first quarter of the 20th century Satchel Paige whose talent quickly became known in organized baseball and was built into a near mythical figure by an enchanted press Larry Doby who took the field with the Cleveland Indians three months after Jackie Robinson appeared with the Dodgers Curt Flood remembered less for the exceptional player he was than for challenging baseball's reserve clause Dave Parker the first black player to make a million dollars a year but also a prominent witness to the Pittsburgh drug trial and Barry Bonds known for his clashes with fans and the media but most recently revered for his MVP season in 2002 and record breaking 73 home runs in 2001 Pete Rose William A. Cook, 2003-12-31 On September 11 1985 with a sell out crowd of 52 000 fans on hand at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium and millions of others watching on television Pete Rose collected hit number 4 192 of his career and passed Ty Cobb as the all time career hits leader As he reached first base thousands of cameras flashed his teammates mobbed him fireworks exploded and the crowd overwhelmed him with a seven minute standing ovation Rose was on top of the world Less than four years later he would be banned for life from baseball for allegedly betting on major league games roundly criticized in the press by both fans and fellow players and then convicted for tax evasion In 2003 fourteen years after he was made ineligible for the Hall of Fame Commissioner Bud Selig took up Rose's application for reinstatement igniting once again an intense debate about his legacy and baseball's long standing zero tolerance policy on gambling This book gathers the available facts of Rose's life and career as well as the scandals he was embroiled in leaving the reader a more informed participant in the ongoing discussion
