developed by 18th century colonists who sought a good looking sensible adaptable and comfortable animal to ride and drive. These traits made it the mainstay of the Confederate cavalry during the Civil War and the choice mount of many generals on both sides. As the Industrial Revolution replaced the need for working horse power the Saddlebred evolved naturally into recreational activities. Affectionately known as peacock of the show ring the Saddlebred's beauty expression and athleticism epitomize the essence of a show horse. In many ways the breed's history parallels that of America and unfolds in pictures in Kentucky's Saddlebred Heritage. House Beautiful, 1911 LIFE, 1949-01-31 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century.
