encounter at work and enhances their ability to do what they know is right despite these organizational pressures. The book highlights the effects of organizational factors on ethical behavior, illustrates exemplary moral courage and lapses of moral courage, explores the skills and information that support those who act with moral courage, and considers how to change organizations to promote moral courage as well as how to exercise moral courage to change organizations. By giving readers who want to do the right thing guidelines for going about it, Moral Courage in Organizations: Doing the Right Thing at Work is a potent tool to foster more ethical organizational behavior.

Communication Strategies for Corporate Leaders

Pragyan Rath, Apoorva Bharadwaj, 2017-11-06. Communication is key to success in every aspect of life and ever so in a competitive business environment. This book examines managerial communication from seminal theoretical and demonstrative vantage points through interdisciplinary amalgamation of sciences and the liberal arts. It presents new paradigms of managerial communication in the form of manoeuvres that can act as game changers in tug-of-war business situations including difficult negotiations, conflicts, and interpersonal dissonance that characterise the day-to-day corporate workplace tenor. This volume develops persuasion strategies based on argumentation tactics derived, for example, from legal cross-examination. It introduces problematisation and deconstruction as effective communication tools into mainstream managerial discourse. It employs Harvard Business School cases to demonstrate problem-solving skills which will further serve as a guide to writing business reports, plans, and proposals. It positions business writing methods as taxonomical tenets that can help tackle complex business scenarios. It draws business diagnostic procedures from diverse fields such as Sherlock Holmes from popular culture and Jared M. Diamond from ecology. This book will be a significant resource for business communication practitioners, especially corporate managers and leaders, sales and marketing professionals, and policymakers. It will be of interest to teachers and students alike in business communication, organization behaviour, human resource management, and marketing communications. It will act as a useful aid for classroom efficacy for teachers and academics.

Foundations of Finance, 2004. Getting It Right. Viva Bartkus, Ed Conlon, 2008-07-23. To be a successful business leader, executives need to make values-based problem solving a habit of mind, argue management experts and Notre Dame professors Viva Bartkus and Ed Conlon. In Getting It Right, Bartkus and Conlon draw on insights from consulting, management, and academia to deliver a powerful message: no matter how chaotic the marketplace, leaders can still address even the most staggering challenges in a calm and confident manner.

□□□□□□, 2006. Mba Before College. Aileen Yi Fan, 2018-10-17. Mark Twain said, "Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn't do than by the ones you did do." I encourage every child to start his or her own business in college or high school, a time when no mortgage or family commitments are involved. It has never been easier to start a business in today's digitally connected world. Research shows that the fastest way to achieve financial freedom and fulfill one's growth and contribution is to start a business. The main purpose of this book is to introduce you to the concept of business administration so you can start your business properly. The book covers the basic principles of business success authentic leadership effective communication managing money people and resources acquiring skills and tools in operations finance and marketing and understanding the business environment economics and the entrepreneurial process     Keys to Great Writing Revised and Expanded Stephen Wilbers, Faith Sullivan, 2016-09-19

Communication in the Diverse Workplace Geraldine Hynes, 2023-02-10 Foregrounding the vital importance of interpersonal communication and cultural competence in the workplace this book offers concise practical strategies for daily communication in a global business environment The workplace is steadily becoming more diverse and cultural competence is widely recognized as a key to success in terms of revenue profit market share and workforce productivity This and diversity appreciation are the two cornerstones for effective interpersonal communication facilitating relationship development improving job satisfaction commitment loyalty and trust and leading to performance and organizational success The effectiveness of diversity training sessions and cultural guidebooks can vary business professionals need a book that presents more than descriptions of culture bound business practices or prescriptions for valuing diversity This book is that practical solution presenting a conceptual model along with tools to put it to work from day one including cases and examples With its strategies for reducing diversity miscues techniques for responding in uncomfortable conversations and innovative ways to bridge cultural gaps this book will help current and aspiring leaders across industries build rapport and promote constructive behaviors in a diverse work environment resulting in organizational success     The Professional

Communications Toolkit D. Joel Whalen, Tina M. Ricca, 2007 The Professional Communications Toolkit presents a compelling vision of communication that offers little known and amazingly effective techniques for the novice speaker and stage savvy pro alike Author D Joel Whalen provides practical research based tools that apply perfectly to all professional communication whether it's one on one conversations speaking at small staff meetings or delivering a keynote address to a ballroom full of people     Changing Gears J. Carlopio, 2003-02-20 Many change management programmes designed to implement new technology are unsuccessful The author draws upon a number of perspectives in change management and organisational strategy to show that failure is often not to do with technical factors but because of resistance of the workforce He presents a new approach to implementing technology based upon the persuasion and commitment of the main stakeholders Carlopio argues that senior managers should take organisational sensitivities and characteristics into account and build a communication and training and development strategy that will support the implementation of change In this way members of an organisation will be encouraged to embrace the new technology and it will become a part of their corporate mindset

North American Firms in East Asia Paul Beamish,A.E. Safarian,1999-11-20 This volume examines how foreign firms which are entering or operating in various Asian countries have responded to the obstacles and opportunities which were identified in the preceding volumes of this series There is an overview chapter and seven case studies of Canadian and American based businesses The studies cover a variety of sectors such as telecommunication finance and engineering services The authors highlight a range of issues that have to be resolved when operating in particular countries The outcome of the bargaining process on entry into another country for example or the approach taken in personnel relations can be critical to success or failure

Public Speaking for Leaders Apoorva Bharadwaj,Pragyan Rath,2021-06-23 This book studies the art of public speaking as oration instead of just ornamentation It repositions public speaking as a fundamental business leadership act and a solution enabling and problem solving communication approach Drawing on in depth case studies it considers various situations that a managerial leader encounters and delivers speech solutions as strategic manoeuvres for attaining desired targets The volume Deals with public speaking exclusively from a business perspective Produces a workable manual of managerial public speaking that introduces the concept of oration as Or Action oratory that leads to desired action Presents a variegated analysis of speech texts from history politics fiction social media film industry platform content and business product presentations Customises speeches into unique speech clusters where readers can readily find the type of speech texts they require for their own specific content development The first of its kind this book will be a key text for entrepreneurs corporate managers academic practitioners and executives It will also be of interest to students and researchers of behavioural economics rhetoric strategy communication studies business communication fiction theory generation studies and virtual reality studies
