Headscarves And Hymens:

Headscarves and Hymens Mona Eltahawy, 2015-04-21 A passionate manifesto decrying misogyny in the Arab world by an Egyptian American journalist and activist When the Egyptian journalist Mona Eltahawy published an article in Foreign Policy magazine in 2012 titled Why Do They Hate Us it provoked a firestorm of controversy The response it generated with more than four thousand posts on the website broke all records for the magazine prompted dozens of follow up interviews on radio and television and made it clear that misogyny in the Arab world is an explosive issue one that engages and often enrages the public In Headscarves and Hymens Eltahawy takes her argument further Drawing on her years as a campaigner and commentator on women's issues in the Middle East she explains that since the Arab Spring began women in the Arab world have had two revolutions to undertake one fought with men against oppressive regimes and another fought against an entire political and economic system that treats women in countries from Yemen and Saudi Arabia to Egypt Tunisia and Libya as second class citizens Eltahawy has traveled across the Middle East and North Africa meeting with women and listening to their stories Her book is a plea for outrage and action on their behalf confronting the toxic mix of culture and religion that few seem willing or able to disentangle lest they blaspheme or offend A manifesto motivated by hope and fury in equal measure Headscarves and Hymens is as illuminating as it is incendiary Great Books Written by Africans across the

Academic Disciplines Emmanuel D. Babatunde, Abdul Karim Bangura, 2022-07-04 This volume is the first text to provide a comprehensive account of the great books across the academic disciplines written by Africans born in the continent and those who became naturalized citizens of African countries These great books are those that have had a powerful important or affecting influence on the author of a chapter in this book as an individual and on society The books included here are mostly of the storytelling type and thus not representative of most of the academic disciplines This volume allows each contributor to write a chapter on a discipline showcasing five great books written by African authors Each selection is appraised and suggestions made by other experts in a discipline while every chapter entails an introduction to the topic a conceptual discussion of the discipline a book by book review of the five books and a conclusion and recommendations for research using the selected books More Than Headscarves and Hymens Michelle L. Politics William A. Callahan, 2020-01-08 Visual images are a powerful force in international relations and in Sensible Politics William A Callahan presents a unique analytical framework and a diverse range of sources to understand what visuals mean and also how they can viscerally move and connect us in affective communities of sense It explores the visual geopolitics of war peace migration and empire through an analysis of photographs films and art It then expands the critical gaze to consider how visual artifacts maps veils walls gardens and cyberspace are sensory spaces where international politics comes alive in the politics of everyday life The Seven Necessary Sins for Women and Girls Mona Eltahawy, 2019-09-17 A bold and uncompromising feminist manifesto that shows women and girls how to defy disrupt and destroy the patriarchy by embracing the qualities they've been trained to avoid Seizing upon the energy of the MeToo movement feminist activist Mona Eltahawy advocates a muscular out loud approach to teaching women and girls to harness their power through what she calls the seven necessary sins that women and girls are not supposed to commit to be angry ambitious profane violent attention seeking lustful and powerful All the necessary sins that women and girls require to erupt Eltahawy knows that the patriarchy is alive and well and she is fed the hell up Sexually assaulted during hajj at the age of fifteen Groped on the dance floor of a night club in Montreal at fifty Countless other injustices in the years between Illuminating her call to action are stories of activists and ordinary women around the world from South Africa to China Nigeria to India Bosnia to Egypt who are tapping into their inner fury and crossing the lines of race class faith and gender that make it so hard for marginalized women to be heard Rather than teaching women and girls to survive the poisonous system they have found themselves in Eltahawy arms them to dismantle it Brilliant bold and energetic The Seven Necessary Sins for Women and Girls is a manifesto for all feminists in the fight against patriarchy Recovering Women's Voices Reham ElMorally, 2024-09-09 Reham ElMorally draws upon Sylvia Walby's Six Structures of Patriarchy tailored for the Egyptian context to dissect how this patriarchal construct has historically suppressed and exploited women Revisiting Muslim Women's Activism Esita Sur, 2022-12-12 This book traces the evolution of organisational activism among Muslim women in India It deconstructs the Muslim woman as the monolith based on tropes like purdah polygamy and tin talaq and compels the reader to revisit the question of Muslim women's individual and collective agency The book argues that the political field along with religion moulds the nature and scope of Muslim women's activism in India It looks at the objectives of four Muslim women's organisations the Bazm e Niswan the Awaaz e Niswaan the Bharatiya Muslim Mahila Andolan and the India International Women's Alliance IWA in close interaction with the political landscape of Mumbai The book explores the emergence of gender inclusive interpretation of Muslim women's rights by Muslim women activists and challenges the dominant and reductionist stereotypes on Muslim women community and absolutist ideas of Islam It argues that Muslim women are not passive victims of their culture and religion rather they can develop a critique of their marginality and subjugation from within the community Revisiting Muslim Women's Activism traces the evolution of a community centric approach in women's activism and records a fragmented view on women's rights from within the community and religious leadership It also delineates the distinctiveness of this activism that considers religion and culture as resources for empowerment and as sites of contestations Moreover the book documents the narratives of Muslim women's struggle and resistance from their location and lived experiences It will be of interest to students and researchers of women's studies gender studies political science sociology anthropology law and Islamic studies Iranian Feminism and Transnational Ethics in Media Discourse Sara Shaban, 2022-01-21 Iranian Feminism and Transnational Ethics in Media Discourse examines the mediated dialogue of WhiteWednesdays specifically between U S mainstream news narratives and Iranian activists on Twitter These narratives highlight how hierarchies of visibility in both news and social media discourse overshadow transnational feminist politics while reinforcing femonationalist narratives Such discourses seemingly support women in Iran but simultaneously promote Islamophobic messages aligned with U S geopolitical politics In a critical discourse analysis of the WhiteWednesdays campaign on Twitter and mainstream U S news coverage of the movement this analysis complicates representations of Iran Muslim women and feminist politics The author also unpacks the politics of representation where voices on the ground are obscured in favor of elite sources who reaffirm U S Islamophobic and xenophobic ideologies Scholars and students of communication and media studies will find this book particularly interesting

