elementary children parents grandparents aunts and uncles In highlighting our connections we are better able to see ourselves and one another differently When we see ourselves and others transformed faith is revitalized

Thirty-Three Academic Reflections on the Emerging Church Kenneth Harley, 2006-06 In these academic reflections

I will talk about some of issues that directly or indirectly contribute to the Emerging Church of today and tomorrow and those that are part of the emerging Body of Christ now and in the near future Christians need to find effective ways to share our Faith and to become better at communicating the Gospel of Jesus not just for the survival of the Church but for the betterment of every man woman and child in the world This book hopefully will start you on a journey to learn how you can communicate the Gospel the Good News of Jesus Christ to the next generations more effectively What Would I Believe if I Didn't Believe Anything? Kent Ira Groff, 2004-01-02 What Would I Believe if I Didn't Believe Anything is a guidebook for spiritual orphans that shows how they can doubt their way home by embracing their doubts and asking the hard questions as a meaningful path toward genuine faith The author helps readers value their own questions and learn to talk about spiritual matters in fresh non religious language Rather than handing down doctrines from above Groff invites readers to look at life from below exploring experiences of daily living He helps the reader to find the grace in the grit of everyday life seeking analogies of faith in film and literature psychology and science poetry and arts music and sports Drawing primarily from the well of his Christian experience Groff also incorporates insights from the world's primal myths and major religions Fifty reflection exercises make it ideal for group use with journeyers of varied backgrounds for campuses prisons communal residences religious communities and work places Losing Your Faith, Finding Your Soul David Robert Anderson, 2013-09-17 Losing Your Faith Finding Your Soul is for those of us who have come to the end of traditional beliefs and wonder if we have reached the end of faith as well It is for the day when assumptions about God and the religious teachings we trusted in the past no longer apply to life When your old beliefs die is it possible to hold onto faith David Robert Anderson answers this question with a resounding yes With Anderson as friend and guide we discover that what once seemed an ending is actually a promising beginning an invitation into a more authentic and very different spiritual experience Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2001-08 The Publishers Weekly, 2004 God in the Moment Kathy Coffey, 2005 In this book Kathy Coffey shows how our relationship to God can be expressed in a variety of ways Prayer styles differ according to people's temperaments and so throughout the book Coffey presents questions for reflection and prayer prompts spurs to making each day spiritually rich The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2009 OH GOD - WHAT THEY HELL DO I TELL THEM?! Kathy Fray, For parents who are devoutly religious they can feel safe in God's will and for parents who are devotedly new age they can feel secure in the Universe's plans But for the growing amounts of parents who aren't either but also don't wish for their children to be spiritual orphans it can feel like a lonely Parenting Place to reside So OH GOD is about imbuing our Alpha Generation Z children with the insightful Cosmopolitan IQ and Old Age New Age IQ of understanding the beliefs of others so that our children can become more intelligently equipped to live in this exponentially expanding multi cultural multi religious society It's about teaching our children the societal intelligences that no one ever taught us But this book won't be for everyone oh no this will be for those select parents who find themselves irresistibly drawn to delving more deeply into these topics OH GOD will be for the hardcore amongst parents

Cumulated Index to the Books ,1999 Exceptional Human Experience ,2000 Faith Shift Kathy Escobar,2014-10-21 Hope for spiritual refugees church burnouts and freedom seekers After years of participating in a comfortable faith tradition many find themselves in a spiritual wilderness feeling disillusioned with church longing for more freedom and less religion in their lives If that describes you you re in good company Countless men and women are in the middle of a shifting faith and aren t sure where to turn But losing beliefs doesn t mean you have to lose your faith Pastor friend and spiritual director Kathy Escobar has journeyed with many who have experienced significant shifts in the faith they once considered unchangeable Through their stories and her own Kathy has discovered that growth and change are natural parts of life in our relationship with God Filled with honest stories and practical insights Faith Shift gives language to what many experience as their faith evolves With an inviting blend of vulnerability and hope it addresses the losses that come with spiritual shifts and offers tangible practices for rebuilding a free and authentic faith after it unravels Includes personal reflection and group discussion questions at the end of each chapter
