Beyond the Masks Amina Mama, 2002-09-26 Psychology has had a number of things to say about black and coloured people none of them favourable and most of which have reinforced stereotyped and derogatory images Beyond the Masks is a readable account of black psychology exploring key theoretical issues in race and gender In it Amina Mama examines the history of racist psychology and of the implicit racism throughout the discipline Beyond the Masks also offers an important theoretical perspective and will appeal to all those involved with ethnic minorities gender politics and questions of identity The Quest for Conscience and the Birth of the Mind Annie Reiner, 2018-05-24 This book offers a new perspective on conscience as an as yet unrealized human potential but a potential toward which human beings are naturally driven A distinction is made between a mature or healthy conscience a conscience capable of maturation and the classical notion of the superego it also postulates that the two may represent two separate lines of development Conscience is seen to be inseparable from consciousness the development of a mature conscience is seen to have its foundation in the development of a true or authentic self while the classical notion of the superego is viewed as an often pathological manifestation of this natural mental potential Theological ideas are relevant to any discussion of morality conscience and guilt Freud's and Bion's perspectives on religion are closely examined revealing fundamental differences in their views of the mind The author incorporates the metaphysical perspective central to Bion's concept of O as fundamental to an understanding of the development of a healthy conscience An Uncertain Safety Thomas Wenzel, Boris Droždek, 2018-07-20 This book addresses the psychosocial and medical issues of forced migration due to war major disasters and political as well as climate changes The topics are discussed in the context of public health and linked to organizational legal and practical strategies that can offer guidance to professionals as well as governmental and non governmental organizations Both internal and international displacement present substantial challenges that require new solutions and integrated approaches Issues covered include an overview of current health challenges in the new refugee crises medicine and mental health in disaster areas long term displacement and mental health integration of legal medical social and health economic issues children and unaccompanied minors ethical challenges in service provision short and long term issues in host countries models of crises intervention critical issues such as suicide prevention new basic and minimal intervention models adapted to limited resources in psychosocial and mental health care rebuilding of health care in post disaster conflict countries training and burn out prevention The book was developed in collaboration with the World Psychiatric Association and is endorsed by Fabio Grandi UN High Commissioner for Refugees Manfred Nowak former UN Special Rapporteur for Torture and Jorge Aroche President of IRCT Education and Corporate Social Responsibility Jamilah Ahmad, David Crowther, 2013-02-20 This volume examines the practice of embedding corporate social responsibility into academic curricula Spirituality and Corporate Social Responsibility David Bubna-Litic, 2016-04-01 Religion and spirituality have often been treated with a secular disdain by management theorists Recently the tide has begun to turn and there is a growing openness to cite spirituality in academic analysis and debate and when considering issues of practical concern to those engaged in the actual business of management This provocative book brings together a range of leading thinkers to consider the relationship between spirituality and corporate social responsibility The book's contributors examine spirituality as an inherent dimension of corporate life even if it is only known through its absence and through the negative consequences of this absence on people and the planet With contributors from four continents David Bubna Litic has assembled a range of fascinating perspectives having their origins in traditions that include Christianity Process Theology Hinduism Contemporary Buddhism Deep Ecology Humanism Post Modern and Post Romantic Spirituality Spirituality and Corporate Social Responsibility is a fascinating read for anyone with an interest in ways in which spirituality relates to what is or what should be driving businesses and organizations to more responsible behaviour Madame Bovary : a

Knowing Jackie Gerrard,2018-05-08 This is a book that assembles and integrates the author s clinical work and thinking over the many years of her working life Part 1 focuses on patients with specific types of psychopathology and explores particular difficulties in technique and thinking Part 2 addresses the issues of love hate and the erotic In Part 3 specific challenges to the psychotherapeutic frame are demonstrated in chapters on enactments and on work with an absent patient Richly illustrated throughout with clinical vignettes above all the author stresses the importance of the enquiring mind and the struggle not to know but to be ever ready to not know and to explore The book should be of interest to qualified practitioners to those who are training in psychodynamic or psychoanalytic work and to anyone who has an interest in psychoanalysis and the impossibility of knowing The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1978 The Classroom as

