

Maple Sticky Buns

MAKES 12 BUNS

IF YOU LOVE STICKY BUNS

Butter makes buns so soft and tender. To make the real thing, these are for you. Our take on an old-fashioned recipe will turn it into something quite extraordinary with the help of maple glaze. And let the real work begin: sugar, butter, and cinnamon filling. You'll want to make these for a special family breakfast.

Ingredients

- 1/2 cup finely chopped walnuts
- 1/2 cup finely parted brown sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/2 cup pure maple syrup
- 1/2 cup (2 sticks) plus 1 tablespoon cold butter
- 2 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup milk

1 Preheat the oven to 350°F (175°C). Mix together the walnuts, brown sugar, and cinnamon in a small bowl. Set aside.

2 In a small saucepan, bring the maple syrup and 1 tablespoon of the butter to a boil over medium heat. Boil for 20 seconds, then scrape into a 5-ounce square baking pan or a 6-ounce deep dish pie plate. Set aside.

3 Combine the flour, baking powder, and salt in a large bowl. Then to mix. Stir 1/2 tablespoon of the butter into 1/2 cup of the flour mixture, and use it to coat the butter in roughly the size of eight peas. Make a well in the mixture and add the milk. Mix gently, just until the mixture forms a dough. Knead more. If the dough seems a bit wet, work in a half more flour with the back of a wooden spoon. Roll the remaining 1 1/2 tablespoons butter in a small rectangle.

4 Roll the dough into a lightly floured surface and knead gently five or six times, using a rolling pin, and the dough into the ball. If it's too thick, exchange you can manage. Roll away if it isn't perfect. Brush the surface with the melted butter.

5 Cover the dough evenly with the brown sugar mixture, putting it gently with your hands. Starting at the thick edge, roll up the dough like a rug, pinching at the ends to seal. Roll the roll back down and lay them flat in the baking pan with the syrup. Bake for 25 minutes. Remove from the oven, and insert into a large plate. Do this quickly but carefully, being aware that the syrup is very hot. These come out a good presentation. Sprinkle any syrupy stuff from the pan and spread over the buns.
