Whitman,2017-02-10 Two not quite over the hill Dall sheep hunters take in one last hunt flying into the vast and unforgiving Chugach Mountain Range in Southcentral Alaska Tragedy strikes the pair early on and one of them is dead The story that ensues is a wholly convincing account of the other hunters epic journey out of the mountains through countless hardships and hostile land but at the same time he traverses a majestically beautiful country called Alaska Forest and Stream ,1919 The Lost Grizzlies Rick Bass,1995 A search for proof that grizzly bears still live in the San Juan Mountains of Colorado Shooting in the Wild Chris Palmer,2010-10 Longtime producer Palmer provides an in depth look at wild animals on film covering the history of wildlife documentaries safety issues and the never ending pressure to obtain the money shot Marlin Perkins Jacques Cousteau Steve Irwin Timothy Treadwell and many other familiar names are discussed along with their work accidents and in some cases untimely deaths Palmer is highly critical of Irwin and offers fascinating revelations about game farms used by exploitative filmmakers and photographers looking for easy shots and willing to use caged animals to obtain them He also considers the subliminal messages of many wildlife films considering everything from Shark Week to Happy Feet and how they manipulate audiences toward preset conclusions about animal behavior In all this is an engaging and exceedingly timely look at a form of entertainment the public has long taken for granted and which as Palmer points out really needs a fresh and careful reconsideration The River Peter Heller,2019-03-05 NATIONAL BESTSELLER From the author of The Guide and The Dog Stars comes the story of two college students on a wilderness canoe trip a gripping tale of a friendship tested by fire white water and violence A fiery tour de force I could not put this book down It truly was terrifying and unutterably beautiful The Denver Post Wynn and Jack have been best friends since college orientation bonded by their shared love of mountains books and fishing Wynn is a gentle giant a Vermont kid never happier than when his feet are in the water Jack is more rugged raised on a ranch in Colorado where sleeping under the stars and cooking on a fire came as naturally to him as breathing When they decide to canoe the Maskwa River in northern Canada they anticipate long days of leisurely paddling and picking blueberries and nights of stargazing and reading paperback Westerns But a wildfire making its way across the forest adds unexpected urgency to the journey One night with the fire advancing they hear a man and woman arguing on the fog shrouded riverbank the next day a man appears on the river paddling alone Is this the same man they heard And if he is where is the woman From this charged beginning master storyteller Peter Heller unspools a headlong heart pounding story of desperate wilderness survival British Columbia Ed Readicker-Henderson,Lynn Readicker-Henderson,2003-12-01 This guide to British Columbia offers practical travel information along with activities Comprehensive background information history culture geography and climate gives you a solid knowledge of the region and its people Yellowstone Wildlife Paul A. Whittlesey,2014-01-07 The chilling tome that launched an entire genre of books about the often gruesome but always tragic ways people have died in our national parks this updated edition of the classic includes calamities in Yellowstone from the past sixteen years including the infamous grizzly bear attacks in the summer of 2011 as well as a fatal hot springs accident in 2000 In these accounts written with sensitivity as cautionary tales about what to do and what not to do in one of our wildest national parks Whittlesey recounts deaths ranging from tragedy to folly from being caught in a freak avalanche to the goring of a photographer who just got a little too close to a bison Armchair travelers and park visitors alike will be fascinated by this important book detailing the dangers awaiting in our first national park Canadian Geographic, 2006 Wahb Ernest Thompson Seton, 2015-07-30 First published more than a century ago The Biography of a Grizzly recounts the life of a fictitious bear named Wahb who lived and died in the Greater Yellowstone region This new edition combines Ernest Thompson Seton's classic tale and original illustrations with historical and scientific context for Wahb's story providing a thorough understanding of the setting cultural connections biology and ecology of Seton's best known book By the time The Biography of a Grizzly was published in 1900 grizzly bears had been hunted out of much of their historical range in North America The characterization of Wahb along with Seton's other anthropomorphic tales of American wildlife helped to change public perceptions and promote conservation As editors Jeremy M Johnston and Charles R Preston remind us however Seton's approach to writing about animals put him at the center of the Nature Faker controversy of the early twentieth century when John Burroughs and Theodore Roosevelt among others denounced sentimental representations of wildlife The editors address conservation scientists' continuing concerns about inaccurate depictions of nature in popular culture Despite its anthropomorphism Seton's paradoxical book imparts a good deal of insightful and accurate natural history even as its exaggerations shaped early twentieth century public opinion on conservation in often counterproductive ways By complicating Seton's enthralling tale with scientific observations of grizzly behavior in the wild Johnston and Preston evaluate the story's accuracy and bring the story of Yellowstone grizzlies into the present day Preserving the 1900 edition's original design and illustrations Wahb brings new understanding to an American classic updating the book for current and future generations Best of BACKPACKER 2008 Backpacker Magazine, 2013-09-01 The backcountry is full of great stories and we're proud to bring you this collection of some of our favorites From an award winning tale of a daughter confronting her family's dark past to a tongue in cheek romp through the one of the country's oldest outdoor stores these stories exemplify the power of quality writing and the transformative experience of the outdoors Table of Contents I'm Hiking With Stupid A Buddy Story By Steve Friedman Secret Agent Man Animals can't talk but Ed Newcomer can As an elite U.S. Fish Wildlife detective he goes undercover to protect threatened raptors bears even butterflies and bring poachers and smugglers to court Inside the agency's latest covert operation By Bruce Barcott Don't Pay at the Pump Gas prices are soaring glaciers are melting what's a conscientious hiker to do Take the bus says our reporter who did just that to escape downtown L.A.