Media in the Middle East Nele Lenze,Charlotte Schriwer,Zubaidah Abdul Jalil,2017-11-16 This edited volume offers the first extended cross disciplinary exploration of the cumulative problems and increasing importance of various forms of media in the Middle East Leading scholars with expertise in Middle Eastern studies discuss their views and perceptions of the media s influence on regional and global change Focusing on aspects of economy digital news online businesses gender related issues social media and film the contributors of this volume detail media s role in political movements throughout the Middle East The volume illustrates how the increase in Internet connections and mobile applications have resulted in an emergence of indispensable tools for information acquisition dissemination and activism

Tunisian Women's Writing in French Sonia Alba,2018-11-21 Tunisian women s literary production in French published or set between the years 1987 and 2011 from Tunisia s second president Zine El Abidine Ben Ali s rise to power to the eve of the Tunisian Revolution reveals the role of women their political engagement and their resistance to patriarchal oppression A great deal of media and scholarly attention has focused on the role of women during the Tunisian Revolution itself yet few studies have considered women s literary and active engagement prior to the uprising By contrast this book focuses specifically on the time period leading to the Revolution The book is structured around three chapters each focusing on a different form of writing and on a number of contemporary Tunisian writers who have chosen to express themselves in French Sonia Alba explores the complex ways in which the authors have attempted to deal with those issues cultural social and political most relevant to them This is the first study of Tunisian women s writing in French to compare and contrast key themes in three different genres within a single study and within the conceptual framework of subaltern counterpublics The work is enhanced by the inclusion of extracts from previously unpublished authors interviews Tunisian Women s Writing in French is essential reading for all Francophone and Postcolonial scholars and for scholars and students working in Contemporary Women s Writing

