Making Maps John Krygier, Denis Wood, 2024-11-08 Prized for its creative design original art and playful accessible writing Making Maps is now in a thoroughly updated fourth edition The text is restructured to emphasize the importance of the map making process All components of map making are covered and are brought to life in the expanded graphic novella threaded through the text Updates include new coverage of data aggregation artificial intelligence feminist and Indigenous perspectives map making workflow and more Design choices are emphasized and linked to the reasons for making a map Featuring more than 80 color illustrations and a unique layout the book includes an annotated map exemplar used throughout the text extensive map examples and a companion website New to This Edition New or expanded topics graduated symbol maps multivariate choropleth maps visual storytelling maps and gerrymandering artificial intelligence workflow and more Integration of practical ideas from Indigenous and feminist perspectives Coverage of color and type is shifted earlier in the book and the chapters on map symbolization and abstraction now conclude the book with many compelling new maps

Inefficient Mapping Linda Knight, 2021 Working from a speculative more than human ontological position Inefficient Mapping A Protocol for Attuning to Phenomena presents a new experimental cartographic practice and non representational methodological protocol that attunes to the subaltern genealogies of sites and places proposing a wayfaring practice for traversing the land founded on an ethics of care As a methodological protocol inefficient mapping inscribes the histories and politics of a place by gesturally marking affective and relational imprints of colonisation industrialisation appropriation histories futures exclusions privileges neglect survival and persistence Inefficient Mapping details a research experiment and is designed to be taken out on mapping expeditions to be referred to consulted with and experimented with by those who are familiar or new to mapping The inefficient mapping protocol described in this book is informed by feminist speculative and immanent theories including posthuman theories critical cultural theories Indigenous and critical place inquiry as well as the works of Karen Barad Erin Manning Jane Bennett Maria Puig de la Bellacassa Elizabeth Povinelli and Eve Tuck and Marcia McKenzie which frame how inefficient mapping attunes to the matter tenses and ontologies of phenomena and how the interweaving agglomerations of theory critique and practice can remain embedded in experimental methodologies Publisher's website Making Maps, Third Edition John Krygier, Denis Wood, 2016-08-02 Using a wealth of illustrations with 74 in full color to elucidate each concisely presented point the revised and updated third edition continues to emphasize how design choices relate to the reasons for making a map and its intended purpose All components of map making are covered titles labels legends visual hierarchy font selection how to turn phenomena into visual data data organization symbolization and more Back cover

Artistic Approaches to Cultural Mapping Nancy Duxbury, W.F. Garrett-Petts, Alys Longley, 2018-09-03 Making space for imagination can shift research and community planning from a reflective stance to a future forming orientation and practice Cultural mapping is an emerging discourse of collaborative community based inquiry and advocacy This book looks at artistic approaches to cultural mapping focusing on imaginative cartography It emphasizes the importance of creative process that engages with the felt sense of community experiences an element often missing from conventional mapping practices International artistic contributions in this book reveal the creative research practices and languages of artists a prerequisite to understanding the multi modal interface of cultural mapping The book examines how contemporary artistic approaches can challenge conventional asset mapping by animating and honouring the local giving voice and definition to the vernacular or recognizing the notion of place as inhabited by story and history It explores the processes of seeing and listening and the importance of the aesthetic as a key component of community self expression and self representation Innovative contributions in this book champion inclusion and experimentation expose unacknowledged power relations and catalyze identity formation through multiple modes of artistic representation and performance It will be a valuable resource for individuals involved with creative research methods performance and cultural mapping as well as social and urban planning

Literature and Cartography Anders Engberg-Pedersen, 2017-11-24 The relationship of texts and maps and the mappability of literature examined from Homer to Houellebecq Literary authors have frequently called on elements of cartography to ground fictional space to visualize sites and to help readers get their bearings in the imaginative world of the text Today the convergence of digital mapping and globalization has spurred a cartographic turn in literature This book gathers leading scholars to consider the relationship of literature and cartography Generously illustrated with full color maps and visualizations it offers the first systematic overview of an emerging approach to the study of literature The literary map is not merely an illustrative guide but represents a set of relations and tensions that raise questions about representation fiction and space Is literature even mappable In exploring the cartographic components of literature the contributors have not only brought literary theory to bear on the map but have also enriched the vocabulary and perspectives of literary studies with cartographic terms After establishing the theoretical and methodological terrain they trace important developments in the history of literary cartography considering topics that include Homer and Joyce Goethe and the representation of nature and African cartographies Finally they consider cartographic genres that reveal the broader connections between texts and maps discussing literary map genres in American literature and the coexistence of image and text in early maps When cartographic aspirations outstripped factual knowledge mapmakers turned to textual fictions Contributors Jean Marc Besse Bruno Bosteels Patrick M Bray Martin Br ckner Tom Conley J rg D nne Anders Engberg Pedersen John K Noyes Ricardo Padr n Barbara Piatti Simone Pinet Clara Rowland Oliver Simons Robert Stockhammer Dominic Thomas Burkhardt Wolf
