Mariama Ba So Long A Letter:

A Study Guide for Mariama Ba's "So Long a Letter" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 So Long a Letter Mariama Bâ, 1989

An intense and poised novel in the form of a letter written by Ramatoulaye who has recently been widowed African Novels in the Classroom Margaret Jean Hay, 2000 Many teachers of African studies have found novels to be effective assignments in courses In this guide teachers describe their favourite African novels drawn from all over the continent and share their experiences of using them in the classroom So Long a Letter Mariama Ba, 1982-08-01 Mothering, Community, and Friendship Essah Díaz, Dannabang Kuwabong, Dorsía Smith Silva, 2022-04-04 Mothers Community and Friendship is an anthology that explores the complexities of mothering motherhood communities and friendship from across interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary perspectives The chapters in this text not only examine how communities and friendship shape and influence the various spectrums of motherhood but also analyze how communities and friendship are necessary for mothers Through personal reflective critical essays and ethnographies this collection situates the ways mothers are connected to communities and how these relationships forms such as in mothering groups and maternal friendships By calling attention to these central and current topics Mothers Community and Friendship represents how communities and friendship become means of empowerment for mothers African Women Writers and the Politics of Gender Sadia Zulfiqar, 2016-09-23 This work examines the work of a group of African women writers who have emerged over the last forty years While figures such as Chinua Achebe Ben Okri and Wole Soyinka are likely to be the chief focus of discussions of African writing female authors have been at the forefront of fictional interrogations of identity formation and history In the work of authors such as Mariama B Senegal Buchi Emecheta Nigeria Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Nigeria Tsitsi Dangarembga Zimbabwe and Leila Aboulela Sudan there is a clear attempt to subvert the tradition of male writing where the female characters are often relegated to the margins of the culture and confined to the domestic private sphere This body of work has already generated a significant number of critical responses including readings that draw on gender politics and colonialism but it is still very much a minor literature and most mainstream western feminism has not sufficiently processed it The purpose of this book is three fold First it draws together some of the most important and influential African women writers of the post war period and looks at their work separately and together in terms of a series of themes and issues including marriage family polygamy religion childhood and education Second it demonstrates how African literature produced by women writers is explicitly and polemically engaged with urgent political issues that have both local and global resonance the veil Islamophobia and a distinctively African brand of feminist critique Third it revisits Fredric Jameson's claim that all third world texts are national allegories and considers these novels by African women in relation to Jameson's claim arguing that their work has complicated Jameson's assumptions The Tongue-Tied Imagination Tobias Warner, 2019-03-05 Winner 2021 African Literature Association First Book Award Should a writer work in a former colonial language or in a vernacular The language question was one of the great intractable problems that haunted postcolonial literatures in the twentieth century but it has since acquired a reputation as a dead end for narrow nationalism This book returns to the language question from a fresh perspective Instead of asking whether language matters The Tongue Tied Imagination explores how the language question itself came to matter Focusing on the case of Senegal Warner investigates the intersection of French and Wolof Drawing on extensive archival research and an under studied corpus of novels poetry and films in both languages as well as educational projects and popular periodicals the book traces the emergence of a politics of language from colonization through independence to the era of neoliberal development Warner reads the francophone works of well known authors such as L opold Senghor Ousmane Semb ne Mariama B and Boubacar Boris Diop alongside the more overlooked Wolof language works with which they are in dialogue Refusing to see the turn to vernacular languages only as a form of nativism The Tongue Tied Imagination argues that the language question opens up a fundamental struggle over the nature and limits of literature itself Warner reveals how language debates tend to pull in two directions first they weave vernacular traditions into the normative patterns of world literature but second they create space to imagine how literary culture might be configured otherwise Drawing on these insights Warner brilliantly rethinks the terms of world literature and charts a renewed practice of literary comparison

