New Critical Essays on Toni Morrison's God Help the Child Alice Knox Eaton, Maxine Lavon Montgomery, Shirley A. Stave, 2020-07-23 Contributions by Alice Knox Eaton Mar Gallego Maxine Lavon Montgomery Evelyn Jaffe Schreiber Shirley A Stave Justine Tally Susana Vega Gonz lez and Anissa Wardi In her eleventh novel God Help the Child Toni Morrison returned to several of the signature themes explored in her previous work pernicious beauty standards for women particularly African American women mother child relationships racism and colorism and child sexual abuse God Help the Child published in 2015 is set in the contemporary period unlike all of her previous novels The contemporary setting is ultimately incidental to the project of the novel however as with Morrison's other work the story takes on mythic qualities and the larger than life themes lend themselves to allegorical and symbolic readings that resonate in light of both contemporary and historical issues New Critical Essays on Toni Morrison's God Help the Child Race Culture and History a collection of eight essays by both seasoned Morrison scholars as well as new and rising scholars takes on the novel in a nuanced and insightful analysis interpreting it in relation to Morrison's earlier work as well as locating it within ongoing debates in literary and other academic disciplines engaged with African American literature The volume is divided into three sections The first focuses on trauma both the pain and suffering caused by neglect and abuse as well as healing and understanding The second section considers narrative choices concentrating on experimentation and reader engagement The third section turns a comparative eye to Morrison's fictional canon from her debut work of fiction The Bluest Eye until the present These essays build on previous studies of Morrison's novels and deepen readers understanding of both her last novel and her larger literary output

Reconfigurations of the Bildungsroman Gonçalo Cholant, 2022-06-21 The present work deals with the representation of trauma and violence in coming of age stories written by African American and Afro Caribbean women authors in the United States The kinds of violence explored in this work are related to the post colonial condition the women protagonists experience in which racism sexism classism among other kinds of discrimination are co created in an intersectional experience of oppression The titles analyzed in this work are Lucy 1990 written by Jamaica Kincaid Breath Eyes Memory 1994 written by Edwidge Danticat Bone Black Memories of Girlhood 1996 written by bell hooks and God Help the Child 2015 written by Toni Morrison The Bildungsroman genre serves as the form with which the authors are able to display the different forms of violence experienced during the the process of growing up female and black in the United States and also in the Caribbean islands of Antigua and Haiti in the cases of Kincaid and Danticat respectively The coming of age stories written by women and more specifically by African American and Afro Caribbean women tend to showcase narratives in which the tensions between the protagonists self determination and the influence of social and cultural factors in their development opportunities are negotiated The genre is adapted and subverted by the authors deviating from its canonical European origins becoming a site in which the authors are able to represent different kinds of violence and the subsequent traumatic consequences caused by it

Gynocritics and the Traversals of Women's Writing Hemant Verma, Ajit Kumar, Rafseena M., 2024-01-11 Discussions on any narrative focusing on the experiences of about and by women have always had differences as well as similarities What makes such varying approaches interesting is the fact that the re readings and re presentations of the hegemonic narratives necessitated the significance of feminist approaches which forms the major focus in the present volume A feminist reading of the current narratives could explain how historically women's rights and roles have been undermined and how the absence of women was never a concern in the male centered narratives Women's writings provide a consciousness that helps individuals consider critically about how differently men and women are dealt With different dimensions brought in through the various scholarly articles on the differential treatment of women in the highly misogynist society the book offers the space for the intellectuals the academic researchers and scholars in the field of literature and humanities to contribute to the development of an egalitarian world Toni Morrison Linda Wagner-Martin, 2022-02-08 A reading of the oeuvre of Toni Morrison fiction non fiction and other drawing extensively from her many interviews as well as her primary texts Toni Morrison A Literary Life second edition provides an overview of Morrison's intellectual growth as an artist Linda Wagner Martin aligns Morrison's novels with the works of Virginia Woolf and William Faulkner assessing her works as among the most innovative and most significant worldwide of the past fifty plus years The revised edition includes new discussion of God Help the Child The Origin of Others and The Source of Self Regard These additions present and intensify scholarship on Morrison's major literary contributions but also trace her significant role as a public intellectual bringing to light the consistency of Morrison's aesthetic and political visions The Weird Sister Collection Marisa Crawford, 2024-02-13 Collecting the best of the underground blog Weird Sister these unapologetic and insightful essays link contemporary feminism to literature and pop culture Launched in 2014 Weird Sister proudly staked out a corner of the internet where feminist writers could engage with the literary and popular culture that excited or enraged them The blog made space amid book websites dominated by white male editors and contributors and also committed to covering