Divining History Jayne Svenungsson, 2016-08-01 For millennia messianic visions of redemption have inspired men and women to turn against unjust and oppressive orders Yet these very same traditions are regularly decried as antecedents to the violent and authoritarian ideologies of modernity Informed in equal parts by theology and historical theory this book offers a provocative exploration of this double edged legacy Author Jayne Svenungsson rigorously pursues a middle path between utopian arrogance and an enervated postmodernism assessing the impact of Jewish and Christian theologies of history on subsequent thinkers and in the process identifying a web of spiritual and intellectual motifs extending from ancient Jewish prophets to contemporary radicals such as Giorgio Agamben and Slavoj Zizek Boekblad ,1999 Des dieux et des fonctionnaires Bérengère Massignon,2007 History of the Church of Scotland William Maxwell Hetherington,1843 The Monthly Repertory of English Literature, ... Or an Impartial Criticism of All the Books Relative to Literature, Arts, Sciences Etc. Forming a Valuable Selection from the ... English Reviews and Magazines. Galignani's Magazine and Paris Monthly Review, (etc.) Paris 1823-25 ,1822 The Renewed Homiletic O. Wesley Allen,2010-04-21 The major shift in the study and practice of preaching in the 1970s and 1980s labeled the New Homiletic turned toward the hearer The purpose of preaching focused less on persuasion and more on transformation less on asserting religious truths and more on offering an experience of the gospel Instead of viewing language as referential its creative evocative nature began to be emphasized Thus homiletical strategies utilizing induction celebration story narrative structures and moves replaced a deductive propositional approach to preaching Now three and a half decades after this shift began preachers recognize that the homiletical landscape has continued to evolve in ways that influence how preaching ought to be done for example the rise of postmodernity the decline of the mainline church cultural pluralism and biblical and theological illiteracy Those considered to be the pillars of the New Homiletic David Buttrick Fred Craddock Eugene Lowry Henry Mitchell and Charles Rice discuss how to change their homiletical approach for a new day Each of these distinguished scholars offers a lecture describing how his mind has changed preaches a sermon reflecting these changes and participates in a panel discussion with younger respondents Publisher description New SCM Dictionary of Christian Spirituality Philip Sheldrake,2013-05-20 This dictionary attempts to give direct access to the development of Christian Spirituality It is a series of pieces written by experts to provide instant accurate and thought provoking information of high scholarship History of the Church of Scotland. From the Introduction of Christianity to the Period of Disruption William Maxwell Hetherington,1843 A Heart of Many Rooms David Hartman,2012-12-05 This work is not addressed only to scholars of Judaism or theologians but also and primarily to all Jews and non Jews who would like to share the thoughts and struggles of a person who loves Torah and Halakhah who is committed to helping make room for and celebrate the religious and cultural diversity present in the modern world and who believes that a commitment to Israel and to Jewish particularity must be organically connected to the rabbinic teaching Beloved are all human beings created in the image of God from the Introduction With clarity passion and outstanding scholarship David Hartman addresses the spiritual and theological questions that face all Jews and all people today From the perspective of traditional Judaism he helps us understand the varieties of twentieth century Jewish practice and shows that commitment to both Jewish tradition and to pluralism can create bridges of understanding between people of different religious convictions
