Davis,2010-05-21 Concise Vivid Honest Dan Barker critically acclaimed author of Godless and Losing Faith in Faith Brutally honest insightful and compelling storytelling Lyndon Lamborn author of Standing for Something More When a young couple searched for clues connecting them to a famous ancestor their journey led them on a path they never expected converting to Mormonism House of Faith House of Cards tells the turbulent life story of their son Eric including all the typical Mormon experiences and some extraordinary episodes no Mormon will ever encounter He participated with family members in his first secret temple ritual normally reserved for adults at the age of four only to be excluded from a similar ceremony involving his family thirteen years later In 1857 a company of 120 immigrants set out from a small Arkansas town toward California In a tragic twist of fate they never reached their destination

While encamped in southern Utah local Mormons and Paiute Indians launched an ambush brutally slaughtering the group in what became known as the Mountain Meadows massacre 125 years later Eric would be raised as a Mormon in the same Arkansas community where this wagon train initially departed There he learned just how much some people still despised that faith While training for and serving a church mission in Canada in the mid 1990s Eric shared a room and became acquainted with a fellow missionary named Mark Hacking Less than a decade later when the disappearance and murder of Hacking s wife became highly publicized several international media outlets approached Eric searching for any juicy detail of the man s troubled past These stories are just the tip of the iceberg
