Masterpiece Studies Manet Zola Van Gogh And Monet:

"Masterpiece" Studies Kermit Swiler Champa, 1994 In Masterpiece Studies Kermit Champa offers new ways to interpret modernism that have previously been closed off by the application of the reigning art historical methodologies to the study of the modernist achievement He focuses on four separate phenomena Manet's last Salon painting Bar at the Folies Bergères L'Oeuvre Zola's novel about the realist impressionist movement Van Gogh's problematic versions of a single painting La Berceuse and the immanent series phenomenon of Monet's work of the period Champa reveals the importance of music in particular Wagner's music as a paradigm for later nineteenth century French painting He also shows the crucial significance of the concept of the masterpiece as thematized by Zola in his novel for our understanding of certain aspects of the art of Manet Monet and Van Gogh Employing postformalist methodology the book explores the conversation between works of art produced in close succession and elaborates an aesthetic context for that conversation Champa also shows how paintings and fictional representations of paintings can announce their points in common and it is out of this exploration that he radically redefines what constitutes context "Rival Sisters, Art and Music at the Birth of Modernism, 1815-1915" James H. Rubin, 2017-07-05 Introducing the concept of music and painting as rival sisters during the nineteenth century this interdisciplinary collection explores the productive exchange from rivalry to inspiration to collaboration between the two media in the age of Romanticism and Modernism The volume traces the relationship between art and music from the opposing claims for superiority of the early nineteenth century to the emergence of the concept of synesthesia around 1900 This collection puts forward a more complex history of the relationship between art and music than has been described in earlier works including an intermixing of models and distinctions between approaches to them Individual essays from art history musicology and literature examine the growing influence of art upon music and vice versa in the works of Berlioz Courbet Manet Fantin Latour Rodin Debussy and the Pre Raphaelites among other artists Rival Sisters, Art and Music at the Birth of Modernism, 1815-1915 Mr James H Rubin, Dr Olivia Mattis, 2014-11-28 Introducing the concept of music and painting as rival sisters during the nineteenth century this interdisciplinary collection explores the productive exchange from rivalry to inspiration to collaboration between the two media in the age of Romanticism and Modernism The volume traces the relationship between art and music from the opposing claims for superiority of the early nineteenth century to the emergence of the concept of synesthesia around 1900 Manet's Modernism Michael Fried, 1996-07 Fried put forward a highly original beholder centered account of the evolution of a central tradition in French painting from Chardin to Courbet P 4 of cover Masterpieces of European Painting, 1800-1920, in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kathryn Calley Galitz, 2007 Van Gogh and Music Natascha Veldhorst, 2018-01-01 Ah to make of painting what the music of Berlioz and Wagner has been before us a consolatory art for distressed hearts Vincent van Gogh This engaging book is the first in depth investigation of the influential role that music and sound played throughout Vincent van Gogh's 1853-1890 life. From psalms and hymns to the operas of Richard Wagner to simple birdsong music represented to Van Gogh the ultimate form of artistic expression. And he believed that by emulating music painting could articulate deep truths and impart a lasting emotional impact on its viewers. In Van Gogh and Music Natascha Veldhorst provides close readings of the many allusions to music in the artist's prolific correspondence and examines the period's artistic theory to offer a rich picture of the status of music in late 19th century culture. Veldhorst shows the extent to which Van Gogh not only admired the ability of music to inspire emotion but how he incorporated musical subject matter and techniques into his work with illustrations of celebrated paintings such as Sunflowers in a Vase which he described as a symphony in blue and yellow. An expansive inquiry into the significance of sound and music for the artist including the formative influence of his song-filled upbringing. Van Gogh and Music is full of fascinating new insights into the work of one of history's most venerated artists.