Masculinity Under Construction LaToya Jefferson-James,2020-09-17
Masculinity Under Construction Literary Re Presentations of Black Masculinity in the African Diaspora analyzes Black male identity as constructed by Black male authors In each chapter Dr Jefferson James discusses a different construction or definition of masculine identity produced by men of African descent on the continent of Africa in the Caribbean and in North America Combining through the works of James Baldwin Chinua Achebe Ralph Ellison George Lamming and other pan African authors Masculinity Under Construction argues for the importance of analyzing the historical context that contributed to the formation of Black male identity Additionally Dr Jefferson James draws a relationship between Black feminists and writers such as Anna Julia Cooper and her contemporaries and these works of literature viewed as primarily about Black masculinity

Gender and Sexuality in Senegalese Societies Babacar M'Baye,Besi Brillian Muhonja,2019-07-10 Drawing from the diverse fields of postcolonial studies literary studies history anthropology sociology political science environmental studies and development studies among others Gender and Sexuality in Senegalese Societies demonstrates the urgency and necessity of new research in gender and queer studies in and on Senegalese societies By focusing on subjects that have thus far been largely neglected in national and scholarly debates the chapters are subversive complex and inclusive centering within Senegalese studies themes and elements of alternative nonbinary variant and nonheteronormative gender identities sexualities and voices Contributors demonstrate that nationalist and anticolonial discourses propelled by deep and lingering socioeconomic inequalities have led in postcolonial Senegal to vitriolic scapegoating of individuals and communities with variant sexual and gender identities The chapters in this volume look inward to the voices and experiences of the Senegalese people to challenge nationalist representations of advocacy for the liberation of gender and sexual minorities in Senegal as a function of a Western neocolonialist agenda Language, Literature and Culture in a Multilingual Society Ozo-mekuri

Intersectional Exploration Chakraborty, Swati, Satapathy, Subrata S., 2024-10-03 The intersection of gender environment and human rights reveals a complex interplay that underscores the need for an inclusive approach to addressing global challenges Gender disparities often influence how individuals experience and respond to environmental issues with women and marginalized communities frequently bearing the brunt of environmental degradation and climate change due to socio economic inequalities Integrating a gender perspective into environmental and human rights frameworks is crucial for achieving equitable and sustainable solutions This approach ensures that policies address the specific needs and contributions of all genders promoting justice and empowerment while safeguarding environmental resources Recognizing and addressing these intersections can lead to more effective and inclusive strategies for protecting human rights and fostering environmental sustainability Gender Environment and Human Rights An Intersectional Exploration raises awareness about the interconnectedness of gender dynamics environmental sustainability and human rights violations fostering a deeper understanding among readers It advocates for change by spotlighting existing injustices and empowering readers to engage in meaningful action whether at the individual community or policy level Covering topics such as climate change knowledge systems and sustainable development this book is an excellent resource for academicians scholars policymakers activists students educators and more English Literature A-Level (ZIMSEC) Past Exam Questions and Model Answers David Chitate, 2024-06-07 Unlock your full potential with our unparalleled Literature in English Past Exam Question Bank for ZIMSEC A Level exams Merging cutting edge technology with expert insights this book offers an unrivaled preparation tool designed to ensure your success Explore this resource to experience the exceptional quality that defines our Past Exam Question Bank series Seize this opportunity to elevate your exam readiness and achieve academic excellence