The #MeToo Movement in Iran Claudia Yaghoobi,2023-08-24 The Iranian MeToo movement was a crucial form of resistance with ordinary Iranian women sharing their experiences of sexual harassment and assault in the public sphere of digital media This is the first book of its kind providing a comprehensive analysis of the Iranian MeToo movement Based on archival empirical ethnographic literary and cultural research the contributors discuss the abuse of women and society s responses to it Contextualizing the historical framework of Iranian MeToo activism within larger Iranian feminist movements as well as the historical background within the context of Middle East the contributors address how the privileged position of men who have been outed as rapists helps them to aggregate social political sexual and economic capital through various networks in order to delegitimize the narratives of survivors The volume also covers the intersections of various systems of oppression specifically highlighting marginalized voices The contributors highlight the power dynamics within digital feminist networks in Iran and its unique attributes due to political social and religious structures The volume ends with a chapter focusing on cultural productions specifically cinematic works through which some filmmakers have challenged normalizations of sexual harassment by offering alternative discourses which have arguably paved the way for the MeToo in Iran movement

Decolonizing Liberation Theologies Nicolás Panotto, Luis Martínez Andrade, 2023-07-11 The publication of this volume marks the Ten Year Anniversary of the Postcolonialism and Religions series In intersectional and interdisciplinary perspectives the chapters of this book constitute a complex whole a volume that does justice to the justice seeking origins of Latin American Liberation Theology philosophy and sociology as it emerged in the 1960s 70s and its development to the present What drives this book is a common spirit and conviction Liberation Theologies of the Global South remain relevant to the sociocultural and geopolitical contexts of today which remain ensconced in the dynamics exclusions and resistances that gave rise to Liberation Theologies six decades ago Today we may speak of interculturality of borderlands of in betweenness in ways that complicate confirm affirm and interrogate the underside of history and the spaces that are marginalized but de centered centers of liberation struggle within alongside underneath over against societal projects that claim and exclude them and that represent some of the actual challenges and opportunities to liberation

