

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a pendulum bob, likely made of brass, hanging from a thin yellow string. The bob is positioned on the left side of the frame. The surface it is resting on is a zen garden, with the sand meticulously raked into concentric, wavy patterns that radiate from the point of contact. The lighting is warm and directional, coming from the upper left, which creates a strong highlight on the top of the bob and casts long, soft shadows into the sand. The overall mood is one of precision and calm. A white rectangular box with a thin black border is overlaid on the right side of the cover, containing the title and authors' names.
