Salvatore Sammy the Bull Gravano Jimmy Swaggart and Monica Lewinsky All the books reviewed are real and the astonishing diversity of interests of the celebrities demonstrates that shallow perception can never be disguised as deep thought no matter how cleverly expressed As revealed in the book's Introduction Mark McKirdy acquired this collection when he successfully bid for a small dusty box at a Sotheby's auction in 2013 Upon his return to Oxford University where he was the anthropologist in residence he opened the box and like Howard Carter marveling at the treasures he'd just unearthed from Tutankhamun's tomb in 1922 the author was holding a golden collection of book reviews by many of the world's most significant people Each review had apparently been commissioned by the prestigious literary journal The London Review of Books and each for reasons never revealed received a soul crushing rebuff by way of a large red Rejected stamp As with all well written satire LOST and PROFOUND will give readers pause for thought seconds for chuckling minutes of laughing out loud and hours of fun and if the celebrities mentioned in the book didn't actually write the reviews cited they probably wish they had