It's Not About the Burqa Mariam Khan, 2019-02-21 It's Not About the Burqa is an anthology of frank and insightful essays by Muslim women about the contemporary Muslim female experience Passionate angry self effacing nuanced and utterly compelling in every single way Nikesh Shukla editor of The Good Immigrant When was the last time you heard a Muslim woman speak for herself without a filter In 2016 Mariam Khan read that David Cameron had linked the radicalization of Muslim men to the traditional submissiveness of Muslim women Mariam felt pretty sure she didn't know a single Muslim woman who would describe herself that way Why was she hearing about Muslim women from people who were neither Muslim nor female Years later the state of the national discourse has deteriorated even further and Muslim women's voices are still pushed to the fringes the figures leading the discussion are white and male Taking one of the most politicized and misused words associated with Muslim women and Islamophobia It's Not About the Burqa is poised to change all that Here are voices you won't see represented in the national news headlines seventeen Muslim women speaking frankly about the hijab and wavering faith about love and divorce about feminism queer identity sex and the twin threats of a disapproving community and a racist country With a mix of British and international women writers from activist Mona Eltahawy's definition of a revolution to journalist and broadcaster Saima Mir telling the story of her experience of arranged marriage from author Sufiya Ahmed on her Islamic feminist icon to playwright Afshan D Souza Lodhi's moving piece about her relationship with her hijab these essays are funny warm sometimes sad and often angry and each of them is a passionate declaration calling time on the oppression the lazy stereotyping the misogyny and the Islamophobia What does it mean exactly to be a Muslim woman in the West today According to the media it's all about the burqa Here's what it's really about Shortlisted for Foyles Non Fiction Book of the Year Engrossing fascinating courageous Observer     A Bite of the Apple Lennie Goodings, 2020-02-27 The moment I got my job at Virago in 1978 I knew it would be a long time before I would leave I certainly wouldn't have had the brazen hope then only twenty five and very recently new to Britain that I would ever become the Publisher but I did know that I had found my home where books ideas politics imagination feminism and business was the air we breathed A Bite of the Apple is part memoir part history of Virago and part thoughts on over forty years of feminist publishing This is the story of how the authors and staff who driven by passion conviction and excitement have made Virago Press one of the most important and influential English language publishers in the world Lennie Goodings has been with the iconic press founded by Carmen Callil almost since the start First a publicist and then for over twenty years publisher and editor she has worked with extraordinary authors Margaret Atwood Marilynne Robinson Sarah Waters Linda Grant Natasha Walter Naomi Wolf and Maya Angelou among many others Virago has been a life changer for Lennie Goodings but certainly not only for her Following the chronology of the press and the enormous breadth of the Virago titles published over these years she sets her story in the context of feminism and segues into thoughts on editing post feminism reading breaking boundaries and the Virago Modern Classics Virago lives within the tension between idealism and pragmatism between sisterhood and celebrity between watching feminism wax and wane at the same time as knowing so many of the battles are still to be won This book is about how it felt to be there A Bite of the Apple is a celebration of writing of publishing and of reading     Crisis, Representation and Resilience Clare Wallace, Clara Escoda, Enric Monforte, José Ramón Prado-Pérez, 2022-05-19 A collection of incisive investigations into the ways that 21st century British theatre works with and through crisis It pays particular attention to the way in which writers and practitioners consider the ethical and social challenges of crisis Anchored in an interdisciplinary approach that draws from sociology cultural theory feminism performance and philosophy the book brings multi faceted ideas into dialogue with the diverse aesthetics practices and themes of a range of theatrical work produced in Britain since 2005 Topics discussed include Ageing Austerity Gender Migrancy Multiculturalism Aesthetics Companies discussed include Theatre Uncut Lost Dog Camden People's People Lung Brighton People's Theatre Phosphoros Theatre Playwrights discussed include Jez Butterworth Caryl Churchill Tim Crouch Vivienne Franzmann James Graham Debbie Tucker Green Ella Hickson Charlene James Lucy Kirkwood Simon Longman Cordelia Lynn Simon Stephens Jack Thorne Chris Thorpe Gloria Williams Building on recent publications in the area and engaging in dialogue with them Crisis Representation and

Resilience considers how crisis is being re thought and re orientated through theatrical performance and the ways theatre invites us to respond to the many challenges of the contemporary times

The Cambridge Handbook of Psychology and Human Rights Neal S. Rubin, Roseanne L. Flores, 2020-10-15 Written by psychologists historians and lawyers this handbook demonstrates the central role psychological science plays in addressing some of the world's most pressing problems Over 100 experts from around the world work together to supply an integrated history of human rights and psychological science using a rights and strengths based perspective It highlights what psychologists have done to promote human rights and what continues to be done at the United Nations With emerging visions for the future uses of psychological theory education evidence based research and best practices the chapters offer advice on how to advance the 2030 Global Agenda on Sustainable Development Challenging the view that human rights are best understood through a political lens this scholarly collection of essays shows how psychological science may hold the key to nurturing humanitarian values and respect for human dignity

