 Globalised Capitalism* Maurizio Atzeni, 2013-11-25 An introduction to work and society for undergraduate and postgraduate students This new text brings together international experts on work and employment from a range of disciplines to debate key themes and issues related to work in a globalised economy Work and Livelihoods Susana Narotzky, Victoria Goddard, 2016-12-01 Winner of the Society for the Anthropology of Work book prize 2017 This volume presents a global range of ethnographic case studies to explore the ways in which in the context of the restructuring of industrial work the ongoing financial crisis and the surge in unemployment and precarious employment local and global actors engage with complex social processes and devise ideological political and economic responses to them It shows how the reorganization and re signification of work notably shifts in the perception and valorization of work affect domestic and community arrangements and shape the conditions of life of workers and their families Comparing the Worth of the While in Fiji and Almost, but Not Quite Bored in Pula Andrea Matošević, 2021-07-16 Based on interviews and fieldwork conducted among residents of Pula a coastal city in Northwestern Croatia this study explores various aspects of a local feeling of boredom This is mirrored in the term tapija a word of Turkish origin describing a property deed and in Pula s urban slang it has morphed from its original sense describing a set of affective states into one of lameness loneliness unwillingness and irony Combining lively conversations with a significant bibliography of the topic the result is a compelling local anthropological study of boredom in a wider historical and global context Steel Town Adivasis Christian Strümpell, 2024-06-07 Steel Town Adivasis Industry and Inequality in Eastern India presents an analysis of class formation in the industrial town Rourkela in the eastern Indian state Odisha and the ways this process relates to regional ethnicity and caste This study is based on long term ethnographic research conducted in the 2000s and oral histories covering the period from the inception of the steel plant and it focusses on the region s tribes indigenous people or Adivasis who lost their land when the Government of India established a large steel plant in Rourkela in the 1950s The book will be of interest to anthropologists sociologists historians interested in industrial labour and work in class caste Adivasis ethnicity and their dynamic entanglement as well as students and activists Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal
