Knitting Anne Bartlett

Daniel F McAuley

Knitting Anne Bartlett:

Knitting Anne Bartlett, 2006-08-09 In the tradition of Anita Brookner and Barbara Pym Anne Bartlett has written a sly stirring look at women's lives Meg Wolitzer author of The Female Persuasion Sandra a rigid academic is struggling to navigate the world after losing her husband to cancer Martha a self taught textile artist with her own secret store of grief spends her days knitting elaborate projects charged with personal meaning After a chance meeting sparks a friendship between these two very different women they begin to collaborate leading to surprising events that will help heal them both in a novel of subtle beauty The Washington Post A moving story about true love and haunting grief Adriana Trigiani A wonderful tale deeply satisfying Connie May Fowler An experience as sensual and mystical as plunging your hands into skeins of wool and color A joyful narrative of creating and connecting Sena Jeter Naslund Knitting Anne

Bartlett, 2006-08-09 When two widows polar opposites in their grief stop to help a traveler in distress their meeting puts in motion an entanglement of their lives that will have astonishing ramifications What begins as a professional collaboration on a knitting exhibition soon becomes something transformative and deeply personal Knitting Pearls Ann Hood, 2015-10-22 Engaging tangled stories of family relationships expectations and traditions compelling regardless of the reader's experience with the craft Portland Press Herald In Knitting Pearls two dozen writers write about the transformative and healing powers of knitting Lily King remembers the year her family lived in Italy and a knitted hat that helped her daughter adjust to her new home Laura Lippman explores how converting to Judaism changed not only Christmas but also her mother's gift of a knitted stocking Jodi Picoult remembers her grandmother and how through knitting she felt that everlasting love And Bill Roorbach remembers his freshman year in college when knitting soothed his broken heart and helped him fall in love again Other contributors include Steve Almond Ann Leary Christina Baker Kline Lee Woodruff and knitting rock stars Jared Flood of Brooklyn Tweed and the Yarn Whisperer Clara Parks With knitting patterns from renowned stores such as Purl Soho Hill Country Weavers and Churchmouse Yarns Knitting Pearls is by turns delightful and heartbreaking joyous and wise These personal stories by award winning writers celebrate the moments of loss and love intertwined in the rhythm ritual and pleasure of knitting Texts and Textiles Diana Mary Eva Thomas, 2017-03-07 This study shows how fiction that makes use of textiles as an essential element utilizes synaesthetic writing and synaesthetic metaphor to create an affective link to and response in the reader These links and responses are examined using affect theory from Silvan Tomkins and Brian Massumi and work on synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S Ramachandran among others Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been general in nature By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing The decision to focus on Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville's The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day's Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett's Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson's Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan's Spider Cup 1990 embroidery