A Companion to Impressionism André Dombrowski, 2028-08-14. The 21st century's first major academic reassessment of Impressionism providing a new generation of scholars with a comprehensive view of critical conversations. Presenting an expansive view of the study of Impressionism this extraordinary volume breaks new thematic ground while also reconsidering established questions surrounding the definition, chronology and membership of the Impressionist movement. In 34 original essays from established and emerging scholars this collection considers a diverse range of developing topics and offers new critical approaches to the interpretation of Impressionist art. Focusing on the 1860s to 1890s this Companion explores artists who are well represented in Impressionist studies including Monet, Renoir, Degas and Cassatt as well as Morisot, Caillebotte, Bazille and other significant yet lesser known artists. The essays cover a wide variety of methodologies in addressing such topics as Impressionism's global predominance at the turn of the 20th century, the relationship between Impressionism and the emergence of new media, the materials and techniques of the Impressionists and the movement's exhibition and reception history. Part of the acclaimed Wiley Blackwell Companions to Art History series this important new addition to scholarship in this field reevaluates the origins, chronology and critical reception of French Impressionism. Discusses Impressionism's account of modern identity in the contexts of race, nationality, gender and sexuality. Explores the global reach and influence of Impressionism in Europe, the Middle East, East Asia, North Africa and the Americas. Considers Impressionism's relationship to the emergence of film and photography in the 19th century. Considers Impressionism's representation of the private sphere as compared to its depictions of public issues such as empire, finance and environmental change. Addresses the Impressionist market and clientele, period criticism and exhibition displays from the late 19th century to the middle of the 20th century. Features original essays by academics, curators and conservators from around the world including those from France, Germany, the United States, the United Kingdom, Japan, Turkey and Argentina. The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Impressionism is an invaluable text for students and academics studying Impressionism and late 19th century European art. Post Impressionism, modern art and modern French cultural history Biographical Dictionary of Literary Influences John Powell, 2000-10-30 Over the past two decades the process of cultural development and in particular the role of reading has been of growing interest but recent research has been episodic and idiosyncratic In this biographical dictionary research devoted specifically to the reading habits of 19th century individuals who shaped Western culture is brought together for the first time While giving prominent coverage to literary and political figures the volume's 270 entries also include musicians painters educators and explorers Each entry includes brief biographical information a concise summary of literary influences on the subject and clear direction for further research The book provides a practical tool for scholars wishing to trace the reading experience of important Western cultural figures Subjects were selected from the people most responsible for the cultural development of Europe Britain and the British Empire and the Americas between 1800 and 1914 Although selective the sample of 270 figures is substantial enough to suggest broad cross cultural habits and effects enabling scholars to better understand the relationship between reading and culture In an introductory essay Powell explores the patterns and relationships that can be discerned from the entries The first of three anticipated volumes the book is an important step forward in researching the role of reading in cultural development

The Nabis and Intimate Modernism Katherine M. Kuenzli, 2017-07-05 Providing a fresh perspective on an important but underappreciated group of late nineteenth century French painters this is the first book to provide an in depth account of the Nabis practice of the decorative and its significance for twentieth century modernism Over the course of the ten years that define the Nabi movement 1890-1900 its principal artists included Edouard Vuillard Pierre Bonnard Maurice Denis Paul Signac and Paul Ranson The author reconstructs the Nabis relationship to Impressionism mass culture literary Symbolism Art Nouveau Wagnerianism and a revolutionary artistic tradition in order to show how their painterly practice emerges out of the pressing questions defining modernism around 1900 She shows that the Nabis were engaged nonetheless with issues that are always at stake in accounts of nineteenth century modernist painting issues such as the relationship of high and low art of individual sensibility and collective identity of the public and private spheres The Nabis and Intimate Modernism is a rigorous study of the intellectual and artistic endeavors that inform the Nabis decorative domestic paintings in the 1890s and argues for their centrality to painterly modernism The book ends up not only re positioning the Nabis to occupy a crucial place in modernism's development from 1860 to 1914 but also challenges that narrative to place more emphasis on notions of decoration totality and interiority

