Teaching with Purpose Ann K. Fathman,John E. Penick,David T. Crowther,Robin Lee Harris,2006 Making a case for a research based teaching rationale Elements of a research based rationale Developing a research based rationale

Implementing your rationale and becoming a mentor Very Long Range P-51 Mustang Units of the Pacific War Carl Molesworth, 2012-10-20 These pilots called themselves the Tokyo Club It was a simple task to become a member All you had to do was strap yourself into a heavily loaded P 51 Mustang take off from Iwo Jima fly 650 miles north over the sea often through monsoon storms in your single engined aircraft to Japan attack a heavily defended target and then turn around and fly home despite a shrinking fuel supply and perhaps battle damage as well Do it once and you earned membership in the club Do it 15 times and you earned a trip home But make one mistake or have one touch of bad luck and you had a very good chance of ending up dead Featuring photographs throughout and detailed aircraft profiles this book tells the little known story of these brave men and their efforts to defeat the aerial forces defending Japan Addressing Stress With Self-Compassion David P. Barry, This interactive guide is designed to help preservice early childhood educators use self compassion to mitigate the stress of teaching Barry argues that learning healthy stress management strategies while enrolled in teacher education programs will equip students with the resilience needed to manage stress when they enter their own classrooms The goal is to beat the odds of attrition with higher levels of job satisfaction and fewer instances of burnout This book includes research findings on the benefits of practicing self compassion for preservice early childhood teachers some of the common stressors and challenges teachers experience and how they have addressed each challenge with self compassion Readers are encouraged to respond to writing prompts that address these common challenges and then rate their self compassion score throughout the text This is important reading for early care and education students teacher educators administrators and other stakeholders who can make changes to mitigate stressors in their programs and schools Book Features An interactive text that offers opportunities for readers to engage in specific self compassionate exercises designed to increase their capacity to manage stress Research findings from a study that explores interventions aimed at decreasing stress for students in preservice early childhood education programs Inspiration in the form of actual self compassionate letters written by research participants Theoretical and practical applications for self compassion practice to address the stressors preservice teachers often experience Experiences and vignettes from the author s student teaching journal from his time working as a kindergarten teacher Collaborative Models for Librarian and Teacher Partnerships Kennedy, Kathryn, 2013-07-31 Once considered designated storytellers modern library professionals are emerging as experts in technology integration information literacy and curriculum alignment Though their collaboration with technology specialists and administrators continues to be a struggle Collaborative Models for Librarian and Teacher Partnerships brings together best practices and innovative technological approaches in establishing the media specialist teacher partnership Highlighting theoretical concepts of case based learning knowledge repositories and professional learning communities this book is an essential practical guide for professional development specialists administrators library media specialists as well as teacher educators interested in maintaining and developing collaborative instructional
