The Character of Human Institutions Michael Egan, 2017-07-28 This volume celebrates the life and work of Robin Fox and the idea of a biosocial science From his early studies of kinship primates the brain evolution the incest taboo and aggression to his later work on literature politics civilization law the Bible Shakespeare and the history of ideas Robin Fox inspired many with an evolutionary vision of humanity that goes beyond narrow disciplinary boundaries and embraces the universal history of mankind Fox's work represents an independent biosocial science stream of thinking that accepts the Darwinian mandate while avoiding reductionism by recognizing culture as a natural phenomenon The essays cover Fox's life and his contributions and address topics as diverse as the meaning and function of laughter the unforgiving discipline of writing popular anthropology extreme drinking rituals among young men training for the British army Darwin and close cousin marriage the universal essence of the epic form as a super attractor anthropologists autobiographies the conflict between science and anti science and the decline of British imperial education This engaging collection on a mainstream maverick has been edited by Michael Egan It includes essays by Sir Antony Jay Lionel Tiger Howard Bloom Michael McGuire Kate Fox Melvin Konner Alan Macfarlane Adam Kuper Dieter Steklis Alexandra Maryanski Bernard Chapais Jonathan Turner Linda Stone Charles Macdonald Anne Fox David Jenkins Frederick Turner Robert Trivers and an essay by Robin Fox himself

Searchers, Seers, and Shakers James A. Schellenberg, 2017-07-28 This volume offers intellectual portraits of eleven giants of the modern social sciences It is bound by two central themes The first is that there is a fundamental unity behind the various forms of social science There is a general social science as well as a variety of social science disciplines The second theme is that a biographical approach is a useful tool for making clear some of the central ideas of social science By looking at the lives and achievements of selected masters we should be better able to understand the fundamental nature or natures of social science In order to determine which figures should be regarded as masters Schellenberg defines the three main kinds of work he sees as central for social science First is the work of basic discovery done by searchers who made especially important contributions to empirical work in the social sciences The persons he selected for special treatment here are Louis Leakey Mary Leakey Margaret Mead and B F Skinner He then considers the work of theory choosing for examination seers who had made especially important theoretical contributions John Dewey Talcott Parsons and Kenneth Boulding Schellenberg next examines those social scientists who worked to seek changes in society These were the shakers or social reformers In Schellenberg s view these come in three main subtypes and he sought to include at least one example of each Gunnar Myrdal and Alva Myrdal as social engineers C Wright Mills as a rebellious social critic and Daniel Patrick Moynihan as one whose contribution was made more directly into the world of politics Schellenberg s exploration of the lives of these eleven masters of twentieth century social science reveals many surprises and ironies While he points out major contributions he also has felt free to make criticisms As he has said These were all real persons with failings and foibles as well as persons of great achievement I felt that the examination of

An Atomic Love Story Shirley Streshinsky, Patricia Klaus, 2013-10-23 A gripping narrative of the love and betrayal of J Robert Oppenheimer told through the lives of three unique women Set against a dramatic backdrop of war spies and nuclear bombs An Atomic Love Story unveils a vivid new view of a tumultuous era and one of its most important figures In the early decades of the 20th century three highly ambitious women found their way to the West Coast where each was destined to collide with the young Oppenheimer the enigmatic physicist whose work in creating the atomic bomb would forever impact modern history His first and most intense love was for Jean Tatlock though he married the tempestuous Kitty Harrison both were members of the Communist Party and was rumored to have had a scandalous affair with the brilliant Ruth Sherman Tolman ten years his senior and the wife of another celebrated physicist Although each were connected through their relationship to Oppenheimer their experiences reflect important changes in the lives of American women in the 20th century the conflict between career and marriage the need for a woman to define herself independently experimentation with sexuality and the growth of career opportunities Beautifully written and superbly researched through a rich collection of firsthand accounts this intimate portrait shares the tragedies betrayals and romances of an alluring man and three bold women revealing how they pushed to the very forefront of social and cultural changes in a fascinating volatile era

Bali and the Tourist Industry David Shavit, 2019-07-18 The island of Bali's sensational image was created by the tourists artists and scholars who visited the tiny nation between the two world wars A Dutch colony from 1908 Bali was a source of revenue for the Dutch government which began to develop its image as the ultimate vacation spot The tourism industry spread the idea of Bali as a paradise in which noble happy spiritual Balinese all prodigiously creative artists lived in innocence Sensual images of beautiful people on an enchanted isle unspoiled by modernity predominated Bali also acquired a reputation as a homosexual paradise A host of books and articles fed these images of Bali until it evolved into one of the most romantic stops on the tourist itinerary The Balinese people however made little profit from the tourist traffic This history of the development of tourism in Bali stretches from the Dutch occupation in 1906 to the Japanese occupation in 1942 After exhaustive research in published records and in unpublished letters diaries and oral histories left by many of the American and European visitors to the island as well as the Balinese residents the author explores the reasons for Bali's popularity among Westerners and their effects on the native culture

A-Z Guide to Modern Social and Political Theorists Professor Stuart Sim, Noel Parker, 2014-06-03 The A Z Guide to Modern Social and Political Theories is a companion volume to the already published A Z Guide to Modern Literary and Cultural Theorists It ranges widely through the social sciences and related areas to identify thinkers who have had a major impact on the development of modern social and political theory and given clear accessible summaries of their work While the accent is on the later twentieth century several up and coming theorists are included to ensure a contemporary edge to the volume classic names in the field from the earlier twentieth century are not neglected and the collection also delves back into the nineteenth century for such founding figures of the social sciences as Marx and Comte The volume is therefore both up to date and mindful of the sources of modern debates

