Kihivas Istvan Kopar, 2015-11-13 Solo circumnavigation of the globe Fewer than 300 sailors in history have accomplished it less than the number of people who have climbed Mt Everest or even those who have gone to space In 1990 Istvan Kopar set out to earn his place among this elite fraternity and to do so with only one stop If he were successful he would realize a lifelong dream and bring pride to his home country of Hungary in the process Yet the risk of failure carried with it the possibility of dying alone in the middle of the vast sea Over twenty years ago Kopar first published the inspiring chronicle of his journey in his native Hungarian All of his hopes dreams and fears coalesced into one word Kihivas The Challenge Now Kihivas Alone at the Ends of the Earth brings this thrilling story to an English speaking readership for the first time Kopar recounts every element of his adventure from custom building his own 31 foot yacht Salammbo to battling the legendary waves of the Roaring Forties His narrative is interspersed with proud descriptions of Hungary's impressive maritime heritage even as a landlocked country and heartfelt portrayals of the memories that kept him going as he faced thousands of miles of lonely ocean Experience a glimpse into the struggles thrills and insights known only to those who dare to pursue the greatest of challenges alone at the ends of the earth