Manet and the Family Romance Nancy Locke, 2001 Edouard Manet's paintings have long been recognized for being visually compelling and uniquely recalcitrant While critics have noted the presence of family members and intimates in paintings such as Le Déjeuner sur l'herbe Nancy Locke takes an unprecedented look at the significance of the artist's family relationships for his art Locke argues that a kind of mythology of the family or Freudian family romance frequently structures Manet's compositional decisions and choice of models By looking at the representation of the family as a volatile mechanism for the development of sexuality and of repression conflict and desire Locke brings powerful new interpretations to some of Manet's most complex works. Locke considers for example the impact of a father-son drama rooted in a closely guarded family secret: the adultery of Manet's father and the status of Léon Leenhoff. Her nuanced exploration of the implications of this story that Manet in fact married his father's mistress makes us look afresh at even well-known paintings such as Olympia. This book sheds new light on Manet's infamous interest in gypsies, street musicians and itinerants as Locke analyzes the activities of Manet's father as a civil judge. She also reexamines the close friendship between Manet and the Impressionist painter Berthe Morisot, who married Manet's brother; Morisot becomes the subject of a series of meditations on the elusiveness of the self, the transience of identity and conflicting concerns with appearances and respectability. Manet and the Family Romance offers an entirely new set of arguments about the cultural forces that shaped these alluring paintings.

The Invisible Masterpiece Hans Belting, 2001-09 The invisible masterpiece then is an unattainable ideal, an ideal that has both bewitched and bewildered artists. The Invisible Masterpiece is an unusual reconstruction of the history of the work of art since 1800 in which Hans Belting explores and explains the dreams and fears, the triumphs and failures of modernity's painters and sculptors. BOOK JACKET

Hidden in the Shadow of the Master Ruth Butler, 2008-10-01 Paul Cézanne, Claude Monet and Auguste Rodin: The names of these brilliant nineteenth-century artists are known throughout the world. But what is remembered of their wives? What were these unknown women like? What roles did they play in the lives and the art of their famous husbands? In this remarkable book of discovery, art historian Ruth Butler coaxes three shadowy women out of obscurity and introduces them for the first time as individuals. Through unprecedented research, Butler has been able to create portraits of Hortense Fiquet, Camille Doncieux and Rose Beuret, the models and later the wives respectively of Cézanne, Monet and Rodin, three of the most famous French artists of their generation. The book tells the stories of three ordinary women who faced issues of a dramatically changing society as well as the challenges of life with a striving genius. Butler illuminates the ways in which these model wives figured in their husbands' achievements and provides new analyses of familiar works of art. Filled with captivating detail, the book recovers the lives of Hortense, Camille and Rose and recognizes with new insight how their unique relationships enriched the quality of their husbands' artistic endeavors.

Truth in Serial Form Malika Maskarinec, 2023-04-27 This volume has its starting point in the veritable explosion of serialized formats in all of forms of representation, from painting to printing, beginning in the mid-nineteenth century and the well-known fascination with series in biology, mathematics, music, art or literature. The new media culture of the late nineteenth century, very much shaped by these serialized formats, sees itself confronted with questions of truthfulness in new and profound ways, just as perhaps the accelerated rhythm, anonymity and broadened accessibility of new media today have created new possibilities for the dissemination of misinformation and conversely give us cause to interrogate anew our notions of truthfulness. By examining both the formal operations of both aesthetic and scientific objects in a series form and the historical context of their publication or presentation, the contributions in this volume examine the often strained but yet immensely productive relationship between the way in which a series negotiates questions of truthfulness both by reference to the rules established in its series form or by means of its serial format This volume provides ten detailed cases of the series form from the history of science and journalism and the history of painting photography and literature as well

