Influences On Clothing Decisions:

Recent Trends in Decision Science and Management Tao-Sheng Wang, Andrew W. H. Ip, Madjid Tavana, Vipul Jain, 2020-05-07 This book discusses an emerging field of decision science that focuses on business processes and systems used to extract knowledge from large volumes of data to provide significant insights for crucial decisions in critical situations. It presents studies employing computing techniques like machine learning which explore decision making for cross platforms that contain heterogeneous data associated with complex assets leadership and team coordination. It also reveals the advantages of using decision sciences with management oriented problems. The book includes a selection of the best papers presented at the 2nd International Conference on Decision Science and Management ICDSM 2019 held at Hunan International Economics University China on 20-21 September 2019.

The Psychology of Fashion Carolyn Mair, 2024-12-30 How is fashion linked to our identity? How are we influenced to buy into fashion trends? How can we make the fashion industry more ethical and sustainable? The Psychology of Fashion offers an up-to-date insightful introduction to the exciting and dynamic world of fashion in relation to human behaviour. It explores consumer motivations, how fashion influences our thoughts and feelings, and why we develop certain shopping behaviours. It provides insights into how fashion design can impact healthy body image, how psychology can inform more sustainable views on the production, consumption, and disposal of clothing, and the potential for the industry to be a force for good. This thoroughly updated second edition includes new material on fashion and social media, including TikTok and Instagram, a new chapter on the future of fashion which includes discussion of virtual and augmented reality in fashion, and an in-depth exploration of fashion sustainability. There is also a greater focus on equality and diversity in fashion, including fashion in different global cultures, fashion and gender, disability, and different body types. What we wear impacts us and those we interact with. Understanding the underlying psychological processes that influence our engagement with fashion empowers us to make informed decisions in relation to fashion consumption. The Psychology of Fashion shows how the application of psychology in the context of fashion can make a positive difference to our lives.

Understanding Children as Consumers David Marshall, 2010-04-19 What drives children as consumers? How do advertising campaigns and branding affect children and young people? How do children themselves understand and evaluate these influences? Whether fashion, toys, food, branding, money from TV adverts, and the supermarket aisle to the internet and peer trends, there is a growing presence of marketing forces directed at and influencing children and young people. How should these forces be understood and what means of research or dialogue is required to assess them? With critical insight, the contributors to this collection take up the evaluation of the child as an active consumer and offer a valuable rethinking of the discussions and literature on the subject. Features 14 original chapters from leading researchers in the field. Each chapter contains vignettes or case examples to reinforce learning. Contains consideration of future research directions in each of the topics that the chapters cover. This book will be relevant reading for postgraduates.
