There is one further comment to be made. In the process of identifying all their informants, they took account of those who had:

1. Business Model: The business model describes how the company generates revenue and sustains its operations. It includes details on the products or services offered, the target market, and the distribution channels.

The results suggest that the relationship between the proportion of women in the board and the proportion of female directors is positive and significant. This result is consistent with the previous findings that the proportion of female directors is positively related to the proportion of women in the board.

■ CONCLUSIONS ■

These results indicate that the use of a structured decision-making tool can help to improve the quality of the decision-making process.