Justice and Human Rights in the African Imagination Chielozone Eze, 2021-04-15 Justice and Human Rights in the African Imagination is an interdisciplinary reading of justice in literary texts and memoirs films and social anthropological texts in postcolonial Africa Inspired by Nelson Mandela and South Africa's robust achievements in human rights this book argues that the notion of restorative justice is integral to the proper functioning of participatory democracy and belongs to the moral architecture of any decent society Focusing on the efforts by African writers scholars artists and activists to build flourishing communities the author discusses various quests for justice such as environmental justice social justice intimate justice and restorative justice It discusses in particular ecological violence human rights abuses such as witchcraft accusations the plight of people affected by disability homophobia misogyny and sex trafficking and forgiveness This book will be of interest to scholars of African literature and films literature and human rights and literature and the environment Woman Blooming Out of Gloom Jayant S. Cherekar,2013-03 Woman Blooming out of Gloom is a doctoral thesis that provides an in depth analysis of the works of Senegalese author Mariama B By addressing such issues as marriage polygamy motherhood and womanhood B was able to establish a creative space for herself and use the act of creative writing as a tool for self affirmation The underlying theme of most of B s writings is a powerful appeal for the emancipation of women and African women in particular This well crafted and engaging analysis is divided into five chapters each of which attempts its own in depth review of separate aspects of B s works The book ultimately endeavors to take a critical review of contemporary African socio political reality by proposing a re reading of B s writings The author of this book Dr Jayant S Cherekar was inspired by a sincere desire to arrive at a more comprehensive understanding of B s female protagonists In so doing the author also attempts to bring into global focus the vast socio political cultural realities prevalent in the African world today Dr Jayant S Cherekar is an assistant professor in English who specializes in grammar literary criticism and fiction Prior to this book he has published research papers in national and international journals For his next book he plans a comparative analysis of Mariama B with female Indian authors Publisher s website <http://sbpra.com> JayantSCherekar To the Budding Creative Writer. A Handbook Roselyne M. Jua,Bate Besong,2009 To the Budding Creative Writer A Handbook is designed to help young writers come to grips with questions and problems relative to their creative efforts The authors discuss a range of topics providing guidelines on such issues as style technique point of view characterization poetic diction figurative language denotation and connotation etc They equally offer useful critical comments on some of the works of accomplished African writers whom they cite as models for beginning writers fusing literary creativity with literary criticism All along the co authors stress the centrality in imaginative writing of both the what and the how or matter and manner and how to combine both to good effect Women Imagine Change Eugenia C. DeLamotte,Natania Meeker,Jean F. O'Barr,1997 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Modern Women Modernizing Men Ruth Compton Brouwer,2002 Using the experiences of three women in colonial India Korea and sub Saharan Africa as case studies this book explores how professionalism religion and feminism came together to enable missionary women to become the colleagues and mentors of Western and non Western men A Study Guide for Mariama Ba's "So Long a Letter" Cengage Learning Gale,2017-07-25 A Study Guide for Mariama Ba's So Long a Letter excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Literature of Developing Nations for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Literature of

Developing Nations For Students for all of your research needs Epistolarity and World Literature, 1980-2010 Rachel Bower, 2017-09-29 This book examines the striking resurgence of the literary letter at the end of the long twentieth century It explores how authors returned to epistolary conventions to create dialogue across national linguistic and cultural borders and repositions a range of contemporary and postcolonial authors never considered together before including Monica Ali John Berger Amitav Ghosh Michael Ondaatje and Alice Walker Through a series of situated readings the book shows how the return to epistolarity is underpinned by ideals relating to dialogue and human connection Several of the works use letters to present non anglophone material to the anglophone reader Others use letters to challenge policed borders the prison occupied territory the nation state Elsewhere letters are used to connect correspondents in different cultural and linguistic contexts Common to all of the works considered in this book is the appeal that they make to us as readers and the responsibility they place on us to respond to this address By taking the epistle as its starting point and pursuing Auerbach's speculative ideal of weltliteratur this book turns away from the dominant trend of distant reading in world literature and shows that it is in the close situated analysis of form and composition that the concept of world literature emerges most clearly This study seeks to re think the ways in which we read world literature and shows how the literary letter in old and new forms speaks powerfully again in this period Gender in African Women's Writing Juliana Makuchi

Nfah-Abbenyi, 1997-12-22 This is a cogent analysis of the complexities of gender in the work of nine contemporary Anglophone and Francophone novelists offers illuminating interpretations of worthy writers Multicultural Review This book reaffirms Bessie Head's remark that books are a tool in this case a tool that allows readers to understand better the rich lives and the condition of African women Excellent notes and a rich bibliography Choice a college level analysis which will appeal to any interested in African studies and literature The Bookwatch This book applies gender as a category of analysis to the works of nine sub Saharan women writers Aidoo B Beyala Dangarembga Emecheta Head Liking Tlali and Zanga Tsogo The author appropriates western feminist theories of gender in an African literary context and in the process she finds and names critical theory that is African indigenous self determining which she then melds with western feminist theory and comes out with an over arching theory that enriches western post colonial and African critical perspectives
