Marilyn by Magnum Gerry Badger, 2012. Photographs of Marilyn Monroe taken by members of the collective Magnum Photos. Marilyn Monroe Bert Stern, Annie Gottlieb, 1992. Bert Stern, the famous commercial and fashion photographer of the 60s, was the last to be granted a sitting by Marilyn Monroe six weeks before her tragic death. The three-day session yielded nearly 2,600 pictures: fashion portrait and nude studies of indescribable sensual and human vibrancy of which no more than 20 were published. And yet these few photographs inextricably shaped our image of Marilyn Monroe. This book presents the complete set of 2,571 photos. The monumental body of work by the master photographer and the Hollywood actress marks a climax in the history of star photography both in quantity and quality. It is a unique affirmation of the erotic dimension of photography and the eroticism of taking photos, and it is the world's finest and largest tribute to Marilyn Monroe. Marilyn Ed Feingersh, Bob LaBrasca, 1996. En 1987, un archiviste américain trouve chez un entrepreneur de New York tout un lot de négatifs sur Marilyn pour la plupart inédits. Parcours invraisemblable pour ces photographies exceptionnelles réalisées par Ed Feingersh en 1954. Il avait en effet été autorisé dans le cadre d'un reportage suivre la star huit jours durant la photographiant dans sa vie quotidienne au restaurant, dans le métro, lors d'un gala. Il réussit alors à capter l'image d'une autre Marilyn, sans fard ni artifice, si différente des milliers de photographies prises d'elle jusque-là. Il fixe sur la pellicule l'image mouvante d'une femme radieuse, fascinante et infiniment désirable. L'aube de la popriété la plus faste de sa vie.

Life in Pictures: Marilyn Monroe Marie Clayton, 2011. Life in Pictures: Marilyn Monroe documents Marilyn's fascinating life in full with a collection of photographs that cover her early years as a photographer's model, her iconic movies, and her personal life up to her untimely death in 1962.

Marilyn Monroe Bert Stern, 2000-10-01. The more than 2,500 shots that make up this monumental classic tribute to actress Marilyn Monroe were taken by renowned fashion photographer Bert Stern over the course of a three-day sitting. The last time Marilyn would pose in front of a camera. Six weeks later the actress was found dead in her home. Even despite the ominous facts surrounding this sitting, the images it produced project a haunting, almost dreamlike quality unlike any photographs ever taken of the starlet. In front of the camera Marilyn was known to possess an incredible chameleon-like ability to transform herself into whatever role she was meant to play. In these pages she is goddess, siren, child, woman, femme fatale, and dream date. Yet there is an air of desperation about these photos as well. In his fascinating foreword to the book Bert Stern looks back on that momentous sitting, offering a revealing, naked portrait of Marilyn, the person of a vulnerable, confused woman who, although at the apex of her career, had relinquished control of her life and of the fashion world of the early 1960s with its new openness towards drugs, sex, and art. From the glamorous, sophisticated photos which Vogue would publish in a black and white memorial spread to the less restrained color shots which Stern coaxed out of Marilyn during an intense, exhausting session, this collection covers nearly every aspect of modern photography: portraiture, fashion, driven, erotic, and artistic. But more than a comprehensive display of Stern's immeasurable talents, these photographs combine to create an homage to America's first goddess, a woman we invented but whom we could never really know.

Milton's Marilyn James Kotsilibas-Davis, Milton H. Greene, 1998. Celebrity photographer Milton H. Greene was Marilyn Monroe's confidante, business partner, and dear friend for many years. His pictures collected here reflect the many moods of a woman who was as simply beautiful as she was deeply complicated. 109 color illustrations, 105 duotones.
