Marginality And Exclusion In Egypt:

Marginality and Exclusion in Egypt Ray Bush, Habib Ayeb, 2012-06-14 What does it mean to be marginalized Is it a passive condition that the disadvantaged simply have to endure Or is it a manufactured label reproduced and by its nature transitory In the wake of the new uprising in Egypt this insightful collection explores issues of power politics and inequality in Egypt and the Middle East It argues that the notion of marginality tends to mask the true power relations that perpetuate poverty and exclusion It is these dynamic processes of political and economic transformation that need explanation The book provides a revealing analysis of key areas of Egyptian political economy such as labour urbanization and the creation of slums disability refugees street children and agrarian livelihoods reaching the impactful conclusion that marginalization does not mean total exclusion What is marginalized can be called upon to play a dynamic part in the future as is the case with the revolution that toppled President Mubarak

Crisis and Class War in Egypt Sean F. McMahon, 2016-10-15 In 2011 capital's crisis erupted in Egyptian society This eruption and subsequent politics have been misrepresented as revolutionary as the working class was and is increasingly so devalued and disempowered In Crisis and Class War in Egypt Sean F McMahon critically analyses Egypt's recent political history He argues that the so called revolution was the appearance of capital's destruction of the value of the Egyptian working class and an existential crisis for capital In response productive capital in the form of the military used disposed of and replaced its junior partners in governing first the predatory capital of the Mubarak state with the commodity capital of the Muslim Brotherhood and then commodity capital with the finance capital of the Gulf Cooperation Council These reconfigurations have been expressed in all manner of reactionary governmental arrangements including constitutions legislation and currency reform Extending today's analysis into the near future McMahon sees the war of Egyptian society intensifying and increasingly violent lives for Egyptian workers

Revolution as a Process Adham Hamed, 2014-06-16 As Egyptian society stands at a point of extreme polarization this book about the Egyptian Revolution makes an important contribution to current debates about the Arab uprisings by bringing together theoretical and practitioner's perspectives The clear aim of this edited volume of the series Contemporary Studies on the MENA Region is not to construct a singular narrative about the revolution but rather to highlight the multiplicity and complexity of perspectives and theoretical lenses. Consequently, this book brings together authors from diverse academic and cultural backgrounds from the Middle East and the Global North to raise their voices. This publication addresses scholars of the social sciences, peace and conflict research, as well as anyone interested in developing a better understanding of the political situation in Egypt. It is rather easy to say no to a dictator, a ruler, or a political system, but it is exhausting to build a new society. This requires the constant effort of dedicated generations. This book embraces not a master plan for a better future but it reflects from where this splendid young generation has to start anyway, the thorny challenges that are waiting for them on their path, the uncertainty of social or political reward.

Professor Dr. Wolfgang Dietrich, Director UNESCO Chair for Peace Studies, University of Innsbruck, Adham Hamed is a Cairo-based peace and conflict researcher. In his work, he focuses on transnational peace philosophy and elicitive conflict transformation as it has been developed at the Innsbruck School of Peace Studies.

The People Want Gilbert Achcar, 2013-09-03. The sponsoring of the Muslim Brotherhood by the Emirate of Qatar and its influential satellite channel Al Jazeera contributed to shaping the prelude to the uprising. But the explosion's deep roots, asserts Achcar, mean that what happened until now is but the beginning of a revolutionary process likely to extend for many more years to come. The author identifies the actors and dynamics of the revolutionary process, the role of various social and political movements, the emergence of young actors making intensive use of new information and communication technologies, and the nature of power elites and existing state apparatuses that determine different conditions for regime overthrow in each case. Drawing a balance sheet of the uprising in the countries that have been most affected by it until now, i.e. Tunisia, Egypt, Yemen, Bahrain, Libya, and Syria, Achcar sheds special light on the nature and role of the movements that use Islam as a political banner.

Tahrir's Youth Rusha Latif, 2022-06-28. A gripping in-depth account of the 2011 Egyptian revolution through the eyes of its youthful vanguard. January 25, 2011, was a watershed moment for Egypt and a transformative experience for the young men and women who changed the course of their nation's history. Tahrir's Youth tells the story of the organized youth behind the mass uprising that brought about the spectacular collapse of the Mubarak regime. Who were these activists? What did they want? How did the movement they unleashed shape them as it unfolded, and why did it ultimately fall short of its goals? Rusha Latif follows the trajectory of the movement from the perspective of the Revolutionary Youth Coalition (RYC), a key front forged in Tahrir Square during the early days of the revolt. Drawing on firsthand testimonies and her own direct experience, she offers insight into the motives, hopes, strategies, successes, failures, and disillusionments of the movement's leaders. Her account details the challenges these activists faced as they attempted to steer the movement they had set in motion and highlights the factors leading to their struggle's defeat despite its initial promise. Tahrir's Youth questions the belief that Egypt's revolution was spontaneous and leaderless. Timely and necessary, this study not only illuminates the uprising's leadership dynamics but also demonstrates the need for imagining new modes of revolutionary organizing for the twenty first century

