Red Planet From its very first sighting Mars has been a source of fascination for humanity Named for the Roman god of war this red planet has been explored more than any other beyond Earth and continues to occupy a distinctive place in our imagination It s an environment that may even foster life In The Book of Mars Dr Stuart Clark selects one hundred pieces of writing about the planet It is a collection that brings together fact and fiction dreams and fears centuries of observation and more recent feats of interstellar exploration From classic writers of science fiction Stanley G Weinbaum Arthur C Clarke H G Wells Ray Bradbury Pamela Sargent Roger Zelazny to distinguished experts in astronomy astrobiology and aerospace engineering from Hugo and Nebula Award winning authors Kim Stanley Robinson Mary Robinette Kowal to trail blazing journalists and science communicators from Andy Weir s The Martian to Elon Musk s SpaceX programme The Book of Mars is an extraordinary overview both of the Red Planet and of the way scientific investigation diffuses into culture

Fiction's Present R. M. Berry,Jeffrey R. Di Leo,2015-05-11 Combining creative and critical responses from some of today s most progressive and innovative novelists critics and theorists Fiction s Present adventurously engages the aesthetic political philosophical and cultural dimensions of contemporary fiction By juxtaposing scholarly articles with essays by practicing novelists the book takes up not only the current state of literature and its criticism but also connections between contemporary philosophy and contemporary fiction In doing so the contributors aim to provoke further discussion of the present inflection of fiction a present that can be seen as Janus faced looking both forward to the novel s radically changed political economic and technological circumstances and back to its history of achievements and problems Editors R M Berry and Jeffrey R Di Leo contend that examinations of fiction s present are most informative not when they defend philosophical distinctions or develop literary classifications but when they grapple with elusive topics such as the meaning of a narrative present or the relation of fiction s medium to its representations of context As the essays reveal this process when pursued diligently breaks down traditional divisions of academic and intellectual labor compelling the fiction writer to become more philosophical and the theorist to become more imaginative The value of this book is not in the exhaustiveness of its treatment but rather in the seriousness of the criticism it incites The present materializes in quarrel and it is toward such a beginning that the writings in Fiction s Present work

Streetwalking on a Ruined Map Giuliana Bruno,2021-06-08 Emphasizing the importance of cultural theory for film history Giuliana Bruno enriches our understanding of early Italian film as she guides us on a series of inferential walks through Italian culture in the first decades of this century This innovative approach the interweaving of examples of cinema with architecture art history medical discourse photography and literature addresses the challenge posed by feminism to film study while calling attention to marginalized artists An object of this critical remapping is Elvira Notari 1875 1946 Italy s first and most prolific woman filmmaker whose documentary style work on street life in Naples a forerunner of neorealism was popularly acclaimed in Italy and the United States until its suppression during the Fascist regime Since only fragments of Notari s films exist today Bruno illuminates the filmmaker s contributions to early Italian cinematography by evoking the cultural terrain in which she operated What emerges is an intertextual montage of urban film culture highlighting a woman's view on love violence poverty desire and death This panorama ranges from the city's exteriors to the body's interiors Reclaiming an alternative history of women's filmmaking and reception Bruno draws a cultural history that persuasively argues for a spatial corporal interpretation of film language Rendering Techniques 2000 B. Peroche,H. Rushmeier,2013-11-11 This book contains the proceedings of the 11th Eurographics Workshop on Rendering which took place from the 26th to the 28th of June 2000 in Brno Czech Republic Over the past 10 years the Workshop has become the premier forum dedicated to research in rendering Much of the work in rendering now appearing in other conferences and journals builds on ideas originally presented at the Workshop This year we received a total of 84 submissions Bachpaper was carefully reviewed by two of the 25 international programme committee members as well as external reviewers selected by the co chairs from a pool of 121 individuals The programme committee and external reviewers are listed following the contents pages In this review process all submissions and reviews were handled electronically with the exception of videos submitted with a few of the papers however some mpeg movies were also sent electronically The overall quality of the submissions was exceptionally high Space and time constraints forced the committee to make some difficult decisions In the end 33 papers were accepted and they appear here Almost all papers are accompanied by color images which appear at the end of the book The papers treat the following varied topics radiosity ray tracing methods for global illumination visibility reflectance filtering perception hardware assisted methods real time rendering modeling for efficient rendering and new image representations How to Cheat in Motion Patrick Sheffield,2013-05-02 Creative solutions without the filler That is what you get from this practical guide to enhancing your titles motion graphics and visual effects with Motion Step by step instruction is concisely described and lavishly illustrated The companion CD shows the techniques at work so you can take them and run Catalogue of Title Entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Register of Copyrights, Library of Congress, at Washington, D.C.
