God and Time Gregory E. Ganssle, 2025-10-16 The eternal God has created the universe And that universe is time bound How can we best understand God's relationship with our time bound universe For example does God experience each moment of time in succession or are all times present to God How we think of God and time has implications for our understanding of the nature of time the creation of the universe God's knowledge of the future God's interaction with his creation and the fullness of God's life In this Spectrum Multiview volume four notable philosophers skillfully take on this difficult topic all writing from within a Christian framework yet contending for different views Paul Helm argues that divine eternity should be construed as a state of absolute timelessness Alan G Padgett maintains that God's eternity is more plausibly to be understood as relative timelessness William Lane Craig presents a hybrid view that combines timelessness with omnitemporality And Nicholas Wolterstorff advocates a doctrine of unqualified divine temporality Each essay is followed by responses from the other three contributors and a final counter response from the original essayist making for a lively exchange of ideas Editor Gregory E Ganssle provides a helpful introduction to the debate and its significance Together these five scholars conduct readers on a stimulating and mind stretching journey into one of the most controversial and challenging areas of theology today Spectrum Multiview Books offer a range of viewpoints on contested topics within Christianity giving contributors the opportunity to present their position and also respond to others in this dynamic publishing format

God's Apocalyptic Insurrection Richard D. Crane, 2024-10-15 What if our inherited theologies of salvation are distorted by a sinful history that includes white supremacy slavery and colonial conquest What if we perpetuate this distortion by continuing to imagine salvation as a legal transaction by which we are saved by God from divine punishment If salvation merely rectifies the individual's standing before God justice and human flourishing are viewed as peripheral to the gospel This book begins with a bit of deconstruction But the real need is construction or perhaps the discovery of another soteriological imagination To be saved is to be drawn into union with Jesus Messiah the bringer of the now and future reign of God where all things are rectified Jesus's life death and resurrected body are the space where a disordered creation is put right Jesus is God's apocalyptic insurrection against every power that dehumanizes harms and destroys human persons We are saved by the triune God by God's gracious acceptance that cannot be earned But we are saved for participation in the invasion of God's reign of justice healing and transformation Salvation has everything to do with caring for refugees resisting systemic racial and other injustices food for the hungry and valuing human persons as Christ incognito

When Texas Prison Scams Religion Michael G. Maness, 2023-05-22 When Texas Prison Scams Religion exposes corruption in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice especially in the abuse of religion In many ways this book is a literature review of 1 800 plus works that defends freedom of conscience in prison while exposing the unconstitutionality of the seminary program that buys faith with favor from prisoners The state veritably ordains the prisoner a Field Minister that represents the offices of the Governor TDCJ Director and wardens throughout the prison Therein TDCJ lies about neutrality in a program all about Christian missions and lies again in falsely certifying elementary Bible students as counselors Why is the director sponsoring psychopaths counseling psychopaths In fact TDCJ pays 314 million a year to UTMB for psychiatric care and receives not a single report of the care given and worse for UTMB generates no reports itself The underbelly TDCJ s executive culture of cover up is exposed TDCJ has hired the lowest qualified of the applicant pool many times in the last 25 years and regularly destroys statistics on violence TDCJ Dir Collier led the prison to model Louisiana Warden Burl Cain the most scandal ridden in penal history according to a host of published news stories for 20 years Therein Collier led TDCJ to favor the smallest segment of religious society within Evangelical Dominionism Texas has no business endorsing the truth of any religion over another We close with a proposal that utilizes the 400 000 000 hours of officer contact over ten years as a definitive influence in contrast to a commissioner that spends less than 10 minutes on each decision Maness has been lobbying Austin for 15 years to definitively access staff for his 100 000 Mothers 1% Certainty Parole Texas Constitutional Amendment which would revolutionize prison culture and save Texans millions of the dollars

God and Moral Law Mark C. Murphy, 2011-11-17 Does God's existence make a difference to how we explain morality Mark C Murphy critiques the two dominant theistic accounts of morality natural law theory and divine command theory and presents a novel third view He argues that we can value natural facts about humans and their good while keeping God at the centre of our moral explanations The characteristic methodology of theistic ethics is to proceed by asking whether there are features of moral norms that can be adequately explained only if we hold that such norms have some sort of theistic foundation But this methodology fruitful as it has been is one sided God and Moral Law proceeds not from the side of the moral norms so to speak but from the God side of things what sort of explanatory relationship should we expect between God and moral norms given the existence of the God of orthodox theism Mark C Murphy asks whether the conception of God in orthodox theism as an absolutely perfect being militates in favour of a particular view of the explanation of morality by appeal to theistic facts He puts this methodology to work and shows that surprisingly natural law theory and divine command theory fail to offer the sort of explanation of morality that we would expect given the existence of the God of orthodox theism Drawing on the discussion of a structurally similar problem that of the relationship between God and the laws of nature Murphy articulates his new account of the relationship between God and morality one in which facts about God and facts about nature cooperate in the explanation of moral law

Psychology and Christianity Eric L. Johnson, 2009-08-20 How are Christians to understand and undertake the discipline of psychology This question has been of keen interest because of the importance we place on a correct understanding of human nature This collection of essays edited by Eric Johnson and Stanton Jones offers four different models for the relationship between Christianity and psychology

Good God David Baggett, Jerry L. Walls, 2011-04-20 This book aims to reinvigorate discussions of moral arguments for God's existence To open this debate Baggett and Walls argue that God's love and moral goodness are perfect without defect necessary and recognizable After integrating insights from the literature of both moral apologetics and theistic ethics they defend theistic ethics against a variety of objections and in so doing bolster the case for the moral argument for God's existence It is the intention of the authors to see this aspect of natural theology resume its rightful place of prominence by showing how a worldview predicated on the God of both classical theism and historical Christian orthodoxy has more than adequate resources to answer the Euthyphro Dilemma speak to the problem of evil illumine natural law and highlight the moral significance of the incarnation and resurrection of Christ Ultimately the authors argue there is principled reason to believe that morality itself provides excellent reasons to look for a transcendent source of its authority and reality and a source that is more than an abstract principle