Crisis and Conflict in Agriculture Rami Zurayk, Eckart Woertz, Rachel Bahn, 2018-09-18 This volume sets out to explore the dialectic relating agriculture crisis and conflict and attempts to expand the knowledge on these interactions Part 1 of the volume chapters 1-6 discusses thematic issues and methodological approaches to understanding the intersection of agriculture crisis and conflict Part 2 chapters 7-20 provides case studies that take a detailed approach to understanding agricultural contexts facing crisis and conflict or the role played by agriculture within crisis and conflict Studies are selected from areas that might be expected to feature in such a volume the Middle East and North Africa sub Saharan Africa South and Southeast Asia and Latin America as well as less obvious regions where conflict within agriculture refers not to widespread violence or wars but rather latent or simmering crisis Central Asia and Europe Crises stemming from politically driven violence natural disasters and climate change are covered as well as competition over resources

Migration and Agriculture Alessandra Corrado, Carlos de Castro, Domenico Perrotta, 2016-07-28 In recent years Mediterranean agriculture has experienced important transformations which have led to new forms of labour and production and in particular to a surge in the recruitment of migrant labour The Mediterranean Basin represents a very interesting arena that is able to illustrate labour conditions and mobility the competition among different farming models and the consequences in terms of the proletarianization process food crisis and diet changes Migration and Agriculture brings together international contributors from across several disciplines to describe and analyse labour conditions and international migrations in relation to agri food restructuring processes This unique collection of articles connects migration issues with the proletarianization process and agrarian transitions that have affected Southern European as well as some Middle Eastern and Northern African countries in different ways The chapters present case studies from a range of territories in the Mediterranean Basin offering empirical data and theoretical analysis in order to grasp the complexity of the processes that are occurring This book offers a uniquely comprehensive overview of migrations territories and agro food production in this key region and will be an indispensable resource to scholars in migration studies rural sociology social geography and the political economy of agriculture

Confronting Crisis and Precariousness Stefan Schmalz, Brandon Sommer, 2019-07-24 The 2008 global financial crisis and the subsequent Eurozone crisis triggered dramatic changes in European labour relations Unemployment and precariousness increased considerably This was further exacerbated by austerity measures leading to declining minimum wages and layoffs in the public sector These structural changes varied considerably by country but collectively pose challenges to organized labour as they confront neoliberal restructuring Concurrently recent social struggles continue to develop with unemployed and precarious workers playing a major role as protest actors Focusing on the triangular relationship of precariousness trade unions and social movements this book draws on a range of exciting cases both comparative and country case studies in order to understand how the shadow of the crisis still haunts organized labour in Europe The chapters in this collection each offer a unique perspective on how the results of the crisis in Western Southern and Eastern Europe are leading to a variety of new social movements as a consequence of increased precariousness and also how trade unions are attempting to respond

The Oxford Handbook of Peaceful Assembly Abu El-Haj, Oxford Handbooks, Michael Hamilton, Thomas Probert, Sharath Srinivasan, 2025 The Oxford Handbook of Peaceful Assembly brings together a diverse and multidisciplinary range of experts to provide a critical international overview of the topic It breaks new ground by interrogating key dilemmas relating to the value scope and legal protection of peaceful assembly offering critically needed analysis on assembly qua assembly

Food Insecurity and Revolution in the Middle East and North Africa Habib Ayeb, Ray Bush, 2019-09-30 Food Insecurity and Revolution in the Middle East and North Africa studies the political economy of agrarian transformation in the eponymous regions Examining Egypt and Tunisia in detail as case studies it critiques the dominant tropes of food security offered by the international financial institutions and promotes the importance of small scale family farming in developing sustainable food sovereignty Egypt and Tunisia are located in the context of the broader Middle East and broader processes of war environmental transformation and economic reform The book contributes to uncovering the historical backdrop and contemporary pressures in the Middle East and North Africa for the uprisings of 2010 and 2011 It also explores the continued failure of post uprising counter revolutionary governments to directly address issues of rural development that put the position and role of small farmers centre stage

Entrapping Asylum Seekers Francesco Vecchio, Alison Gerard, 2018-02-08 This book is an interdisciplinary attempt to understand the contemporaneous human condition of asylum seekers through analysis of their entrapment and the resultant new forms of resistance that have emerged to combat it Based on qualitative research data the chapters support the claim that asylum seekers are entrapped in social legal and economic precariousness amidst the complex relationship between individual agency and social structure By exploring the practices and lived experiences of asylum seekers and other parties involved in their migration and reception the authors explore the structural and individual agency factors that entrap asylum seekers in precarious livelihoods and lead to marginalization and social exclusion A bold and timely study this edited collection will be essential reading for academics and students of criminology sociology anthropology urban studies and social policy

Black Markets and Militants Khalid Mustafa Medani, 2022-09-08 Understanding the political and socio economic factors which give rise to youth recruitment into militant organizations is central to grasping some of the most important issues that affect the contemporary Middle East and Africa In this book Khalid Mustafa Medani explains why youth are attracted to militant organizations examining the specific role economic globalization plays in determining how and why militant activists emerge Based on extensive fieldwork Medani offers an in depth analysis of the impact of globalization neoliberal reforms and informal economic networks on the rise and evolution of moderate and militant Islamist movements In an original contribution to the study of Islamist and ethnic politics he shows the importance of understanding when and under what conditions religious rather than other forms of identity become politically salient This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

