

Many people think of knights as fighting men in armor, but it's a bit more complicated than that.

In lands like The Barony, La Palais, and Regno, knights are vassals appointed by the sovereign. It is common for them to take vows in a religious knightly order.

Knights in Die Grafschaft are hereditary nobles that rule over the individual states. They serve the Graf but have more power than most other knights on the continent.

There are knights in the Occident as well. Tsarstvo has legendary Bogatyrs. The Far West is famous for its fearless samurai.

Tercios even tell tales of crossing the Lata Oceani and fighting with "jaguar knights" while exploring the jungles.

However, there's no proof of these tales.

I trust you found this enlightening. Fare the well until next time!
