Graying Gracefully Preaching To Older Adults:

Graying Gracefully William J. Carl, 1997-01-01 When pastors look out over their congregations there s a good chance that they see a lot of gray hair This book gives practical instruction and examples of biblical and theological sermons to this growing population enabling the preacher to proclaim the gospel more clearly for older adults Covering topics from biblical and historical views of age to older adults need for social justice each chapter concentrates on the practical issues for preaching to this group and contains a sermon to illustrate the application of the principles discussed Practical

Theology for Aging Derrell R. Watkins, 2013-01-11 Learn new approaches for strengthening the religious bonds of our aging population Through Scripture studies and the personal experiences of religious leaders and congregants Practical Theology for Aging offers new concepts for ministering to our older population Each chapter looks at a different concern for the elderly and addresses it with the assurance that aging is part of God s great work From scientific models and case studies to passages from both the Old and New Testaments this volume illuminates the power of faith in keeping the elderly whole and well Practical Theology for Aging reveals several barriers to the spiritual wellness of our elders These include society s stereotypical views of frailty and incompetence in older people the lack of common support by communities of faith and the dissatisfaction of the elderly with outdated traditional answers to their concerns of aging suffering and death Each barrier can be overcome by utilizing the practical theology you will find in this book Restated throughout the volume is the message that the journey into old age does not have to be filled with dread and fear but can be seen as a path to spiritual maturity This book has practical suggestions that address God s purpose for aging why do we have to grow old sexual health for senior citizens the suffering and physical debilitation that sometimes accompany aging afflictions like dementia and Alzheimer s disease and how to minister to the unresponsive the inclusion of spirituality in rehabilitation to heal the whole person after catastrophic illness or injury preaching to senior citizens as opposed to preaching to a younger congregation so much more Practical Theology for Aging presents tips and strategies for spiritual advisement as well as traditional quotes and references reminding us to respect and honor our aging men and women Whether you are a religious leader caretaker family member or esteemed elder this book is vital for strengthening spirituality in the elderly and promoting their inclusion into the religious community Growing Old Gracefully

Growing Old Gracefully Robert M. Solomon, 2022-03-22 Growing old doesn t have to be just about frailties loneliness and loss of purpose Veteran pastor Robert Solomon offers a fresh perspective of aging and looks at how you can continue to grow with God in your autumn years Discover how you can keep your eyes firmly on Jesus as you nurture habits and disciplines that will enable you to build redemptive relationships and cope with the physical mental and emotional challenges of aging Useful insights into aging are presented in short chapters in an easy to read large print devotional format

Our Stories, His Story Forest Koh Nam Seng, Our Stories His Story Connecting Elderly To The Faith written by Forest Koh Nam Seng collects the stories of numerous individual elderly Chinese Singaporeans who were interviewed across a period of time It explores the barriers and pathways to these interviewees receiving Christ the socio cultural context surrounding their lives and the larger perspective of how this largely overlooked community of believers is being cared for This book provides insight into and explanations about the trends of elderly believers in Singapore and offers suggestions as to how caregivers church leadership the wider Christian community and younger generations can play a part in caring for these elderly believers

The Essential Spirit Donald R. Koepke, 2016-01-19 Everyone who provides services to older adults believes in the biomedical model that addresses the body mind and spirit of their clients On the whole service providers be they long term care professionals academics social workers program professionals counselors or even clergy are quite adept at dealing with the body and the mind But few understand the essential role of the client s spiritual perspective which can enhance and make their services and ministries more effective The Essential Spirit provides such a viewpoint 1 by exploring a definition of spirituality that is inclusive of both religious and non religious understandings and 2 addressing the viewpoints of professionals from a variety of viewpoints Recognizing that the experience of spirituality is personal and qualitative The Essential Spirit adds another voice to the ongoing dialogue among professionals and clergy

