

What Makes Other Mastermind Groups Successful

When deciding to form your own mastermind group, it's important not to discount the tried and true methods of successful, long-running groups. The best mastermind groups have consistent attendance, many aggregate years of experience, and members that genuinely want to help each other succeed.

Be sure that everyone in your group is able to articulate points without infringing on others' time to speak. Each member should feel that his or her opinions are valued, but no one member should dominate the group. As the founder of the group, you can help set the tone for respectful, fruitful discussion and dialogue.
