Sustainable Fashion, Migrants, Embroidery Alessandra Lopez y Royo,2024-07-11 Sustainable Fashion Migrants Embroidery Ateliers of Social Integration tells of community led solidarity ateliers engaged in sewing and embroidery activities which in the Global North and Global South are providing a vital alternative to neoliberal and neo colonial fashion paradigms On encountering several ateliers solidaires sartorie sociali during her immersive fieldwork for which she travelled to Morocco and Southern Italy and contrasting her findings with her knowledge of parallel and analogous initiatives in London Alessandra Lopez y Royo suggests that despite their different outlook and approach these ateliers can be inscribed within an ever growing economy of solidarity and sharing With a uniquely combined focus on sustainability fashion and migration Lopez y Royo examines how the ateliers foreground a powerful social inclusion agenda encouraging migrants and refugees to collaborate exchange knowledge and foster communities on a level playing field with locals Questioning widely accepted notions of empowerment and social integration and drawing on her background in archaeology and material culture studies Lopez y Royo uses micro studies to illuminate a broader path to a more inclusive sustainable and socially conscious industry presenting a fresh perspective on repurposing and upcycling In a world grappling with the need to shift away from fast fashion s wasteful practices this thought provoking exploration shows how slow growth solidarity ateliers can challenge the widely accepted notions of both fashion and social integration
