Better Stories:
Mapping Cultural Studies with Lawrence Grossberg Andrew Davis,John Nguyet Erni,Carolyn Hardin,Gilbert B.

Rodman, Jennifer Daryl Slack, 2025-09-10 Better Stories assembles essays and provocations in honor of Lawrence Grossberg's radically contextual and affectively attuned lifework. In over fifty chapters, contributors trace mattering maps of influence, friendship, and intellectual struggle, charged with the hope that thinking together with feeling can change the world. These essays not only comment on Grossberg's ideas and many published works but also engage, expand, confront, and reshape them. Here, cultural studies is not a settled field but an unruly and ongoing conversation, an affective and political project sustained through convivial agonism, where asking so what sparks new thinking and even better stories. With contributions from Charles R. Acland, Preston Adcock, Juan Ricardo Aparicio, Bryan G. Behrenhausen, Tony Bennett, Marcus Breen, Lisa B. Y. Calvente, Iain Chambers, Younghan Cho, John Clarke, Barbara Claypole White, Zachariah Claypole White, Chantal Cornut, Gentile D'Arcy, Christopher James Dahlie, Andrew Davis, John Nguyet Erni, Anthony Fung, Jeremy Gilbert, Ronald Greene, Claudia Gualtieri, Carolyn Hardin, Mark Hayward, Lisa Henderson, Roman Horak, Rolien Hoyng, Steve Jones, May Joseph, Mikko Lehtonen, Jo Littler, Christina Lutter, Wolfgang Maderthaner, Lidia De Michelis, Meaghan Morris, Lutz Musner, Jeremy Packer, Roberto Pedretti, Elspeth Probyn, Aljo A. The Culture and Communities Mapping Project Morgan Currie, Melisa Miranda Correa, 2022-01-01. This book describes three years of work by the Culture and Communities Mapping Project, a research project based in Edinburgh that uses maps as an object of study and also a means to facilitate research. Taking a self-reflexive approach, the book draws on a variety of iterative mapping procedures and visual methodologies, from online virtual tours to photo elicitation, to capture the voices of inhabitants and their distinctive perspectives on the city. The book argues that practices of cultural mapping consist of a research field in and of itself and situates this work in relation to other areas of research and practice, including critical cartography, cultural geography, critical GIS, activist mapping, and artist maps. The book also offers a range of practical approaches towards using print and web-based maps to give visibility to spaces traditionally left out of city representations but that are important to the local communities that use them. Throughout, the authors reflect critically on how, through the processes of mapping, we create knowledge about space, place, community, and culture. The Routledge Handbook of Urban Cultural Planning Rana Amirtahmasebi, Jason Schupbach, 2024-12-30. This book provides a manual for planning for arts and culture in cities, featuring chapters and case studies from Africa, the Americas, Australasia, the Middle East, South, and East Asia, and more. The handbook is organized around seven themes: arts and planning for equity and social development; incorporating culture in urban planning; the intersection of creative and cultural industries; and tourism planning; financing public buildings; public space and public art; cultural heritage planning; and culture and the climate crisis. Urban planners are often tasked with preserving and attracting new art and culture to a city but there are no common rules on how practitioners accomplish this work This handbook will be an invaluable resource for city planners and designers cultural workers elected officials artists and social justice workers and advocates seeking to integrate creativity and culture into urban planning

Caregiving Across Cultures Ramon Valle, Helen Cook Gait, 2014-01-14 Seeking to assist professionals and care providers looking to develop culturally based techniques for the care of dementia afflicted elders this book first presents the need for culturally sensitive care and then describes how this method of care may be utilized developed approved and evaluated The book includes numerous case studies and highlights the authors model Dealing with facets of intercultural practice Part 1 of the text centres around the professional or provider already engaged or seeking to engage in day to day contact with ethnically diverse clientele The emphasis is on highlighting those skills which serve the practitioner to establish intercultural rapport on their daily cross ethnic assignments The central tenet of this section is that the worker s attention has to be on maintaining both the dementia affected elders and the ethnic family members cultural dignity

Cultural Spaces, Production and Consumption Graeme Evans, 2024-02-02 This book explores the concept of cultural spaces their production and how they are experienced by different users It explores this concept and practice from formal and informal arts and heritage sites festivals and cultural quarters to the production of digital fashion and street art and social engagement through cultural mapping and site based artist collaborations with local communities It offers a unique take on the relationship between cultural production and consumption through an eclectic range of cultural space types featuring examples and case studies across cultural venues events and festivals and cultural heritage and their usage Cultural production is also considered in terms of the transformation of cultural and digital creative quarters and their convergence as visitor destinations in city fringe areas to fashion spaces manifested through museumification and fashion districts The approach taken is highly empirical supported by a wide range of visual illustrations and data underpinned by key concepts notably the social production of space cultural rights and everyday culture which are both tested and validated through the original research presented throughout The book will appeal to students and researchers in human geography arts and museum management cultural policy cultural studies architecture and town planning It will also be useful for policymakers and practitioners from local and city government government cultural agencies and departments architects and town planners cultural venues arts centres museums heritage sites and artistic directors programmers

All Mapped Out Mike Duggan, 2024-05-06 From cave paintings to Google a thought provoking investigation of how maps do not just reflect the world around us but shape the way we live Maps go far beyond just showing us where things are located All Mapped Out is an exploration of how maps impact our lives on social and cultural levels This book offers a journey through the fascinating history of maps from ancient cave paintings and stone carvings to the digital interfaces we rely on today But it s not just about the maps themselves it s about the people behind them All Mapped Out reveals how maps have affected societies influenced politics and economies impacted the environment and even shaped our sense of personal identity Mike Duggan uncovers the incredible power of maps to shape the world and the knowledge we consume offering a unique and eye opening perspective on the significance of maps in our daily lives Atlas of cultural and environmental change in arid Africa Olaf

Bubenzer, Andreas Bolten, Frank Darius, 2007-01-01 Mapping Reality Geoff King, 1996-04-12 An original and wide ranging study of the mappings used to impose meaning on the world Mapping Reality argues that maps create rather than merely represent the ground on which they rest Distinctions between map and territory questioned by some theorists of the postmodern have always been arbitrary From the history of cartography to the mappings of culture sexuality and nation Geoff King draws on an extensive range of materials including mappings imposed in the colonial settlement of America the Cold War Vietnam and the events since the collapse of the Soviet bloc He argues for a deconstruction of the opposition between map and territory to allow dominant mappings to be challenged their contours redrawn and new grids imposed
