Massacre of the Dreamers Ana Castillo, 2014-12-01 Gustavus Myers Outstanding Book Award from the Gustavus Myers Center for the Study of Bigotry and Human Rights This new edition of an immensely influential book gives voice to Mexican Amerindian women silenced for hundreds of years by the dual censorship of being female and indigenous Castillo replaced the term Chicana feminism with Xicanisma to include mestiza women on both sides of the border In history myth interviews and ethnography Castillo revisits her reflections on Chicana activism spiritual practices sexual attitudes artistic ideology labor struggles and education related battles Her book remains a compelling document enhanced here with a new afterword that reexamines the significance of Our Lady of Guadalupe Ecological and Social Healing Jeanine M. Canty, 2025-04-03 A compendium of diverse women and nonbinary femmes the second expanded edition of this book highlights the contributors' journeys with straddling social and ecological issues through both their professional and personal paths and reveals how straddling these edges has surfaced new learning models and practices for collective healing The contributors span multiple generations and positionalities and are prominent academics writers teachers artists leaders and healers Ecological and Social Healing is rooted in the power of integrating multiple and often conflicting views and the transformations that result This book is rooted in academic theory as well as personal and professional experience and highlights emerging models and insights It will appeal to those working teaching and learning in the fields of social justice environmental issues women and gender studies animal rights ecopsychology spirituality transformative studies transdisciplinarity leadership and interdisciplinary intersectionality studies as well as anyone straddling the boundaries of gender race ecology and the crises of our times and are looking for new ways of being Self Help Graphics at Fifty Tatiana Reinoza, Karen Mary Davalos, 2023-04-25 Self Help Graphics at Fifty celebrates the ongoing legacy of an institution which had profound aesthetic economic and political impact on the formation of Chicanx and Latinx art in the United States Officially launched in 1973 during the Chicano Movement by Italian American Franciscan nun and artist Sister Karen Bocalero and queer Mexican artists Carlos Bueno and Antonio Ibañez Self Help Graphics served on the cultural front of the movement The institution's commitments to art dignity for all and pride in ethnic heritage appear in every aspect of programming including the Día de los Muertos festival the Barrio Mobile Art Studio which brings art education to underserved schools and the printmaking program which offers an accessible medium infused with activist aims Looking at the multiple genealogies of art that intersect in East Los Angeles Self Help Graphics at Fifty bears witness to the organization's influential role in US and global art histories A History of Twentieth-Century American Women's Poetry Linda A. Kinnahan, 2016-06-20 A History of Twentieth Century American Women's Poetry explores the genealogy of modern American verse by women from the early twentieth century to the millennium Beginning with an extensive introduction that charts important theoretical contributions to the field this History includes wide ranging essays that illuminate the legacy of American women poets Organized

thematically these essays survey the multilayered verse of such diverse poets as Edna St Vincent Millay Marianne Moore Anne Sexton Adrienne Rich and Audre Lorde Written by a host of leading scholars this History also devotes special attention to the lasting significance of feminist literary criticism This book is of pivotal importance to the development of women s poetry in America and will serve as an invaluable reference for specialists and students alike Beyond Text Jennifer Buckley,2019-10-09 Taking up the work of prominent theater and performance artists Beyond Text reveals the audacity and beauty of avant garde performance in print With extended analyses of the works of Edward Gordon Craig German expressionist Lothar Schreyer the Living Theatre Carolee Schneemann and Guillermo Gomez Pea the book shows how live performance and print aesthetically revived one another during a period in which both were supposed to be in a state of terminal cultural decline While the European and American avant gardes did indeed dismiss the dramatic author they also adopted print as a theatrical medium altering the status form and function of text and image in ways that continue to impact both the performing arts and the book arts Beyond Text participates in the ongoing critical effort to unsettle conventional historical and theoretical accounts of text performance relations which have too often been figured in binary chronological form from page to stage or hierarchical terms Across five case studies spanning twelve decades Beyond Text demonstrates that print as noun and verb has been integral to the practices of modern and contemporary theater and performance artists

Women in Culture Bonnie Kime Scott,Susan E. Cayleff,Anne Donadey,Irene Lara,2016-06-16 The thoroughly revised Women in Culture 2 e explores the intersections of gender race sexuality gender identity and spirituality from the perspectives of diverse global locations Its strong humanities content including illustrations and creative writing uniquely embraces the creative aspects of the field Each of the ten thematic chapters lead to creative readings introducing a more Readings throughout the text encourage intersectional thinking amongst students humanistic angle than is typical of textbooks in the field This textbook is queer inclusive and allows students to engage with postcolonial decolonial thinking spirituality and reproductive environmental justice A detailed timeline of feminist history criticism and theory is provided and the glossary encourages the development of critical vocabulary A variety of illustrations supplement the written materials and an accompanying website offers instructors pedagogical resources Channeling Knowledges Rebeca L.
