Ruth Praver Jhabvala's Heat and Dust I. H-Shihan, 2006 Ruth Praver Jhabvala, a Twentieth Century Expatriate Writer of Polish Jewish Origins and British Upbringing who chose to make India her home since 1951 for more than two decades, has made her mark as writer of novel, story, screenplay, non-fiction etc. which have brought her worldwide recognition and prestigious awards and fellowships both in India and abroad. Her work offers a site for the intersection of cultures, especially those of India and Europe. Heat and Dust 1975, Jhabvala's Booker-winning and most well-known novel, which ensured her celebrity status in the literary world, is a delightful interrogation of the imperial and post-imperial discourses vis-à-vis India and England as presented through the parallel lives of two English women in India placed in two distinct historical contexts across half a century in which the young narrator is set to restore the lost story of her predecessor. From the heat and dust of passion and oblivion, the Atlantic Critical Study of Heat and Dust which is primarily meant for the students of English literature of Indian universities, is a comprehensive, self-sufficient and an in-depth study of the text. The present book provides a thorough and illuminating study of the text and examines it from such aspects as race relations, man-woman relations, themes, form, structure and technique. In addition, it provides useful background materials related to Jhabvala's life, works, her vision of India and a detailed critical summary of the entire text along with a select bibliography and sample questions. The book will be immensely useful for students, scholars and teachers in the area.

A Feministic Analysis of The God of Small Things Altaf Ahmad Ganaie, This book highlights the position of womenfolk in India. It presents before us the constant struggle of women against their incessant exploitation, torture and struggle which they undergo because of the male-dominated conservative society. In the novel The God of Small Things, there are three generations of women. Each of them was born and raised under different circumstances. Starting from the oldest generation, there is Mammachi, then the generation of Ammu, and the youngest generation is Rahel.

gives rise to a mixing of cultures a blend which in other words may be called cultural allotropy that is existence of the culture of a particular region in two or more forms having different and mixed properties at the emotional or intellectual level at a given point of time Going beyond the political subjugation in the era of globalization it has now become a matter of economic and cultural subjugation Undoubtedly our cultural allotropy is a byproduct of modern economic compulsions also Through different Indian English novelists I have tried to intrigue the issues via different portrayals and characters and finally posed a question What is it to be an Indian
