Goden En Menschen In Hellas:

Dualism in the Archaic and Early Classical Periods of Greek History P.F.M. Fontaine, 2023-08-14 Sacred and Profane Beauty Gerardus Leeuw, 2006 Gerardus van der Leeuw was one of the first to attempt a rapprochement between theology and the arts and his influence continues to be felt in what is now a burgeoning field Sacred and Profane is the fullest expression of his pursuit of a theological aesthetics surveying religion's relationship to all the arts dance drama literature painting sculpture architecture and music This edition makes this seminal work first published in Dutch in 1932 newly available A new foreword by Diane Apostolos Cappelletti analyzes the continuing relevance of van der Leeuw's thought Van der Leeuw's impassioned and brilliant investigation of the relationship between the holy and the beautiful is founded upon the conviction that for too long the religious have failed to seriously contemplate the beautiful associating it as they do with the kingdom of sensuality and impermanence Similarly it has been alien to literati and aesthetes to reflect upon the holy for they choose to consider this physical world to be permanent and therefore to be glorified through beauty alone In truth as van der Leeuw undertakes to show in Sacred and Profane Beauty the holy has never been absent from the arts and the arts have never been unresponsive to the holy Whether one considers the Homeric epics the dancing Sivas and Vedic poems the sacred wall paintings of ancient Egypt the primitive mask or the range of sacred arts developed out of Latin and Byzantine Christianity primordial creation in the arts was always directed toward the symbolization and interpretation of the holy The fact that in our day this original connection is obscured and the artistic impulse is more generally regarded as wholly individualistic and autonomous does not contradict van der Leeuw's thesis indeed the breakdown of the unity of the holy and the arts is central to his thesis Van der Leeuw was the rare thinker who combined profundity of insight grace of style and a willingness to take daring intellectual chances In Sacred and Profane he describes each of the arts in its original unity with the religious and then analyzes its historical disjunction and alienation After a penetrating investigation of the structural elements within the arts which illumines a crucial dimension of the religious experience van der Leeuw points toward the reemergence of an appropriate theological aesthetics on which a reunification of the arts could be founded Reflections on the Study of Religion Jacques Waardenburg, 2011-12-01 Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971 Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories theoretical issues and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion Topics include among others category formation comparison ethnophilosophy hermeneutics methodology myth phenomenology philosophy of science scientific atheism structuralism and theories of religion From time to time the series publishes volumes that map the state of the art and the history of the discipline Religion in Essence and Manifestation Gerardus Van der Leeuw, 2014-07-14 In this book van der Leeuw discusses the horizontal path to God and the vertical paths descending from God and ascending to Him If God Himself appears it is in a totally different manner which results not in intelligible utterance but in proclamation and it is with this that theology has to deal Originally published