Women Lead the Way Linda Tarr-Whelan, 2009-10-12 Offers practical steps for women to bring their passion brains and background to the power tables and make life better for themselves their company or organization and global society Combines compelling research international experience and fascinating personal stories with solid advice Tarr Whelan has extensive background as a business woman a government official a non profit leader and a nurse A few first women are making key decisions in high places but a few is not enough to have a significant impact Changing what gets decided takes changing who makes the decisions But with just 17% of Congressional seats and 14% of Fortune 500 board seats held by women the leaders defining priorities and solutions continue to look and act much the same as generations ago Linda Tarr Whelan marshals eye opening facts and figures to decisively dispel the myths that still hold women back and shows women how to build their confidence and skills to pioneer a distinctive approach to leadership one that emphasizes collaboration communication and consensus The proven tipping point surprisingly is just 30% when women s representation at the top reaches 30% real change starts to happen Drawing on her extraordinarily diverse background as a consultant organizer and diplomat Tarr Whelan offers a women led strategy for change and a complete set of practical road tested tools readers can use to become powerful partners in creating a better future in a rapidly changing world Closing the leadership gap is a win for everyone it brings in new ideas creates a more balanced and productive work environment a revitalized social compact and demonstrable positive effects on the bottom line in business and government Women Lead the Way artfully combines advocacy research and tactical guidance to help readers wedge the door open and bring more women through and up

Holisms of communication James McElvenny, Andrea Ploder, 2021-08-03 A central pillar of contemporary communication research is the analysis of filmed interactions between people The techniques employed in such analysis first took on a recognizably modern form in the 1970s but their roots go back to the earliest days of motion picture technology in the late nineteenth century This book presents original essays accompanied by written responses which together create a dialogue exploring early efforts at audio visual sequence analysis and their common goal to capture the whole of the communicative situation The first three chapters of this volume look at the film based research of Gestalt psychologists in Berlin as well as psychologists in the orbit of Karl and Charlotte B hler in Vienna in the first decades of the twentieth century Most of these figures along with many other Central European scholars of this era were driven into exile in the United States after the rise of National Socialism in the 1930s This scientific migration led to the cross pollination of communication studies in America an outcome visible in the leading project in interaction research of the mid twentieth century the Natural History of an Interview The following two chapters examine this project in its historical context The volume closes with a critical edition of a treasure from the archives the transcript of a speech delivered by Ray Birdwhistell a key participant in the Natural History of an Interview project and founder of kinesics

Rachel Carson Linda Lear,2009-04-01 The authoritative biography of the marine biologist and nature writer whose book Silent Spring inspired the global environmentalist movement In a career that spanned from civil service to unlikely literary celebrity Rachel Carson became one of the world s seminal leaders in conservation The 1962 publication of her book Silent Spring was a watershed event that led to the banning of DDT and launched the modern environmental movement Growing up in poverty on a tiny Allegheny River farm Carson attended the Pennsylvania College for Women on a scholarship There she studied science and writing before taking a job with the newly emerging Fish and Wildlife Service In this definitive biography Linda Lear traces the evolution of Carson s private professional and public lives from the origins of her dedication to natural science to her invaluable service as a brilliant if reluctant reformer Drawing on unprecedented access to sources and interviews Lear masterfully explores the roots of Carson s powerful connection to the natural world crafting a fine portrait of the environmentalist as a human being Smithsonian Impressively researched and eminently readable Compelling not just for Carson devotees but for anyone concerned about the environment People A combination of meticulous scholarship and thoughtful often poignant writing Science A sweeping analytic first class biography of Rachel Carson Kirkus Reviews

Fieldworks Lytle Shaw,2013-01-22 Fieldworks offers a historical account of the social rhetorical and material attempts to ground art and poetry in the physicality of a site Arguing that place oriented inquiries allowed poets and artists to develop new experimental models of historiography and ethnography Lytle Shaw draws out the shifting terms of this practice from World War II to the present through a series of illuminating case studies Beginning with the alternate national genealogies unearthed by William Carlos Williams in Paterson and Charles Olson in Gloucester Shaw demonstrates how subsequent poets sought to ground such inquiries in concrete social formations to in effect live the poetics of place Gary Snyder in his back to the land familial compound Kitkitdizze Amiri Baraka in a black nationalist community in Newark Robert Creeley and the poets of Bolinas California in the capacious now of their poet run town Turning to the work of Robert Smithson who called one of his essays an appendix to Paterson and who in turn has exerted a major influence on poets since the 1970s Shaw then traces the emergence of site specific art in relation both to the poetics of place and to the larger linguistic turn in the humanities considering poets including Clark Coolidge Bernadette Mayer and Lisa Robertson By putting the poetics of place into dialog with site specificity in art Shaw demonstrates how poets and artists became experimental explicators not just of concrete locations and their histories but of the discourses used to interpret sites more broadly It is this dual sense of fieldwork that organizes Shaw s groundbreaking history of site specific poetry Flawed Light Brett C. Millier,2009

Women poets who found both inspiration and isolation at the bottom of the glass What the Great Ate Matthew Jacob, Mark Jacob, 2010 A lighthearted pop history of the diets of celebrities and famous historical figures shares whimsical anecdotes including Angelina Jolie's consumption of roaches and Lord Byron's vinegar weight loss regime Fieldnotes Roger Sanjek, 2019-06-30 Thirteen distinguished anthropologists describe how they create and use the unique forms of writing they produce in the field They also discuss the fieldnotes of seminal figures Frank Cushing Franz Boas W H R Rivers Bronislaw Malinowski and Margaret Mead and analyze field writings in relation to other types of texts especially ethnographies Unique in conception this volume contributes importantly to current debates on writing texts and reflexivity in anthropology
