Croser, 2018-12-13 After Jack Clapper's untimely death his son Barry and daughter in law Felicity remained under a cloud of suspicion Jack had been very controlling and although he had promised to hand the Clapper's Cove farm over to his son one day he still held the reins at age seventy six Felicity had also experienced issues with him Felicity and Barry both had fertility problems and although treated they didn't have any children When Barry died suddenly three young people in their early twenties attended his funeral They'd recently learned Barry was their biological father but only Ken who closely resembled Barry revealed his identity to Felicity on the day of the funeral The three half siblings didn't know of each other and Barry died without knowing he'd fathered three children Rose Louise a motel manager Ken a farmer and Luke a landscape gardener They were born to unrelated mothers in diverse circumstances and grew up in different towns Each of them faced challenges growing up as two of them were raised in single parent families in an era when single mothers were expected to give up their babies for adoption They met each other while in their early twenties but they at first were unaware they share the same father One by one Felicity learned of their existence a ready made family she'd always longed to have who welcomed her into their lives Romance flourished and resulted in three marriages Felicity value added to the Clapper's Cove farm by building holiday cottages for people with disabilities When tragedy struck unexpectedly the remaining half siblings learned of their relationship to Barry and provided family support to Felicity and one another Eventually Felicity and Barry were exonerated of any involvement in Jack Clapper's death when the circumstances were revealed publicly in a surprising way Massey-Ferguson, 1989 Progressive Farmer, 1987 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
