experience at Mario's kitchen Bourdain decided to apply to the Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Park New York Quick to mention how it was not nearly as selective as the school is today Bourdain was easily and quickly able to gain entry due to a connection who had donated money to the school Though his restaurant experience was limited compared to a seasoned chef it gave him an advantage over his classmates most of whom were younger than he was Bourdain was able to pass through most of his classes with relative ease which made him arrogant and cocky However because of the humiliation that he suffered at the hands of the chefs at Mario's he also had a more grounded perspective than before This is best exemplified by his encounter with Chef Bernard a terrorizing French chef who ran the Escoffier Room a famed restaurant on the grounds of the CIA It was considered a rite of passage for every chef that attended the CIA to receive a furious profanity laced scolding from Chef Bernard during the course of taking his class When Bourdain was scolded by Chef Bernard however he looked in Tony's eyes and saw perhaps that Tyrone and the Mario crew had done his work for him Due to his inability to put fear into Tony the chef came to be quite nice to him to be continued Quicklets Learn More Read Less