Privileged Space Tapo Chimbganda, 2017-07-28 The Classroom as Privileged Space Psychoanalytic Paradigms for Social Justice in Pedagogy examines the psychic and emotional effects of the dehumanization of children based on social discrimination and difference within schooling Used as a tool to critique the current state of social justice within education psychoanalysis allows for a focus on the individual within the social context of schooling It highlights the emotional structures that can develop in children and learners through the oft repeated trauma of racism and homophobia This book draws from the articulated experiences of three writers and urges the reader to approach the work of the writers and this book as a witness and as one who is enabled to respond through acquiring knowledge and acting on it Drawing from scholars in psychoanalysis sociology and education Tapo Chimbganda posits that perhaps the safe space education has been touting is not what is necessary to cultivate diversity equity and inclusion in classrooms Rather privilege re imagined through psychoanalytic technique can make possible the elements of social justice that have long frustrated silenced and escaped the classroom

The Social Construction of Man, the State and War Franke Wilmer, 2004-04-16 The Social Construction of Man the State and War is the first book on conflict in the former Yugoslavia to look seriously at the issue of ethnic identity rather than treating it as a given an unquestionable variable Combining detailed analysis with a close reading of historical narratives documentary evidence and first hand interviews conducted in the former Yugoslavia Wilmer sheds new light on how ethnic identity is constructed and what that means for the future of peace and sovereignty throughout the world

Seeing Your Life Through New Eyes (EasyRead Super Large 24pt Edition) , Intersectionality and "Race" in Education Kalwant Bhopal, John Preston, 2012-01-25 Education is a controversial subject in which difficult and contested discourses are the norm Individuals in education experience multiple inequalities and have diverse identifications that cannot necessarily be captured by one theoretical perspective alone This edited collection draws on empirical and theoretical research to examine the intersections of race gender and class alongside other aspects of personhood within education Contributors from the fields of education and sociology seek to locate the dimensions of difference and identity within recent theoretical discourses such as Critical Race Theory Judith Butler and queer theory post structural approaches and multicultural models as they analyze whiteness and the education experience of minority ethnic groups By combining a mix of intellectually rigorous accessible and controversial chapters this book presents a distinctive and engaging voice one that seeks to broaden the understanding of education research beyond the confines of the education sphere into an arena of sociological and cultural discourse

Albert Cohen Jack I. Abecassis, 2020-03-03 Honorable Mention winner in the Modern Language Association's Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize competition for French and Francophone Literary Studies A major figure in twentieth century letters Albert Cohen 1895 1981 left a paradoxical legacy His heavily autobiographical strikingly literary and polyphonic novels and lyrical essays are widely read by a devout public in France yet have been largely ignored by academia A self consciously Jewish writer and activist Cohen remained nevertheless ambivalent about Judaism His self affirmation as a Jew in juxtaposition with his satirical use of anti Semitic stereotypes still provokes unease in both republican France and institutional Judaism In Albert Cohen Dissonant Voices the first English language study of this profound and profoundly misunderstood writer Jack I Abecassis traces the recurrent themes of Cohen s works He reveals the dissonant fractures marking Cohen as a modernist and analyzes the resistance to his work as a symptom of the will not to understand Cohen s main theme the catastrophe of being Jewish For Abecassis Cohen s diverse oeuvre forms a single roman fleuve exploring this perturbing theme through fragmentation and grotesquerie fantasies and nightmares the veiling and unveiling of the unspeakable Abecassis argues that Cohen should not be read exclusively through the prism of European literature Stendhal Tolstoy Proust but rather as the retelling inverting and ultimately exhausting in the form of submerged plots of the Biblical romances of Joseph and Esther The romance of the charismatic Court Jew and its performance correlative the carnival of Purim generate the logic of Cohen s acute psychological ambivalence historical consciousness and carnal sensuality themes which link this modernist author to Genesis as well as to the literary practices of Sephardic crypto Jews Abecassis argues that Cohen s best known work Belle du Seigneur 1968 besides being an obvious tale of obsessive love and dissolution is foremost a tale of political intrigue involving Solal the meteoric rising Jew in the League of Nations during the period of Appeasement 1936 and his ultimate self destruction Providing close readings and imaginative analyses of the entire literary output of one of twentieth century France s most important Jewish writers Abecassis presents here a major work of literary scholarship as well as a broader study of the reception and influence of Jewish thought in French literature and philosophy The Jewish Woman in Rabbinic Literature: A psychohistorical perspective Menachem M.
