Guide To Meetings Prentice Hall:

Guide to Meetings Mary Munter, Michael Netzley, 2002 This concise practical book is written for you if you want to assure your meetings will be necessary and not just a waste of time. Interesting, coherent and well organized. A place for people to share rather than show off their ideas. Constructive, thoughtful and creative. Inclusive with full participation from all. Efficient and not a waste of energy. In today's environment meetings are more commonplace and important than ever because of advances in technology such as videoconferencing and conference calls. Increased reliance on collaborative workgroups and cross functional work teams. Increased specialization which necessitates sharing diverse knowledge and expertise. Like all books in the Prentice Hall Guides to Advanced Business Communication series this book is brief, summarizes key ideas only. Practical offers clear straightforward tools you can use. Reader friendly provides easy to skim format. Reviews of the core concepts book for this series. Guide to Managerial Communication by Mary Munter. Listed by the Wall Street Journal as one of the five business books you shouldn't miss. Really a gem. Former managing editor Harvard Business Review. Short, compact, practical and readable. I liked it immensely. Journal of Business Communication.

Handbook Event Market China

Helmut Schwägermann, Peter Mayer, Yi Ding, 2015-12-14 China's event market is full of dynamic and exciting developments, innovation, new players and novel ideas but at the same time of certain shortcomings. This new and huge market is drawing increasing attention from the event industry worldwide. The aim of this handbook is to analyse the Chinese event market, reflect on emerging trends, scrutinise the key players and identify the implications for the education of future professionals in this industry. This handbook is the first of its kind on the Chinese event market written in English. It is a collection of 27 articles written by 39 authors from China, Germany, Malaysia, South Africa, the United Kingdom and the United States. The contributions embrace a mix of theoretical and practical reflections written by academics, lecturers and practitioners alike. The focus lies on business events such as trade fairs, conventions and corporate events. Some very specifically describe a certain trend or development others focus on overall trends The handbook is divided into four chapters Following an introductory chapter on the event market the second chapter focuses on the event market in China from a global perspective The third chapter reflects on management aspects in China s event industry The fourth and final chapter addresses the issue of educating professionals for the event industry Meetings, Conventions, and Expositions Rhonda J. Montgomery, Sandra K. Strick, 1994-07-27 Explore a career in the hospitality of business travel The meetings and conventions segment of the hospitality industry is often overlooked by newcomers to the field but it is an exciting dynamic area that merits a second look Meetings Conventions and Expositions An Introduction to the Industry offers a detailed breakdown of all aspects of group business travel From sponsors and venues to technology and management anyone new to the industry will appreciate this in depth exploration of a convention s many moving parts School Leadership Stuart Carl Smith, Philip K. Piele, 1989 Recognizing the importance of good leadership to the achievement of educational excellence the second edition of this handbook synthesizes a large body of school leadership literature and explores the subject from three perspectives the person the structure and the skills Part I examines characteristics of today s educational leaders effective leadership styles and qualities administrator training hiring and induction methods and the scarcity of female and black school leaders Part II looks at the organizational supports underlying school leadership This section examines the balance of authority between the central office and the school site the team approach to management the decision making context and the components of school climate Part III highlights leadership abilities needed by today s school administrators Besides knowing how to manage the school s instructional program and staff administrators must be able to communicate in today s more open sharing organization build coalitions of community groups make meetings more productive and manage time stress and conflict more effectively Concerned about integrating theory with practice the book offers many practical suggestions for using the information presented Accompanying each chapter are extensive bibliographical references that appear at the end of the volume MLH Suggested Management Guides United States.
