Intangible Heritage and Participation Marilena Alivizatou, 2021-07-12 Intangible Heritage and Participation examines participation as an intellectual and operational frame in safeguarding intangible heritage Including case studies from the Netherlands Belgium Aotearoa New Zealand Greece Peru Britain Denmark Sweden and Japan the book provides an analysis of safeguarding as a museological framework and further investigates safeguarding practices in participatory research memory work and cultural transmission Drawing on conversations about the tyranny of participation the book looks into the complexities of participatory projects on the ground from community research and collecting to the mapping of Indigenous values in environmental conservation and processes of active remembering of difficult intangible heritage of forced migration political violence and mental illness Cautioning against the uncritical adoption of participation as a universal ethical discourse Alivizatou argues that the ethics of cosmopolitanism should guide safeguarding practices at an international level Intangible Heritage and Participation offers an original approach to thinking about and working with intangible heritage and as such should be essential reading for academics researchers and students in among others the fields of cultural heritage studies museology anthropology and cultural development It should also be of interest to heritage and museum professionals and anyone else interested in cultural heritage theory and practice A List of the Patrons, Officers, Committees, Governors & Subscribers Royal Masonic Institution for Boys, 1929

Nemrud Dagi Herman Brijder, 2014-08-25 This richly illustrated book presents in detail the sanctuaries built during the reign of Antiochus I of Commagene ca 75 36 BCE including the three large tombs and ten cult places and discusses Antiochus rule in the context of his religious program and cult of the divine ruler This book is the final publication of the results of the International Nemrud Dagi Project 2001 2003 Marbled Paper Richard J. Wolfe, 1990

For 250 years after its introduction to Europe around 1600 the method of decorating paper known as marbling reigned supreme as the chief means of embellishing the fine work of hand bookbinders Richard J Wolfe reconstructs the rise and fall of the craft and offers the most comprehensive account available of its history techniques and patterns A publication of the A S W Rosenbach Fellowship in Bibliography Series Tourists at the Taj Tim

Edensor, 2008-01-28 Clearly written and fascinatingly illustrated Tourists at the Taj describes the conflicting narratives which surround the site For some the Taj is an evocative symbol of the colonial past For others it is a symbolic centre of Islamic power For many of the thousands of tourists that visit it each year it is simply a monument of love The author shows how tourism can be seen as a performance and the tourist site as a stage on which tourists are directed and rehearsed but also able to improvise their own cultural rituals English Medieval Industries John Blair, Nigel Ramsay, 1991-01-01 This work is intended as a modern successor to L F Salzman's English Industries in the Middle Ages 1913 The approach to each industry is by material discussing its acquisition working and sale as a finished product Only industries that resulted in the production of consumer goods and where substantial numbers of artefacts survive from the Middle Ages are dealt with fishing and brewing are therefore omitted the text is illustrated by pictures of surviving objects and contemporary representations of medieval work Board of Trade Journal Great Britain.
