Happiest Refugee Teaching Resources:

Inclusive Pedagogy Across the Curriculum Joanne Deppeler, Tim Loreman, Lani Florian, Ron Smith, Chris Forlin, 2015-12-02 This volume focuses on an inclusive pedagogical approach for enhancing teaching and learning in key areas of curriculum including literacy mathematics science social studies and the arts Literature Education in the Asia-Pacific Chin Ee Loh, Suzanne S. Choo, Catherine Beavis, 2018-03-29 The continual rise of English as a global lingua franca has meant that English literature both as a discipline and as a tool in ESL and EFL classrooms is being used in varied ways outside the inner circle of English This edited collection provides an overview of English literature education in the Asia Pacific in global times bringing to international attention a rich understanding of the trends issues and challenges specific to nations within the Asia Pacific region Comprising contributions from Australia China Hong Kong India Indonesia Malaysia Philippines Singapore and Vietnam the collection addresses the diversity of learners in different national cultural and teaching contexts In doing so it provides insights into historical and current trends in literature education foregrounds specific issues and challenges in policymaking and implementation presents practical matters concerning text selection use of literature in the language classroom innovative practices in literature education and raises pressing and important questions about the nature purpose and importance of literature education in global times History, Geography and Civics John Buchanan, 2013-09-09 History Geography and Civics Education provides an in depth and engaging introduction to teaching and learning socio environmental education It explores the centrality of socio environmental issues to all aspects of life and education and makes explicit links between pedagogical theories and classroom activities The book provides links to the Australian Curriculum Restoring Students' Innate Power Louise El Yaafouri, 2022-03-31 This book explores the effects of trauma on newcomer students and presents stress mitigating strategies that empower these multilingual students as they transition to a new environment Diverse insights and experiences bring high powered learning spaces to life However the cultural backgrounds of newcomer students and their families can be very different from the dominant norms of the new community resulting in misalignments that constitute a persistent challenge In addition the process of arriving can exacerbate stress Entering a new school or classroom means situating oneself within a new context of language culture community and shifting personal identities This transition shock contributes to a sense of diminished power In serving these students we can't afford to leave transition shock out of our conversations about trauma We must not only stitch together pieces of culturally responsive practice and trauma informed care but also become practitioners of stress mitigating strategies that empower newcomer students We must focus instruction on our students unique identities We must restore their power In Restoring Students Innate Power newcomer educator and cultural competency expert Louise El Yaafouri presents An understanding of transition shock and how stress and trauma affect recent arrivers The four pillars of transition shock and how they affect learning How students see themselves and how the cultural aspects of their identities inform teachers work in mitigating transition shock How social emotional learning links to trauma informed practice This book isn't exclusively about trauma it's about restoring power The distinction is critical Focusing on the trauma or traumatic event roots us in the past Restoration of power moves us forward Assembly West Point Association of Graduates (Organization), 2004 Sociological Abstracts Leo P.