Seeing and Beyond Deborah J. Johnson, David Ogawa, Kermit Swiler Champa, 2005 This volume is an exciting eclectic collection of essays in honor of Kermit S Champa a leading scholar of impressionism and critic of twentieth century art The lead essay by David Carrier is followed by others from several generations of scholars and museum curators trained by Professor Champa Together they cover an extremely wide historical range from the eighteenth to twenty first centuries and honor Professor Champa s own scholarly rigor methodological diversity and intellectual breadth through topics ranging from art history to cultural studies Jacket "Art, History and the Senses " Gabriel Koureas, 2017-07-05 Should sight trump the other four senses when experiencing and evaluating art Art History and the Senses 1830 to the Present questions whether the authority of the visual in visual culture should be deconstructed and focuses on the roles of touch taste smell and sound in the materiality of works of art From the nineteenth century onward notions of synaesthesia and the multi sensorial were important to a series of art movements from Symbolism to Futurism and Installations The essays in this collection evaluate works of art at specific moments in their history and consider how senses other than the visual have or have not affected the works meaning The result is a re evaluation of sensory knowledge and experience in the arts encouraging a new level of engagement with ideas of style and form

The Arts Entwined Marsha L. Morton, Peter L. Schmunk, 2013-10-11 This collection of essays by musicologists and art historians explores the reciprocal influences between music and painting during the nineteenth century a critical period of gestation when instrumental music was identified as the paradigmatic expressive art and theoretically aligned with painting in the formulation ut pictura musica as with music so with painting Under music s influence painting approached the threshold of abstraction concurrently many composers cultivated pictorial effects in their music Individual essays address such themes as visualization in music the literary vs pictorial basis of the symphonic poem musical pictorialism in painting and lithography and the influence of Wagner on the visual arts In these and other ways both composers and painters actively participated in interarts discourses in seeking to redefine the very identity and aims of their art Also includes 17 musical examples

Music and Modern Art James Leggio, 2014-07-16 Music and Modern Art adopts an interdisciplinary approach to the relationship between these two fields of creative endeavor

Hush Little Baby Gal Ventura, 2023-07-15 In the nineteenth century France became fixated on infant sleep Pictures of sleeping babies proliferated in paintings posters and advertisements for cradles and toys Childcare manuals and medical writings insisted on the importance of sleep as a measure of a child s future health and vigour Infant sleep was transformed from an unremarkable event to a precarious stage of life that demanded monitoring support and above all the constant presence and attention of mothers Hush Little Baby uncovers the cultural medical and economic forces that came to shape

Western ideas about infants sleeping patterns rituals and settings By the mid nineteenth century doctors were advising that infant sleep should be carefully controlled by caregivers according to medical guidelines and that to do otherwise would risk compromising a child s development A sleeping baby was seen as the sign of a good mother an idea that was reinforced through countless pictures of mothers watching vigilantly over their sleeping children even as the reality of postpartum depression was known to doctors The medical advice literature also helped to create a commercial infant industry encouraging the production of clothing bedding cradles and accessories designed to foster sleep and providing new ways for families to demonstrate social status In Hush Little Baby Gal Ventura shows how these images and ideas about babies sleep created many of the standards and expectations that keep parents awake today High Art David Carrier,2010-11-01

The great poet Charles Baudelaire 1821 1867 was also an extremely influential art critic High Art relates the philosophical issues posed by Baudelaire s art writing to the theory and practice of modernist and postmodernist painting Baudelaire wrote in an age of transition David Carrier argues an era divided by the Revolution of 1848 the historical break that played for him a role now taken within modernism by the political revolts of 1968 Moving from the grand tradition of Delacroix to the images of modern life made by Constantin Guys this movement from high to low from the unified world of correspondences to the fragmented images of contemporary city life motivates Baudelaire s equivalent to the post 1968 turn away from formalist art criticism Viewed from the perspective of the 1990s Carrier argues the issues raised by Baudelaire s criticism and creative writing provide a way of understanding the situation of art writing in our own time