Gender and the Making of Modern Medicine in Colonial Egypt Hibba Abugideiri, 2016-04-15 Gender and the Making of Modern Medicine in Colonial Egypt investigates the use of medicine as a tool of empire to serve the state building process in Egypt by the British colonial administration It argues that the colonial state effectively transformed Egyptian medical practice and medical knowledge in ways that were decidedly gendered On the one hand women medical professionals who had once trained as doctresses hakimas were now restricted in their medical training and therefore saw their social status decline despite colonial modernity's promise of progress On the other hand the introduction of colonial medicine gendered Egyptian medicine in ways that privileged men and masculinity Far from being totalized colonial subjects Egyptian doctors paradoxically reappropriated aspects of Victorian science to forge an anticolonial nationalist discourse premised on the Egyptian woman as mother of the nation By relegating Egyptian women whether as midwives or housewives to maternal roles in the home colonial medicine was determinative in diminishing what control women formerly exercised over their profession homes and bodies through its medical dictates to care for others By interrogating how colonial medicine was constituted Hibba Abugideiri reveals how the rise of the modern state configured the social formation of native elites in ways directly tied to the formation of modern gender identities and gender inequalities in colonial Egypt

Urban Informality Ahmed M. Soliman, 2021-04-26 This professional book introduces an analytical framework of urban informality perspectives in the Middle East that is aligned with the Global South The context of Egypt Lebanon and Jordan in the Middle East is the transregional focus of this book In these contexts the book opens a new arena of academic discussion on the theory and practice of urban informality Urban Informality Experiences and Urban Sustainability Transitions in Middle East Cities questions urban informality as a site of transitions interrelated and interlinked with urban sustainability transitions in speedy changes in a given environment The book presents urban informality sustainability transitions regarding resilience and adaptability that require shifts in urban systems Shifts from a static process to a dynamic process that eradicates the fragmentation between the tensions anxieties and pressures of four modes of production reproduction consumptions and distribution of goods and services in the city and its practices Finally through eleven chapters the concluding remarks explore to what extent and how can urban informality transitions be sustainable

The Unmaking of Arab Socialism Ali Kadri, 2016-10-01 Conditions of malnutrition conflict or a combination of both characterize many Arab countries but this was not always so As in much of the developing world the immediate post independence period represented an age of hope and relative prosperity But imperialism did not sleep while these countries developed and it soon intervened to destroy these post independence achievements The two principal defeats and losses of territory to Israel in 1967 and 1973 as well as the others that followed left in their wake more than the destruction of assets and the loss of human lives the Arab World lost its ideology of resistance The Unmaking of Arab Socialism is an attempt to understand the reasons for Arab world s developmental descent from the pinnacle of Arab socialism to its present desolate conditions through an examination of the post colonial histories of Egypt Syria and Iraq

The Crisis of Citizenship in the Arab World, 2017-04-24 The Crisis of Citizenship in the Arab World argues that the present crisis of the Arab world has its origins in the historical legal and political development of state citizen relations since the beginning of modern history in the Middle East and North Africa The anthology covers three main topics Part I focuses on the crisis of the social pact in different Arab countries as it became manifest during the Arab Uprisings Part II concentrates on concepts of citizenship in Islamic doctrine Islamic movements Muslim Brotherhood and Salafism secular political movements and Arab thinkers Part III looks into the practices that support the claims to equal rights as well as the factors that have obstructed full citizen rights such as patronage and clientelism Contributors are Ida Almestad Claire Beaugrand Assia Boutaleb Michaëlle Browers Nils Butensch n Anthony Gorman Raymond Hinnebusch Engin F Isin Rania Maktabi Roel Meijer Emin Poljarevic Ola Rifai James Sater Rachel Scott Jakob Skovgaard Petersen Robert Springborg Stig Stenslie Morten Valbj rn Knut S Vik r and Sami Zemni

The Food Question in the Middle East Malak S. Rouchdy, Iman A. Hamdy, 2017-10-01 In recent years the food question has been a central concern for politicians economists international organizations activists and NGOs alike as well as social scientists at large This interest has emerged from the global food crisis and its impact on the environment and the political economy and security of the global south as well as the expansion of scholarly studies relating food issues to agrarian questions with the objective of developing theoretical frameworks that would allow for a critical analysis of the current food issues at historical cultural social political and economic levels In this context Cairo Papers organized its 2016 symposium around the food question in the Middle East Papers in this collection address the food question from both its food and agricultural aspects and approach it as the site of political and economic conflicts as the means of sociocultural control and distinction and as the expression of national and ethnic identities Contributors Ellis Goldberg Saker ElNour Hala Barakat Khaled Mansour Malak S Rouchdy Habib Ayeb Christian Handerson Sara Pozzi and Sara El Sayed Charity in Saudi Arabia Nora Derbal,2022-07-28 An innovative study of charity practices in Saudi Arabia focusing on ordinary Saudis who provide charity to the poor and needy
