 expression of their creative potential Consequently they are demanding a say and a voice in how companies conceive develop and deliver value to them It is not surprising therefore to hear that a large number of companies are transforming how they innovate not only in terms of developing new products and services but in how they are created delivered and supported to customers Open Innovation thinking where companies collaborate with suppliers distributors and customers to co create unique value is fast replacing traditional thinking that viewed innovation as a proprietary activity and marketing as a static one way broadcast However while there is significant advocacy and buy in for collaborating with customers there is little guidance for companies on how to undertake the journey from applause and appreciation to execution Only reading about others success stories Nike Hallmark P G Mozilla etc is not sufficient for helping a company develop a blueprint for themselves In Customer Driven Innovation strategy and branding consultant Gaurav Bhalla presents a concrete framework to help companies systematically and effectively design and implement collaborative innovation programs with their customers that can be applied in both business to business and business to consumer contexts The authors describe how today's technologies allow companies to create dynamic dialogues with their customers through shared networks virtual marketing techniques and blogs to develop deeper relationships that reinforce brand loyalty and ultimately drive growth They challenge traditional approaches to market research that measure customer satisfaction from a rear window perspective and help companies and their customers look forward instead P
