Canyon Village in Yellowstone Lesley M. Gilmore,2017-05-08 By 1955 the national parks were facing a crisis of dilapidation from heavy use and lack of funding The answer was Mission 66 This visionary plan implemented over the next decade included installation of new facilities to accommodate the influx of visitors and enhance their experiences The pilot development in Yellowstone named Canyon Village introduced a modern aesthetic to the parks and emphasized the concept of conservation This man made environment was purposefully sited away from the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone providing a natural buffer Architect Lesley M Gilmore presents the complexities of this historic ambitious model for the movement that marked the continued evolution of the national parks into the destinations we flock to today Subject
