Classics Reimagined The Time Machine H.G. Wells, 2019-05-14 Retold with stunning modern illustration by the studio team Ale Ale The Time Machine is a masterpiece of invention and storytelling from the father of science fiction H.G. Wells. In this unabridged classic, the time-traveling protagonist is propelled by his machine to the distant year of 802,701 AD. To his horror, he finds only a decaying Earth that is being gradually swallowed by the Sun, and where two strange species, the delicate Eloi and the fierce subterranean Morlocks, inhabit an eerie dystopia. The Time Machine is a must-read for any science fiction fan. The collage illustrations complement the story through vivid imagery and detail. Key passages of the book are highlighted in eye-catching typography, further enhancing the experience. The Classics Reimagined series is a library of stunning collector's editions of unabridged classic novels illustrated by contemporary artists from around the world. Each artist offers his or her own unique visual interpretation of the most well-loved, widely read, and avidly collected literature from renowned authors. From Frankenstein to The Wonderful Wizard of Oz and from Jane Austen to Edgar Allan Poe, collect every beautiful volume.

African American Literature Hans Ostrom, J. David Macey Jr., 2019-11-15 This essential volume provides an overview of and introduction to African American writers and literary periods from their beginnings through the 21st century. This compact encyclopedia, aimed at students, selects the most important authors, literary movements, and key topics for them to know. Entries cover the most influential and highly regarded African American writers, including novelists, playwrights, poets, and nonfiction writers. The book covers key periods of African American literature, such as the Harlem Renaissance, the Black Arts Movement, and the Civil Rights Era, and touches on the influence of the vernacular, including blues and hip hop. The volume provides historical context for critical viewpoints, including feminism, social class, and racial politics. Entries are organized A to Z and provide biographies that focus on the contributions of key literary figures, as well as overviews, background information, and definitions for key subjects.