African Migration, Human Rights and Literature Fareda Banda, 2020-12-24 This innovative book looks at the topic of migration through the prism of law and literature The author uses a rich mix of novels short stories literary realism human rights and comparative literature to explore the experiences of African migrants and asylum seekers The book is divided into two Part one is conceptual and focuses on art activism and the myriad ways in which people have sought to write justice Using Mazrui's diasporas of slavery and colonialism it then considers histories of migration across the centuries before honing in on the recent anti migration policies of western states Achiume is used to show how these histories of imposition and exploitation create a bond which bestows on Africans a status as co sovereigns of the First World through citizenship The many fictional examples of the schemes used to gain entry are set against the formal legal processes Attention is paid to life post arrival which for asylum seekers may include periods in detention The impact of the increased hostility of receiving states is examined in light of their human rights obligations Consideration is paid to how Africans navigate their post migration lives which includes reconciling themselves to status fracture taking on jobs for which they are over qualified while simultaneously dealing with the resentment borne of status threat on the part of the citizenry Part two moves from the general to consider the intersections of gender and status focusing on women LGBTI individuals and children Focusing on their human rights and the fictional literature chapter four looks at women who have been trafficked as well as domestic workers and hotel maids while chapter five is on LGBTI people whose legal and literary stories are only now being told The final substantive chapter considers the experiences of children who may arrive as unaccompanied minors Using a mixture of poetry and first person accounts the chapter examines the post arrival lives of children some of whom may be citizens but who are continually made to feel like outsiders The conclusion follows starting with two stories about walls by Hadero and Lanchester which are used to illustrate the themes discussed in the book Few African lawyers write about literature and few books and articles in Western law and literature look at books by or about Africans so a book that engages with both is long overdue This book provides fascinating reading for academics students of law literature gender and migration studies and indeed the general public Suicide and Social Justice Mark E. Button,Ian Marsh,2019-11-05 Suicide and Social Justice unites diverse scholarly and social justice perspectives on the international problem of suicide and suicidal behavior With a focus on social justice the book seeks to understand the complex interactions between individual and group experiences with suicidality and various social pathologies including inequality intergenerational poverty racism sexism and homophobia Chapters investigate the underlying and often overlooked connections that link rising rates and disproportionate concentrations of suicide within specific populations to wider social political and economic conditions This edited volume brings diverse scholarly and social justice perspectives to bear on the problem of suicide and suicidal behavior equipping researchers and practitioners with the knowledge they need to fundamentally rethink suicide and suicide prevention Veil Obsessed Umme Al-wazedi,Afrin Zeenat,2024-04-15 Discussions surrounding the veil often run along essentialist and ahistorical lines associating Islam with oppression shame and honor Contributing to these stereotypes the media in both the East and the West obsessively condemn or valorize practices of veiling In Veil Obsessed Umme Al wazedi and Afrin Zeenat present a range of essays to complicate and challenge the dialogue around the veil exploring its symbolic religious and cultural significance Scholars from a variety of fields analyze and critique the use of the veil in literature film television and the fine arts Considering the multiple perceptions of the veil this volume shows that the meaning of hijab can be natural or constructed real or metaphorical and religious or political when it is presented through the media in the teachings of Islam and in upholding it as a national symbol of a nation state There are inherent tensions among the ideas concerning the power of hijab Does wearing it give agency to women or does it represent oppression thereby creating and perpetuating stereotypes How an individual sees their relationship with the self family and community and the nation state dictates their choice of whether to wear the veil In exploring the wide range of portrayals the editors pose critical questions about perceptions of the veil and the dangers of ignoring its multiplicity Naked Feminism Victoria Bateman,2023-02-17 Is it right that despite the promises of feminism women s bodies remain at the mercy of state society and religion Should a scantily clad woman or a promiscuous one be worth less than a fully covered woman or a chaste one Are being sexy and being smart really mutually exclusive Can a woman be both body and brain Victoria Bateman has confronted these questions with actions as well as words She has appeared naked on national television on stage in art and at protests using her body as well as her brain to deliver her message In Naked Feminism Bateman makes a compelling case for women s bodily freedom and explains why the current puritanical revival is so dangerous for women Illustrating the swinging pendulum of bodily modesty through the ages she takes us on a journey from the ancient civilisations of Egypt and Babylon through the birth of Christianity and Islam to the lax morals of the medieval period and the bawdiness of Chaucer and Shakespeare to the clampdowns of the Puritans and later the Victorians and more recently to the re veiling of the Middle East and the purity pledges of modern day America She ends with a plea feminists must unite to challenge the repression of the female body as only then can women be truly free Also available as an audiobook narrated by the author