literary topics in depth when larger feminist outlets rarely could Throughout its decade long run Weird Sister served as an early platform for some of contemporary literature's most striking voices naming itself a website that speaks its mind and snaps its gum and doesn't apologize Edited by founder Marisa Crawford The Weird Sister Collection brings together the work of longtime contributors such as Morgan Parker Christopher Soto Soleil Ho Juli n Delgado Lopera Virgie Tovar Jennif f er Tamayo and more alongside new original essays Offering nuanced insight into contemporary and historical literature in conversation with real life and timely social issues these pieces mark a transitional and transformative moment in online and feminist writing Re-Orienting the Fairy Tale Mayako Murai, Luciana Cardi, 2020-08-25 Readers will find inspiration and new directions in the cross cultural and interdisciplinary approaches to fairy tales provided by Re Orienting the Fairy Tale Toni Morrison For Beginners Ron David, 2016-10-04 Many people consider Morrison's novels difficult to read Most of her readers have at least one book on their shelves that they couldn't finish or when they did finish one just scratched their heads in confusion And when we think we are sure we know what she's writing about it turns out we are half wrong or only getting the tip of the iceberg instead of the whole beautiful brooding thing Toni Morrison For Beginners is about the woman her books her mission her word music and all that subtext in her writings Morrison's books are like the ocean the surface is beautiful but everything that gives them life lies beneath She's the kind of writer who can change your life and this book is here to help you navigate the words and the woman Comparative Postcolonialism in the Works of V.S. Naipaul and Toni Morrison Alshaymaa Mohamed Ahmed, 2022-07-07 Comparative Postcolonialism in the Works of V S Naipaul and Toni Morrison Fragmented Identities begins with an overview of its theoretical framework highlighting the intersectional relationship between postcolonial literature and comparative literature Tracing selected novels by Naipaul and Morrison the book takes as a starting point Fanon s three phase journey of the decolonizing process In the first phase of mimicry Naipaul s and Morrison s earlier novels represent the assimilation of indigenous people into dominant hegemonic cultures The second phase is envisioned as the re narration or re interpretation of the past and old legends of indigenous culture Morrison succeeds in asserting that her ancestors past is the only way to celebrate a cultural identity but Naipaul tends to criticize and neglect his past and his original indigenous culture The third phase marks the emergence of a revolutionary literature in which Naipaul and Morrison guide their people to hybridity as a new way of becoming and resisting the hegemonic dichotomies in dominant societies English Solved Papers YCT Expert Team , 2023 24 Assistant Professor GDC English Solved Papers What is African American Literature? Margo N. Crawford, 2021-01-27 After Kenneth W Warren s What Was African American Literature Margo N Crawford delivers What is African American Literature The idea of African American literature may be much more than literature written by authors who identify as Black What is African American Literature focuses on feeling as form in order to show that African American literature is an archive of feelings a tradition of the tension between uncontainable black affect and rigid historical structure Margo N Crawford argues that textual production of affect such as blush vibration shiver twitch and wink reveals that African American literature keeps reimagining a black collective nervous system Crawford foregrounds the idea of African American literature and uncovers the black feeling world co created by writers and readers Rejecting the notion that there are no formal lines separating African American literature and a broader American literary tradition Crawford contends that the distinguishing feature of African American literature is a moodscape that is as stable as electricity Presenting a fresh perspective on the affective atmosphere of African American literature this compelling text frames central questions around the idea of African American literature shows the limits of historicism in explaining the mood of African American literature and addresses textual production in the creation of the African American literary tradition Part of the acclaimed Wiley Blackwell Manifestos series What is African American Literature is a significant addition to scholarship in the field Professors and students of American literature African American literature and Black Studies will find this book an invaluable source of fresh perspectives and new insights on America s black literary tradition The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty-First Century Richard Perez, Victoria A. Chevalier, 2020-04-30 The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty First Century examines magical realism in literatures from around the globe Featuring twenty seven essays written by leading scholars this anthology argues that literary expressions of magical realism proliferate globally in the twenty first century due to travel and migrations the shrinking of time and space and the growing encroachment of human life on nature In this global context magical realism addresses twenty first century politics aesthetics identity and social national formations where contact between and within cultures has exponentially increased altering how communities and nations imagine themselves This text assembles a group of critics throughout the world the Americas Europe Africa Asia the Middle East and Australia who employ multiple theoretical approaches to examine the different ways magical realism in literature has transitioned to a global practice thus signaling a new stage in the history and development of the genre
