Motivating students
since ... forever

Four overlapping progress chart templates are shown, each with a different colored border: yellow, red, blue, and green. Each chart has a header section with a small icon and the text 'Progress Chart for'. Below the header is a grid with the label 'Students / Activities'. The charts are arranged in a cascading fashion, with each subsequent chart partially covering the one below it. At the bottom of each chart, there is a small instruction: 'Trace along the line above, then glue this page over the top of the next page.'

Oh, plus they:

- help students to see what to do next
