Good Bye Dracula The Story Of A Transylvanian Defector:

Good-bye, Dracula! Traian Nicola, 2012 Communism Strikes at the Very Heart of the Human Soul Good bye Dracula was written at a time when nostalgia for communism was on the rise in the former Soviet bloc countries after the fall of the Berlin Wall State property was quickly transferred to a few thousand people mostly former high level communist party officials and secret police top brass This left a large portion of the people both young and old to struggle for their very existence Political corruption became widespread and led to disappointment and anger This book is more than a memoir It allows the reader to experience communist Romania through the eyes of an innocent child growing up in the 1950s in Transylvania It follows his life as a student and later as a member of the Romanian Foreign Intelligence Service a powerful organization working directly for Nicolae Ceausescu the leader of the Romanian Communist Party This fascinating and personal account gives an insider's view of communism and why it should never again be considered as a viable political option Studies in newspaper articles and ships log entries whose narrators are the novel's protagonists and occasionally supplemented with newspaper clippings relating events not directly witnessed. The events portrayed in the novel take place chronologically and largely in England and Transylvania within the same year between 3 May and 6 November. A short note at the end of the final chapter is written 7 years after the events outlined in the novel. The tale begins with Jonathan Harker, a newly qualified English solicitor, visiting Count Dracula at his castle in the Carpathian Mountains on the border of Transylvania, Bukovina, and Moldavia to provide legal support for a real estate transaction overseen by Harker's employer, Mr Peter Hawkins of Exeter. Initially impressed by Dracula's gracious manners, Harker soon realizes that he is Dracula's prisoner. Wandering the Count's castle against Dracula's admonition, Harker encounters three vampire sisters from whom he is rescued by Dracula. Harker soon realizes that Dracula himself is also a vampire. After the preparations are made, Dracula leaves Transylvania and abandons Harker to the sisters. Harker barely escapes from the castle with his life. Dracula boards a Russian ship, the Demeter, taking with him boxes of Transylvanian soil which he requires in order to regain his strength. The ship weighs anchor at Varna and eventually runs aground on the shores of Whitby in north-east England. The captain's log narrates the gradual disappearance of the entire crew until the captain alone remained, himself bound to the helm to maintain course. An animal resembling a large dog is seen leaping ashore. It is later learned that Dracula successfully purchased multiple estates under the alias Count De Ville throughout London and devised to distribute the boxes to each of them utilizing transportation services as well as moving them himself. He does this to secure for himself lairs and the boxes of earth would be used as his graves which would grant safety and rest during times of feeding and replenishing his strength.

Should have arrived at 6:46 but train was an hour late. Buda Pesth seems a wonderful place from the glimpse which I got of it from the train and the little I could walk through the streets. I feared to go very far from the station as we had arrived late and would start as near the correct time as possible. The impression I had was that we were leaving the West and entering the East, the most western of splendid bridges over the Danube which is here of noble width and depth took us among the traditions of Turkish rule. We left in pretty good time and came after nightfall to Klausenburgh. Here I stopped for the night at the Hotel Royale. I had for dinner or rather supper a chicken done up some way with red pepper which was very good but thirsty. _ Mem _ get recipe for Mina. I asked the waiter and he said it was called paprika hendl and that as it was a national dish I should be able to get it anywhere along the Carpathians. I found my smattering of German very useful here indeed. I don't know how I should be able to get on without it. Having had some time at my disposal when in London I had visited the British Museum and made search among the books and maps in the library regarding Transylvania. It had struck me that some foreknowledge of the country could hardly fail to have some
