The Heartbeat of God Katharine Jefferts Schori, 2010-10 Insights from a pioneering leader in world religion on the intersections of the sacred the secular As Christians indeed as people of faith of any tradition we are called to tend to the needs of the least among us Our response to them must be the response of faith God gives us a new heart to do this work and every time we gather to do it God offers a pacemaker jolt to tweak our heart's rhythm The challenge is this will our hearts respond with a strengthened beat in tune with God's own heartbeat sending more life out into the world from the Introduction Explore our connections as human beings with each other as one nation with all other nations as the human species with the whole of our environment through the lens of faith Katharine Jefferts Schori presiding bishop of The Episcopal Church examines these connections as she looks at the intersections of faith with the major issues of our day How does faith speak to poverty climate change the economy health care and what is the faith response How can believers from many faith traditions find common ground while honoring the Divine serving one another and creating deeper community How do we best use the resources of faith to connect us to the hearts of our neighbors and to the heart of God

The Rebirthing of God John Philip Newell, 2014-06-06 Dare to imagine a new birth from deep within Christianity a fresh stirring of the Spirit The walls of Western Christianity are collapsing In many parts of the West that collapse can only be described as seismic There are three main responses or reactions to this collapse The first is to deny that it is happening The second is to frantically try to shore up the foundations of the old thing The third which I invite us into is to ask what is trying to be born that requires a radical reorientation of our vision What is the new thing that is trying to emerge from deep within us and from deep within the collective soul of Christianity from the Introduction In the midst of dramatic changes in Western Christianity internationally respected spiritual leader peacemaker and scholar John Philip Newell offers the hope of a fresh stirring of the Spirit among us He invites us to be part of a new holy

Gathering at God's Table Katharine Jefferts Schori, 2012 A profound reminder of our role in God's vision for a restored and reconciled world The work before us this mission of God's is immense cosmic even The world is hungry thirsty homeless sick lonely imprisoned and enslaved because some parts are The creation is groaning in travail because of our abuse of the garden in which we have been set The body is ailing Participating in God's mission is about seeing and responding to that collective suffering and beginning to understand our interconnection with the other parts of the body from the Introduction In the Christian tradition believers are called to do more than sit around and pray Throughout the Gospel and throughout history people of faith have been quite literally booted out into the world to bring God's love to everybody not just a select few That's the meaning of mission from the Latin verb mitto meaning to send It is the work that Jesus and his disciples set out to do feeding healing and teaching In an insightful and powerful voice Katharine Jefferts Schori presiding bishop of The Episcopal Church explores the meaning of mission in the context of contemporary life reminding us of the Anglican Communion's Five Marks of Mission Proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom Teach Baptize and Nurture New Believers Respond to Human Need with Loving Service Seek to Transform Unjust Structures of Society Strive to Safeguard the Integrity of Creation and Sustain and Renew the Life of the Earth Talking about God Daniel F. Polish, Ph.D.,2011-11-16 Challenge Yourself to Delve into a Deeper Interfaith Dialogue To wrestle with the ideas these thinkers present is to find ourselves challenged to look at our own religious lives in new ways and to appreciate the spiritual endeavors of others whatever form their religious expression may take To engage with these thinkers can leave us enlarged in our perception of human religiousness and deepened in our appreciation of it from the Conclusion The modern age of religion is characterized by dialogue Jews and Christians together explore the realities and meaning of living in proximity to one another Yet for all the good will and sincerity of intention too often such discussions fail to progress beyond well intentioned pleasantries to the challenging content that can truly deepen our understanding of each other This fascinating and accessible introduction to the theologies of four modern religious thinkers will help you break through the superficial generalities to plumb the depths of religious differences and embrace the commonalities Examining the lives and works of Søren Kierkegaard Martin Buber Paul Tillich and Abraham Joshua Heschel through the lens of their treatment of the Bible and the biblical patriarch Abraham you will take part in a discussion of the very phenomenon of religion and what part it plays in living a fully engaged human life Making a Spiritual Connection Ralph E.