For Every Matter under Heaven Beverly Zink-Sawyer, Donna Giver-Johnston, 2022-12-08 For everything there is a season as the writer of Ecclesiastes reminds us and that includes preaching Beyond ordinary Sunday morning worship many other seasons special occasions arise for preaching in the life of the church whether by virtue of the secular calendar or celebrations or circumstances in the congregation or community For Every Matter under Heaven Preaching on Special Occasions offers preachers a process for creating sermons that are biblically grounded and relevant to the occasion Two obvious occasions of this sort are weddings and funerals however church anniversaries dedications of new buildings or furnishings commitment of pledges in stewardship season and ordination and installation services also call for preaching on a special theme or topic In addition some congregations acknowledge secular holidays such as the Fourth of July and Thanksgiving Day in worship Pastors are often called on to preach at events outside the church And all congregations face local or national tragedies and crises that call for a word from the Lord These occasions require a different kind of sermon or at least a different process of preparation Most preachers have been taught that sermons begin with a biblical text usually a text prescribed by a standard lectionary Beverly Zink Sawyer and Donna Giver Johnston offer preachers a process for finding appropriate sermon texts for special occasions by considering the occasion itself the listeners who might be gathered and the ways God is at work in that time and place Through this process preachers can offer a word for every matter under heaven

One Gospel Many Ears Ronald J. Allen, Joseph R. Jeter, Every time a congregation gathers for worship many different people from different points in life with different needs and perspectives come together each refracting messages through their own lenses Each person processes communication in ways that are influenced by age gender race personality type ethnicity education and social and economic background Jeter and Allen explore how these factors affect the ways in which members of the congregation receive and process sermons and how the preacher can optimize the opportunity for each to hear and understand the gospel and one another

The Challenges of Caregiving: Seeing, Serving, Solving Rick Caracciolo, 2019-08-20

Man's perception and how to accept aging has not changed dramatically since the beginning of time or over the last 220 years as man's life expectancy has increased. Man is not a stagnant being and as Bathauer notes, Psychologists tell us that all of life is made up of continuous changes from childhood all the way to old age. The last twenty years of life, the stage we call old age, brings about almost as many changes as the first twenty years. Changes in the latter part of life are usually more than all the changes during the first twenty years of life because they carry the threat of loss, disability, or other degenerative conditions. Christian counselors are trained in the spiritual and general mental health aspects of aging. Caregivers and family members usually receive their training on the job as a caregiver. As the graying of America continues at an accelerated rate, the Christian counselor, pastor, and caregiver are going to need the tools and resources to counsel and assist in this area. Aging will be an area which expands into additional areas that will affect everyone in some manner. The Christian counselor, pastor, and caregiver can benefit both professionally and personally by having an understanding of what caregiving is and is not. Also, having the knowledge of where to retrieve useable and beneficial information is a blessing to all. It helps to reassure that all involved during this very stressful time period and when major decisions might need to be made, to know that there is applicable information at hand. By having this knowledge, it will allow the counselor and caregiver to truly get a better understanding of the aging person. He is now able to help in a spiritual, mental, and physical dimension. Again, it is not expected that the counselor, pastor, and caregiver will become a specialist in aging or a gerontologist. The expectation is that the reader will find helpful information as a caregiver and counselor.

Reverberating Word Michael Denham, 2018-06-12

Like sounds of beautiful music, worship can renew us for God's glory and our good by the invigorating power of God's reverberating Word. It is God's story that redeems all our stories. We want to tell it again and again as best we can, clearly conveying its message, meaning, richness, claim, and call. Through its every facet and component, worship that is biblically expositional can heighten how we proclaim God's story faithfully and creatively, pointing to the One who alone offers us true identity, security, and destiny. If you seek me, you will find me; if you search with all your heart, declares the Lord. With the ancient prophets and apostles, we must repeat and repeat and repeat the most wonderful truth that God wants to be found. In Christian worship, such tremendous and tender encounter is available to us as nowhere else.
