Lost Wages Of Sin Sinners And Saints 1:

The Pulpit Assistant: Containing about Three Hundred Outlines Or Skeletons of Sermons, Chiefly Extracted from Various Authors: with an Essay on the Composition of a Sermon Thomas Hannam, 1863 Sinner Saint Luke Kjolhaug, Michael Horton, 2025-05-13 Few mysteries of the faith are so perplexing as the ongoing presence of sin in the life of the believer On the one hand Christians are no longer slaves to sin On the other hand we find ourselves rocked by it daily battling conflicting impulses and neuroses caught in the middle of a cosmic tug of war between good and evil desires What are we to make of this Whatever we may believe theologically practically speaking the struggle is universal The honest truth is that we are not as good as we would like to be In other words the answer to the question Could I be better is always a resounding yes Various answers to this problem have been posited throughout the history of the church Insufficient faith Lack of willpower Incomplete sanctification All such answers however envision a kind of progress where we shed our old sinner and experience a kind of metamorphosis into the new saint But does such an explanation actually jive with what we experience Does such an operative principle play out consistently in the lives of the great heroes of the faith And most importantly does it actually align with the full counsel of God What if there were another option a way of understanding ourselves that shunned simplistic either/or explanations for a more honest both/and What if there were a way of being real about our failures yet insisting that in Christ they don't define us Welcome to the reformation doctrine of the simul where we find ourselves sinful and righteous broken and redeemed and above all unconditionally loved by the God who overlooks our shortcomings on account of his Son The Pulpit Assistant Thomas Hannam, 1826 The Immortality of the Soul Luther Lee, 1865 The Resurrection and Immortality William West, 2006-08 THE RESURRECTION AND IMMORTALITY Is man born with an immortal soul or do the saved put on immortality at the resurrection This is one of the most important questions of all times It has more influence on our conception of our nature our view of life in this world and life after death the nature of God than any other question The resurrection and an undying immortal soul are not compatible If one is true then the other one cannot be YOUR WHOLE THEOLOGY what you believe IS DETERMINED BY YOUR VIEW OF THE SOUL Not only does man now having an immortal soul make the resurrection impossible it makes the judgment be passed and the second coming of Christ pointless for there could not be a resurrection or a judgment at His coming The resurrection doctrine of unconditional immortality are contradictory to each other You must choose one or the other You cannot believe both Christ taught the resurrection It is our only hope of life after death not now having immortality and never dying The undead cannot be raised If the soul is immortal and never dies there cannot be a resurrection of those not dead If there is to be a resurrection of the dead the dead cannot be alive cannot be living immortal souls The doctrine of unconditional immortality Changes the nature of God makes Him cruel and sadistic Changes the message we preach to the lost and their fate whether they will have an eternal life with torment or a second death from which there will never be a resurrection Changes the nature of man whether he is now mortal or immortal Changes the nature of the resurrection of Christ whether He was dead and raised by God or only His earthly body was dead and He just came back from Heaven to it Changes the nature of our resurrection whether we are dead and resurrected or just come back from somewhere The resurrection an immortal soul The wages of sin is death the wages of sin is an eternal life of torment The Congregationalist ,1921 Metropolitan
